

CLINIC DEATH TOLL 127

COLLEGE FOOTBALL STAR GIVES LIFE FOR HEROISM

LONG WAY BACK TO HITCHING POST FOR ZEPPELIN

(Special To The News)
PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—
The Zeppelin turned back.
Trouble with riding on that is if anything goes wrong, it's too far back to a hitching post.
Went over to New York yesterday. See where Police Commissioner Whelan appointed a crime committee of twenty to help him keep a list of crimes.
If they hear of any that he don't know, they report them to him.
Then, at the end of the year, the one that has heard about the most crimes gets the prize.
Farmers got more relief.
Tariff was raised on window panes. Cheap glass from Glasgow has always hurt our American glass growers.
Yours,
WILL.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Indication that present school training is teaching children to appreciate books rather than fiction and to vigorously indulge in them is shown by figures issued from the library.
Adults read little or no fiction thereas the juveniles demand a very large amount of non-fiction.

Members of the motor club and others should drop in on Bernie Han-ton in his new headquarters in the Castleton. The new room is quite a bit larger and is a very fine place for headquarters.

Volant is making plans for his big field day and cattle show. According to the group in charge, Dr. Jordan will be there beyond a doubt, so there will probably be quite a bit of excitement in the little town about June 28.

Boy Scouts of the city recently distributed a few thousand fly swatters about town to housewives with expected to use them. Since the recent cold spell, J. Lee Calahan, executive, opines that perhaps more swatters would have been much more appropriate.

Pa. News joins with the city in extending a welcome to the delegates here to attend the sessions of the state convention of the Business and Professional Women's clubs.

With a Chamber of Commerce meeting in the Castleton, with a large audience at the concert at the First M. E. church, and the regular downtown demand for parking space, there simply wasn't any last night.
Pa. News's first chance to park near the News office was a spot in front of the old Martin Gantz school, near the corner of Jefferson and Grant streets. Quite a little hike from the News merely for the purpose of securing your car.

Orders of council on recommendation of Fire Chief Charles Lynn for location of some additional fire alarm boxes met with approval at Pa. News. Fact is, we believe that there should be more boxes in the city. There should at least be a fire alarm box at every school in the city, or on the street nearby.

Ben Jones Dies At Grove City After Gassing

Urged Rescue Of Others Befor Himself — Drove Home To Grove
City Yesterday

(Special To The News)
GROVE CITY, May 17.—
Death claimed one of the heroes of the Cleveland Clinic disaster here when Ben Jones, aged 31, one of Grove City's finest football stars, passed away at the home of his father-in-law, H. E. Peare early today.

The heroism of Jones in the Cleveland disaster stood out even above the scores of examples of heroism under trying conditions. Hanging onto a fourth story window ledge he swung back and forth for fifteen minutes, dodging the gas, cheering the trapped patients on and refusing to be rescued until efforts had been made to get some of his inside.

Thought Unhurt
Even after his rescue, he insisted that the others be taken care of first.
He insisted that he had escaped the gas, but this apparently was not so.
He was taken suddenly ill last night and passed away this morning.
His courage in the disaster was typical of the man. As a football player for Grove City college he was a clean, hard playing athlete, vicious in attack, but square and clean. Courage was a part of him and his refusal to have his own wants cared for until others less fortunate were attended to was merely another expression of his character.

He had gone to Cleveland for a tonil operation and was on the fourth floor when the explosion occurred.
Realizing that he would be trapped in the room and that the gas and smoke would overcome him he crawled out onto the window ledge and clung to the window ledge and

Ready To Move Into New Building At Westminster

Instructors To Move In On Saturday—Students Are Ready

NEW OLD MAIN
MEMORIAL DONE

According to plans made at the meeting of the Westminster College faculty yesterday, instructors will move into Old Main Memorial, new main building, tomorrow and will have all college business transferred to the main offices and departmental offices in the new structure by Monday.

In all probability, the last chapel service of the year, at which various academic and athletic awards are announced and presented, will be held in the new chapel of Old Main Memorial.

Rushing Work
Crews of workmen have been working two shifts for the last two weeks getting everything in readiness for occupancy. A group of college students have been employed all week washing windows and scrubbing the terrazzo floors. The campus surrounding the new building has been graded and grass seed has been sown.
Workmen last week installed the row of electric light posts along the terrace on the south front of the building. Another group has been working night and day getting the inland floor of the chapel ready so that the pews may be installed. Carpenters are now erecting and assembling the pews, and will fasten them in their places today and tomorrow.
Finishing Touches
The beautiful curtain and drops for the little theater arrived yesterday and were hung in place; all offices have had signs painted on the doors for the convenience of students and

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—"Scar-face Al" Capone, notorious Chicago beer baron, and his bodyguard, Frank Cline, pleaded guilty to carrying concealed weapons in municipal court today and were given sentences of one year each in the county prison
by Judge John A. Walsh.
The men decided to plead guilty after a conference with their attorneys, Bernard L. Lemish and Cornelius Haggarty Jr. They had previously been directed to stand "mute" and Judge Walsh had directed a "not guilty" plea to be entered on the records for each of the men.
Indictment, trial and sentencing of the men occurred about 13 hours after their arrest last night.
Their prison sentence is the maximum that can be imposed under Pennsylvania statutes for this offense. Judge Walsh also could have fined each $500.

Reapportionment Fight Continues

U. S. Senate Continues Battle
Over Reapportionment Measure Today

BY WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The battle over congressional reapportionment with its changes in state representation and possible effect on presidential elections was resumed in the senate
today.
The reapportionment bill to which is linked a section authorizing a new census this year would increase congressional representation in eleven states while slashing the representation in 17 others. Its opponents charged it was hastily drawn and dispute the basic methods of computing representation.

Most of the opposition revolves around a provision giving the president power to reapportion the house if congress fails to act after any future census. This provision was added to offset the dilatoriness of congress, which has not yet reapportioned the house on the 1920 census, although the constitution directs it to do so at once.
Senator Black (D) of Ala., who led the fight against the bill charged it would give the president too much power—a power he might use to maintain his party in office by changing the representation of states almost at will.
"This would give the president the power to change representation in congress and thereby the vote of the various states for president," said Black.

New Construction Measures Signed

HARRISBURG, May 17.—Appropriations totaling $26,910,101 for new construction in various branches of state governmental institutions were finally approved today by Governor John S. Fisher. The total was carried in a series of nine bills.
The governor has not yet approved, but is expected to, an appropriation of $90,000 for completion of the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Bridge at Harrisburg.

Chicago's Richest

New Million-Dollar Heiress Returns To School

ROSE MARIE BAUR

By ROY J. GIBBONS
Central Press Staff Writer
CHICAGO, May 17.—How would you like to be able to write a check for $1,000,000, girls?

Order your hose and gloves by the dozen pairs get your hats direct from the Rue de la Paix and have a standing order for corsages with the florist?

And that's not the half of it.
Miss Rose Marie Baur, 18 years old, can do all these trifles and then some. As Chicago's richest girl worth it is estimated more than $2-500,000, she can write her own ticket for almost anything from a trip to Europe to a husband.

Rose Marie, the daughter of Mrs.
Bertha Baur, Republican national committeewoman from Illinois, inherited two-thirds of her father's estate recently on reaching the age of 18. She made the trip from Bryn Mawr College in Pennsylvania, where she is attending school, to assume formal charge of the fortune, left her when her father, Jacob Baur, the liquid carbonic magnate, died intestate nearly 17 years ago.

A scratch or two of a pen and the money was hers to do with as she pleased.
But Rose Marie didn't seem to think she was in any way different from any other 18-year-old girl. Her mother, who was once a stenographer and later managed the affairs of her husband's business, gave a party in her honor. Not too large a one.
And Rose Marie started back for Bryn Mawr.

She can still write the check, or have any of the other things. But she prefers going back to school.
Friends declare she says that the money might be lost or it might even vanish. But in learning, Chicago's richest million-dollar heiress appreciates that she has something that can never be taken from her and will always stand by as the staunchest kind of ally.

OVER 170 ATTEND
THURSDAY AFFAIR

W. R. COX

In the neighborhood of 170 men, members of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, employees and officials of the Pennsylvania railroad, and a number of special railroad guests from the district, were present at the second 1929 membership dinner of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce which occurred Thursday night at 6:30 o'clock in the crystal ball room of the Castleton.

It was "Pennsylvania Night" and members of the local E. and A. division of the Pennsylvania were more than anxious to make it known that it was. There was a host of the railroad employees present, a number of officials of the district, E. A. Fenton, local supervising agent acted as toastmaster while W. R. Cox, freight traffic manager of the system, gave the main address of the evening.

Second 1929 Meeting
The meeting, the second to occur this spring under the auspices of the local Chamber was perhaps the largest of the kind in several years.
There was no definite race to grand,
but the entire group met for a dinner, some entertainment, an address and good fellowship.

It was but a few minutes after scheduled time that the large group of men filed into the spacious crystal ball room and partook of the banquet dinner. As they marched through the door way they were met by the music of the local E. and A. division

Business Women Thronging City For Convention

Several Hundred Delegates
Here For Sessions At

STATE TREASURER
SPEAKS SATURDAY

State Librarian Is One Of Afternoon Speakers At Convention

Several hundred members of the Business and Professional Women's clubs of the state are being entertained by the City of New Castle today at The Castleton in the first sessions of their annual three day convention.
Registration for the huge convention, at which some 500 women are expected to attend, began this morning at eight o'clock.
Miss Emilie Solomon of this city is general chairman of the affair.
The lobby of The Castleton was alive with greetings throughout the morning. Each year, the members of the federation gather for their annual meeting and each year again finds old friendships renewed. A large number of the ladies from distant points in the state arrived late Thursday evening and many more were arriving throughout the forenoon.

Many Delegates Arrive
Delegates have arrived from practically every section of the state from east to west. There are delegates from Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Scrat-ton, Erie, Williamsport and from some 40 cities in the entire state.
Identifying the enthusiasm of the gathering and the ultimate success of the convention, members of the state directory board, state officers and heads of the various departments and committees of the federation were all present this morning ready to start the convention off.

The Hon. Frederick A. Goddard, state librarian from Harrisburg, had also arrived this morning and this afternoon will deliver his address on "Heroes of Pennsylvania".

State Officers Here

The five state officers were also present. These ladies are Mrs. Helen
M. Schuraff, president, of Erie; Mrs.
Bertha F. Munier, vice president, of Williamsport; Miss Mary Lyle, corresponding secretary, of Lancaster;
Miss Helen A. Blair, recording secretary, of Wellsboro; and Miss Anna A.
Adams, treasurer, of Pittsburgh.

Miss Sara Jackson of Harrisburg, who is chairman of the nominating committee holds the honor of being the one person who traveled the greatest distance to New Castle to attend the convention. Her traveling distance was 420 miles.

Other heads of the convention who

CLEVELAND, May 17.—
Dr. A. J. Pearce, Cuyahoga county coroner, temporarily suspended his investigation of the horrible Cleveland Clinic disaster today and instead that institution into a research laboratory.

The coroner received a delegation from Chicago, headed by Dr. A. H.
Kegel, health commissioner, and the party went to the Clinic ruins to make investigations which it is hoped will form the basis of measures for preventing such catastrophes in the future.

At that time unofficial sources estimated the death toll as high as 127, including two deaths in the last 12 hours. U. T. Rockwood, city health commissioner, had official records of 118 deaths.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 17.—Investigating possibility that negligence on the part of someone in leaving open the fire door of the basement room in which inflammable X-ray film was stored, County Coroner A. J. Pearce, is investigating the Cleveland Clinic disaster.

Steam Fitter Questioned

Thus far no criminal negligence has been uncovered by the investigators.
Coroner Pearce stated, Buffery Boggs, steamfitter who was working in the ill-fated hospital when the explosion occurred still is held today, but he is not under suspicion. Pearce merely wants to question Boggs further in the belief that he will be of much assistance in clearing up certain events immediately preceding the blast.

Boggs has told Pearce and Assistant County Prosecutors Frank Merrick and Emerick Freed that he left the Clinic basement and was gone about half an hour, waiting for steam to be reduced.

Basement Filled With Fumes

When he returned Boggs said he found the basement filled with thick yellow fumes and saw a man run past him. Boggs and the man with the exhauster, named Steele, sprayed the fumes where they thought fire might be, but soon Boggs was overcome by the deadly fumes.

His companion left him and Boggs has not seen Steele since, the steam fitter said. Coroner Pearce has or-

County Ready To Build Lawrence Street Bridge

Council Introduces Ordinance Paving Way For Structure Long Discussed

BRIDGE WILL BE BUILT IN SPRING

It was learned during a formal meeting of city council today which was held at the city building that the commissioners of Lawrence county have agreed to erect a bridge across the Neshannock river between Lawrence and South Mill streets.

Legislation providing for the location of Lawrence street was passed some time ago but has been repeated as the new street will not strike South Mill street through the works of the steel company.

An ordinance introduced today re-locates, re-establishes and reopens Lawrence street between South Mill and South Mercer streets and provides for the opening of the thoroughfare and reopens all former legislation.

It is understood that the bridge will be built next spring.

READY TO MOVE INTO NEW BUILDING AT WESTMINSTER

Others; classroom doors have been numbered; exterior light fixtures have been installed; furniture has been unpacked and placed in the various classrooms, offices, and reception rooms; the electric signal system linking all the college buildings has been completed with the clock-work and was tested yesterday; and workmen are busy on the details of finishing up odd jobs such as the installation of exit lights over all doors, and laying of molding around the baseboard.

The new building, containing a chapel to seat 700, a little theater, 21 classrooms, the main college offices, lounge rooms for faculty, restrooms, and a number of departmental offices and libraries, will be one of the finest and most completely equipped college buildings in the country.

The native Lawrence county stone, trimmed in Indiana limestone, gives the Gothic structure an air of antiquity already. The beauty of appointments and decorations will make the new structure not only a college building where students gather at classes, but a place of inspiration as well.

RAILROAD MAN MAKES ADDRESS

orchestra which was directed by H. N. Culbertson of the seventh ward, this city.

With little ado, the banquet began and each course found several new selections from the orchestra.

Immediately following the dinner, David S. Pyle, past chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, and chairman of the meeting, sounded his gavel and the meeting was begun.

Chairman Pyle immediately congratulated President Ira Fenton on his selection of toastmaster for the affair and then introduced E. A. Fenton, E. and A. division supervising agent of the Pennsylvania railroad and located at New Castle.

Fenton Toastmaster

Mr. Fenton introduced the members of the famous Red Arrow quartet at once. These men were F. J. Braun, of Cleveland; E. P. Byers, of Johnstown; C. W. McKee, and F. W. Scholter, of McKeesport.

For a full 20 minutes the ball room was reverberating with old ballads, carefree railroad songs. "The Big Bass Viol," close harmony and selections of a more serious nature.

The applause which issued forth from the ball room and the fact that some one from the hotel lobby slipped up and opened the doors into the ball room, tells more quickly and more effectively the reception that the quartet received.

But music was not the only entertainment of the evening. Toastmaster Fenton furnished the rest of it and did so amply and capably.

For every man there was a joke and the toastmaster's repertoire seemed to be stocked to the overflowing. An estimate at the number of laughs and snarls by the entire group during the toastmaster's remarks would be impossible to make.

Introduces Guests

Fenton immediately introduced Ira M. Ramsey, president of the Chamber of Commerce and James W. Cole, secretary.

Guests who attended the meeting were then introduced and found to be R. R. Throop, purchasing agent of the Bessemer Limestone and Cement company; M. L. Bhaugh, traffic manager of the Koppel Car and Equipment company; J. M. Amsden, general superintendent of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Dock Co., at Ashtabula, Ohio; J. F. Griffith, vice president of the board of trade at Niles, Ohio.

Mr. Griffith was a former resident here until about 10 years ago. While in this city he was affiliated with the First National bank.

Others introduced were J. B. McCorkle, general coal and freight agent in the central region for the Pennsylvania railroad; J. A. Sonnenhalter, E. and A. division freight agent; and Raymond Swenk, superintendent of the E. and A. division of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Cox Speaks

W. R. Cox, general freight traffic manager of the Pennsylvania railroad and main speaker of the evening, was then introduced by Toastmaster Fenton and delivered a forceful address.

Mr. Cox's talk had to do with "Railroading What It Is and What It Means."

"Life is like a railroad, somehow," said Cox in his talk. "Some people find clear blocks ahead, others are run into a siding to remain for some time and some are wrecked. But after all, just so the car delivers the goods, it does not matter whether they are hauling sand or coal or if they do lie on the siding for some time."

"What makes New Castle great is not its factories or industries alone, but the people who live here. They alone have the future of a city in their hands," said Cox.

The freight traffic manager then made a short summary of the history of railroads in this country and stated that "transportation and communication have united the country into a single unit such as no other forces could do."

"In business," said Mr. Cox, "the relationship between the patron, the employer and employee must be one of harmony. Such a relationship means greatness. This is the thing that railroads are now striving to do."

"We hope to put art, music, culture, literature and sanitary conditions into all homes and this alone makes railroad service great."

"We pray and plan that such work may permeate throughout our entire force of employees and are doing everything to make such things possible."

Workers Loyal

"The efficiency of transportation is due to the loyalty of workers. It is the equal men, the dignified operators, the track men and all the responsible for transportation system of efficiency."

Mr. Cox then congratulated the local Chamber of Commerce on the efforts which they have been doing here in the past and thanking them for the speaking invitation, he closed his address.

Toastmaster Fenton called on the orchestra for a selection and following this the meeting was adjourned at 9:30 o'clock by general chairman D. S. Pyle.

Following the meeting there was an informal period in the lobby of The Castleton where the group had one of those fellowship meetings which occur but are not planned.

dered a search for Steele, and hopes to question him during the day.

City In Mourning

All the city was in mourning today as relatives of the victims arranged for simultaneous funerals.

Flags on City hall were half-masted and will be kept so until after the funerals, as an indication of the municipality's deep grief.

While one group investigated the cause of the disaster another banded itself together to provide funds to the extent of $500,000, if necessary for immediate rebuilding of the destroyed clinic.

A temporary clinic has been established near the old clinic and a few patients already are being taken care of there. The group which will aid Dr. George W. Orle, founder of the Cleveland Clinic, in rehabilitation is headed by Samuel Mather, noted philanthropist.

To "Carry On"

Undaunted by the sudden collapse of the monument to his life's work, Dr. Orle today announced he would "carry on." His announcement was received with great satisfaction by civic leaders who listed the clinic as one of the city's most important institutions.

Of the 225 persons in the clinic building at the time, almost all of whom were subjected to the deadly fumes of bromine gas generated by the exploding X-Ray film, about seventy five went to their homes and up to today have not been heard from since.

Medical authorities fear many of them may be suffering from the horrible effects of the gas which causes death by slowly breaking down the tissues and destroying the red blood corpuscles. This is why the death toll may continue to mount slowly for several days. Physicians urged all persons who were near the bromine gas to remain in bed and drink plenty of water.

Drugs are of little value in such cases, they said.

A check of the hospitals revealed that 35 persons exposed to the lethal gas in the clinic explosion are still patients there.

Of these, physicians held hope for the recovery of not more than half. The others gradually grow weaker, just as so many other victims have done since the frightful explosion, before succumbing.

Physicians were never more helpless in the face of disaster than in the present one. Drugs are of little value in combating the "slow death," as morgue officials have named it. They can only administer oxygen to the victim as his vitality ebbs and in a last desperate effort to save his life, resort to blood transfusion.

GRAF ZEPPELIN FORCED TO MAKE LANDING IN FRANCE

cording to airport officials at the Le Bourget flying field.

The French air officials received this news at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

No Headway

Dr. Eckener was reported to have announced in his wireless message that he was unable to continue any further.

All day long the Graf Zeppelin, with only one of her five motors working, had been fighting powerful headwinds over the Rhone Valley in Southeastern France, trying to make her way to her home port at Friedrichshafen.

Forced To Return

The airship had 18 passengers on board. She had to abandon her transatlantic flight from Friedrichshafen to Lakehurst, N. J., late yesterday when two of the rear motors became disabled over Spain. The third went dead while the ship was trying to battle her way up along the Rhone Valley towards the Swiss frontier this morning.

From daybreak until late afternoon the German air commodore tried with all the skill at his command to outmaneuver the stormy winds by rising above and circling them, but without avail.

The ship swept in circles between Montellimar and Lyons.

After passing over the Valance district the Graf appeared to be in distress, pitching about in the wind.

With her impaired motor power she could not make any forward progress. Dr. Eckener's reported request for troops to aid a landing at Valance was evidently dictated by a desire to make a landing before darkness fell.

Another exchange telegraph dispatch said that, at 4:45 o'clock the Zeppelin was over the village of Baillans, 25 miles southeast of Valance. The ship had turned several times in the wind.

Broken Milk Bottles Cause Of Complaints

Police Chief Also Warns About Throwing Tacks At Balloons

Chief of Police C. C. Horner had two announcements to make this morning which he hopes will be heeded by those to whom they are addressed.

The first is the resumption of complaints about milk dealers breaking milk bottles on the streets, with the result that many motorists are sustaining punctures which are unnecessary if those responsible would clean up the glass. It is proposed to fine those responsible in the future.

The second is concerning the practice of certain smart people who on the occasion of the last circus took much pleasure in shooting or throwing tacks into the balloons of small children and puncturing them.

Such a practice does not end the complaint against these persons, as the tacks fell in the streets and caused motorists punctures and trouble. There will be a "tax" levied on all such persons caught in the future, which may lead them to think that the throwing of tacks is not so funny.

Maitland Home Is Exempt From Liens

Irene Maitland home, is exempt of $1,559.05 paving assessment, liens, it was stated today in council by Solicitor White. He pointed out that the court had stricken off the liens under the law which provides that places of worship and used for religious purposes are exempt from taxation. The liens were filed as the result of the paving of Phillips and South Mercer streets.

PARTISAN WARFARE OCCURS IN HOUSE ON FARM MEASURE

iron out differences between the bodies and then presenting it for final passage.

The Republican plan prevents the offering of a motion to instruct the conferees to stand out for the debenture idea and doomed in conference, as seven of the ten probable conferees already are pledged to kill it.

"There isn't the slightest doubt but that the Republican plan is intended to prevent the house from voting squarely upon the debenture plan," said Garner. "They are afraid to meet the issue. I believe that if a straight-out vote were permitted, it probably would be kept in the bill by the house."

A growing sentiment for the debenture plan in the house is said to have cooled the anger of some house Republicans, who favored rejection of the senate bill on the ground that the debenture plan affects revenues and therefore the senate violated the house's prerogatives in adding it to the farm bill.

Rule Is Framed

In view of this sentiment and a division on the constitutional question, the house rules committee finally framed a rule stating that "there is a question" as to whether the senate infringed upon the rights of the house, but stating that the objection would be waived in order to get quick action on the farm bill.

In view of this sentiment and a division on the constitutional question, the house rules committee finally framed a rule stating that "there is a question" as to whether the senate infringed upon the rights of the house, but stating that the objection would be waived in order to get quick action on the farm bill.

Rep. Haugen (R) of Iowa, chairman of the house agriculture committee and co-author of the farm bill, denied that the house was dodging a vote in sending the bill to conference.

Haugen declared that the debenture plan, which calls for payment of an export bounty on farm surpluses out of tariff receipts, had been rejected by all but one of the major farm organizations.

May Have To Fill Swansea Street Gutter

Fifty loads of broken crockery will probably be bought by the city, at the suggestion of Councilman Reeves to be used for the Swansea street fill. Reeves also stated that an additional 250 loads of crockery are also needed in Robinson street. It cost the city $250 to put the 500 loads in the Robinson street fill. The city pays between 50 and 60 cents as a cost of each load delivered.

FIVE CONTAGIOUS CASES REPORTED

Five additional cases of contagion today were reported to the municipal health department. There are three cases of mumps in one family. The patients follow:

Mumps—Joseph, James and Dick Russell, 206 Boyles avenue. Mumps—Nancy McKee, 414 North Mercer street. Mumps—Jack Elliott, 7, 314 Berger Place.

School Pools Open During Vacation

School Directors Grant Use Of Pool To Playground Children

School board officials, it was stated today by Councilman Tyler had agreed that children who frequent playgrounds during the summer would find the swimming pools at Ben Franklin and George Washington Junior high schools available.

This was a suggestion which came as the result of the school board being asked to help the municipal projects by allowing the use of school grounds and equipments. Mrs. John Nordhardt and Attorney Roy Hazen, recreation board members were appointed to take the matter up with the school directors.

During the session of the recreation board held yesterday teachers for 1929 were named. The experienced teachers will receive $20 a week and the inexperienced instructors $15 a week. The playgrounds will open June 10.

ARCHITECTURE IS DISCUSSED BY CLUB

READING CIRCLE OF '06 TO CLOSE FOR SUMMER

The Art club members entertained at an appetizingly appointed afternoon tea Thursday at the home of Mrs. Richard Sloan on Moody avenue.

During the meeting it was voted to pay the expenses of one girl for a week at the Y. W. C. A. camp. A committee composed of Mrs. W. D. Stutzinger, Miss Edith Moore and Mrs. Campbell Garvey, was appointed to expend a sum for some civic improvement.

The five representatives from the Art club to the federation meeting next Tuesday are Mrs. Thomas Glicky, Mrs. George Knox, Mrs. C. H. Bauder, Mrs. Richard Sloan and Mrs. Jack McNeil.

A program on "Architecture and Its Modern Trend" was an outstanding feature of the afternoon. The following papers were given: "Industrial Building and Apartment Houses" by Mrs. Clair Chalmers; "Churches and Theaters," Miss Edith Moore; "The Future of American Architecture—Home and Garden," Mrs. Thomas Phillips.

A number of members of the club attended the exhibition of paintings at The Castleton today.

Following the program an informal social time was enjoyed at which time refreshments were served by the social committee.

Butler Girls

Mrs. C. L. Sipe of Warren avenue entertained the members of the Butler Girls at her home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Willard Jones was the special guest. Games were the chief pastimes of the afternoon. Mrs. D. C. Bovard and Mrs. A. B. Coulter were prizes. A small book on the biography of each member was presented to each guest.

A handkerchief shower was presented to the hostess who, with her husband, is leaving the first of June for a three months tour of the west. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Eber Anderson.

Mrs. William McCune and Mrs. Edward Orr will be joint hostesses at the next meeting, the time and place to be announced.

Three A Club

Mrs. E. L. Young of East Washington street entertained the members of the Three A club at a tastefully appointed luncheon at her home Thursday. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations.

The afternoon hours were spent in playing five hundred. Prizes were won by Mrs. Ethel Kirchner and Mrs. Harry Gilmore. Mrs. Katherine Bailey and Mrs. Carl McCracken were special guests.

The aids were Mrs. Earl Bishop and Mrs. Katherine Bailey. Mrs. Harry Gilmore of Cedar street will entertain the club in two weeks.

Ten Ivories Club

The Ten Ivories met Thursday evening with Miss Martha Albone as hostess. Sewing and chat were the chief pastimes. The prize was won by Mrs. Paul DeCarbo. Later refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her sister, Mrs. Joseph DeLillo. In two weeks, Mrs. Paul DeCarbo of East Lutton street will entertain.

Mrs. C. C. Campbell of Ray street, entertained the Reading Circle of '06 at the closing meeting of the summer at her home Thursday afternoon.

An interesting program featured the meeting. Papers were read by the following: Mrs. E. C. Morrow, "The People's Post-Laureate"; Mrs. M. P. Book, "The Geography of Money"; Mrs. J. C. Cavill, "The Pageant at Jerusalem"; and Mrs. W. W. Martin, "The Price of Incompetence."

At the conclusion of the program, lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. J. C. Cavill. The June meeting will be in the form of a picnic with Mrs. W. E. Patterson, Mrs. J. C. Cavill, Mrs. W. R. McKnight and Mrs. J. H. Griner as a committee in charge.

Honored At Dinner

Honoring Dr. P. Harris of the University of Pittsburgh, who has been conducting a course in the Philosophy of Education in this city during the past winter, members of the class entertained at dinner at the home of Mrs. Burdick, N. Mill street Wednesday evening. An elaborate menu was served and covers were laid for 13.

Following the dinner a gift was sent to Mrs. Harris who entertained the class in Pittsburgh, during the winter.

Those attending were Professor Roy Leslie, Professor Black, Professor Buxton, Miss Mary Vandort, Miss Alma Locke, Miss Helen Westlake, Miss Susanna Young, Miss Nannie Mitchell, Mrs. Frederick Roberts, Miss Edna Robinson, Miss Riddle, and Miss Smith.

C. C. Club

Members of the C. C. club were entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Harry Reed of Sycamore street. As a special feature of the evening the birthday of the hostess was honored by the club members. Mrs. Reed was the recipient of many pretty gifts from the club members which was a surprise to her.

Games, music and chat were the pastimes. The club prize was won by Mrs. Harry Smiley. At a seasonable hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess Mrs. Reed assisted by Mrs. Grace Furlong and Mrs. Samuel Brudenell.

On Thursday June 6 the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Clyde Furlong of Sycamore street.

Carnival Event Opens Season At Field Club

Spring and summer may be marked on the calendar on different dates, but the two seasons were combined in an opening at the Field Club Thursday evening that will have future progeny chairman working to keep up to the high standard set.

It was Carnival Night and from six thirty until midnight the members of the club and their lady friends checked their dignity on the parking grounds and gave themselves over to a celebration that sparkled from the opening to the closing.

For the carnival the club house was decorated with flags and bunting, while the dining room was a midway comparable to the old time midway of street carnivals. Barkers and grifters, performers and customers all mingled together in a hodge podge of hilarity and noise.

Dinner was served in the living room of the club at 8:30 and the crowd was so large that two servings were necessary. At nine o'clock the ringmaster Dr. H. E. Zerner opened the show with a grand free exhibition of the freaks and wonders of the show, after which the guests were admitted to the carnival room. Here they played the midway games until 10:30 after which Attorney Thomas W. Dickey gave away prizes to some of the folks present.

The carnival was headed by Dr. E. M. Parlett and was easily the best opening celebration the club has had in years.

ANNIVERSARY HONORED AT EVENING PARTY

Miss Margaret Hebley entertained a number of friends at an evening party Thursday in honor of the 30th marriage anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Hebley, of Neshannock avenue extension.

Kiddies are wild about it— the new cereal that pops and crackles

You never have to coax the children to eat when you serve Kellogg's Rice Krispies. Kiddies love the taste of this new cereal. And they are simply fascinated with the way it crackles and pops when you pour on the milk or cream.

Golden-crisp rice bubbles! Packed with the nourishing elements of toasted rice.

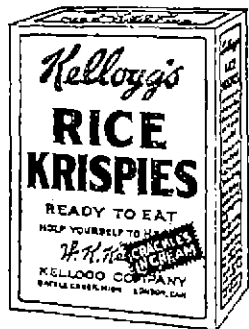

Order a package for breakfast. Try Rice Krispies with fruits or honey added. Great for lunch. Ideal for the children's supper. Easy to digest—how the milk disappears!

Sprinkle Rice Krispies into soups. Make crisp macaroons, candies. Butter and serve like pop corn.

Order from your grocer. Eat some plain—right out of the red-and-green package. That's how good Rice Krispies are! Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Horned Owls Kill Off Ringnecks

Game Protectors At State Farm Kill Off A Number Of Vermin

In the past few weeks at the Charles G. Jordan State Game farm near Harlansburg, those in charge would find the carcasses of one or more of the older ringneck pheasants in the cages and were at a loss for a time to determine just what was the cause of the destruction. Finally when the loss had reached some thirty to thirty-five ringnecks, a determined effort on the part of the game protectors affiliated with the farm, resulted in the discovery that the loss was due to the activities of a number of large horned owls, which kill and destroy birds, whenever the opportunity is given them.

The hunt was then on and eight of the big horned owls had been hunted down and killed a few days ago, since which time there has not been a pheasant missing and it is believed that this type of enemy of the pheasants has been eliminated for the time.

The men hunting the owls were materially assisted in their hunt for the owls by the crows, who prey upon the owls and the activity of the crows in following the owls in the vicinity of the farm aided the hunters in putting an end to this nuisance.

First Ringnecks Hatched At Farm

Many Eggs Are Still Being Shipped To Other Game
Refuges

There is something doing all the time at the Charles G. Jordan state game farm near Harlansburg, as this is the laying and setting season for ringneck pheasants and the some 1,000 ringnecks in captivity there are laying an average of 500 eggs a day. There have been shipped from the local state farm to other game refuges of the state 9,500 of these ringneck pheasant eggs and more will be sent as long as the present rate of production is maintained.

Fourteen hundred of the eggs have been set under bantam hens at the Jordan farm and the first of the eggs have just been hatched out.

In this first group there were 200 eggs set under bantam hens and there were 154 hatched out and are living at the present time, which is considered a very good percentage.

Talkies Are Boost For British Films

American Invention Being Introduced To English Movie Fans

LONDON, May 17.—The British film industry has received a great tonic from the advent of the talking picture. It will give an ascendancy that the quota act alone could never have done.

These views are expressed by Herbert Wilcox of the British Dominions Film Corporation, and Rex Pomeroy, for five years technical director of the Players-Lasky Corporation. Wilcox is the first Englishman to produce with British money a full-length talking picture, just about to be released. The film entitled "Black Waters" was made in the United States with the latest and most up-to-date apparatus, which Wilcox has now brought to England with the intention of starting "talkie" productions at the height of present American perfection. His company will begin within a few weeks to make a program of 12 to 15 full-length pictures at a studio on the outskirts of London.

There is also talk in London of a big European "talkie" film combine to be financed there. It will be composed of financiers, film producers and the owners of talking film patents. On the purely mechanical side it is stated that the big German electrical engineering firm of Siemens and Halske has combined with the British General Electric and the British and French Phonotones to manufacture apparatus for the production and exhibition of talking films.

British producers hope this combine will break the virtual monopoly now held by the American electrical engineers and stimulate competition.

Paris Dressmakers Fear Nature Cult

PARIS May 17.—Parisian dressmakers will have to close up shop if the "Back-To-Nature Society" organized by Dr. Andre Durville continues to grow in popularity.

For many years Paris has had the reputation of being woman's paradise. It looks now as though she is doomed to become a real garden of Eden whose inhabitants will wear the one-piece suits that nature gave them.

The idle stroller, the curiosity seeker, received a thrill the other day when exploring one of the tiny islands in the middle of the Seine.

What did he see?

A group of people dancing around on the greens, wearing veils and wearing nothing. They were members of the Back-To-Nature Society. They dance about in the altogether to the music of rustling leaves and whispering winds—play out-of-door games and nourish themselves on bread, fruit and water.

Dr. Durville claims he has led more than 20,000 people back to nature and more are heading the call.

The society has bought the little island in the Seine for their playground, but it is feared with the coming of warmer weather and the increasing number of members it will be necessary to purchase more spacious grounds.

Buddy Poppies Assembled By Disabled Men

Replica Of Flanders Poppy Adopted As Memorial Flower Eight Years Ago

VETS PREPARE FOR ANNUAL SALE HERE

Disabled veterans in government hospitals throughout the country have been manufacturing thousands of poppies during the past several months in anticipation of the eighth annual V. F. W. buddy poppy sale by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, during the week of Memorial Day, May 30th.

The replica of the Flanders poppy was adopted eight years ago as the World War memorial flower. It has become a fixed custom in connection with Memorial Day, significant of the sacrifices made by America's dead in all wars.

Distribution of the buddy poppy has been based on the slogan, "Honor the dead by helping the living." This plan is carried out by having the little flowers fashioned by the hands of those veterans still confined to government hospitals, their health shattered as a result of their service. Although 30 years have passed since the World War, government hospitals are filled to capacity with these disabled men. Statistics reveal a general tendency toward physical and mental breakdowns among the veterans who suffered from wounds and severe exposure overseas, but who left the service apparently able to make their own way.

Proceeds of buddy poppy sale receipts are used exclusively for the care of disabled and unfortunate ex-service men and their dependents, regardless of color, creed or affiliation. Every V. F. W. buddy poppy relief fund is administered by a committee of members and makes possible service bureau liaison work, military funerals for deceased comrades, hospital and medical care in emergency cases, acquisition and maintenance of burial lots for ex-service men. In addition, a portion of the proceeds is diverted toward development of the V. F. W. national home for orphans of veterans at Eaton Rapids, Mich.

Answer to Yesterday's Puzzle

MAKE-BELIEVE LEGS—MAKE-BELIEVE LEGS

Loon shuffled his feet, still looking down sadly upon them.

"They aren't much good to me, these make-believe legs of mine. Why in the world they had to be set so far back on my body, I can't imagine." You don't know how it tires me to get over the ground. Loon looked to Peter for sympathy. "My poor breast fairly aches sometimes from the bumping. It gets as I scrape it on the stones. But I can't manage to move any other way. I don't like the land anyhow. The water for me, every time. That is my natural home and if I am clumsy on shore I make up for it in the waves, if I do say it myself."

The boy thought that here was a bird after his own heart. Seldom had he met with one so good natured and ready to talk, and he was just going to ask him a few questions, when from somewhere in the gathering twilight above them came the long wailing cry that Peter had come to recognize. At the sound Loon cackled with delight.

"The Loons are coming! hurrah! hurrah!" cried he. "They have heard my call and are speeding up for the races."

"That was the voice of 'Swift-as-an-Arrow,' or I am very much mistaken, and he will get to the water before I do, if I don't hurry. Watch that bird as he spins glide. It is a great sight, I tell you. Not many Loons can do it as gracefully as he—"

he is the head of our clan and as wise as he is brave, a Loon among Loons.

"Be sure to notice the youngsters, come down to earth. They are half afraid to alight on the water and it is the funniest sight in the world to see them. And then the races! I won last night. By-by, folks. Wish me luck. I can choose the fishing grounds for the rest of the week if I come in a length ahead."

The friendly Loon started off towards the lake tumbling and flopping his way down the sloping bank in such a comical fashion that in spite of the fact he liked the fellow very much and wouldn't hurt his feelings for the world, Peter could not help giggling. The Loon heard him and turned around.

"Laugh while you can, Two-Legs," said he. "I don't blame you, for I know myself, I do cut a queer figure on the land. In a minute, though your laughing will be at an end and you will be thinking I am the most wonderful swimmer you have ever seen. I am proud of what I can do in the water, and I'll bet you anything you want to risk that you have never seen any beast, bird or fish with a body as light as mine, sink any quicker than I can. Just keep your eyes on me, that's all, and you'll never make fun of me again."

"By the way, when you go back to your own people you might tell them that a Loon is not as crazy as they seem to think he is."

Next: "Clown on Land, Wizard in Water."

Juvenile Books Have Greater Circulation

Juvenile Book Circulation At Public Library Greater Than Adult

Circulation figures at the public library for the past month show that juvenile works totaled 6,570 while the adult circulation was 6,252.

In the adult classification the older folk read all fiction; and there was but a very, very slight dabbling into non-fiction works.

The juveniles, however, read 5,735 fiction books but also borrowed 2,835 books that were not fiction.

During the month there were 132 new borrowers, 74 of which were adults and 58 juveniles.

Included in circulation figures were 35 foreign books which were read by adults.

3500 TEACHERS TO RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

HARRISBURG, May 17.—Reports received at the Department of Public

Instruction show that approximately 2,500 new teachers will receive diplomas at the coming commencements of the state teachers colleges and normal schools. The institutions and the number of graduates are as follows:

Bloomsburg, 236; California, 274; Cheyney, 44; Clarion, 100; East Stroudsburg, 262; Edinboro, 155; Indiana, 499; Kutztown, 203; Lock Haven, 155; Mansfield, 213; Millersville, 235; Shippensburg, 269; Slippery Rock, 215; West Chester, 394; Philadelphia, 210; Pittsburgh, 36.

At the mid-year commencement in February 191 graduates received diplomas. This makes a grand total of 3,666 new teachers prepared during the school year 1928-29.

LOG CABIN BUILT IN 1804 IS STILL IN GOOD REPAIR

(International News Service)
SUGAR VALLEY, Pa., May 17.—A log cabin that was built in 1804 was recently purchased by Colonel Henry W. Shoemaker, member of the state forest commission, and is now a garden house at his home near here. The cabin was in an excellent state of repair despite its 125 years of withstanding the elements and was moved on horse-sleds 12 miles to the colonel's home.

Pennroad Is One Of 16 Registered

HARRISBURG, May 17.—Registration of the Pennroad Corporation, security saving division of the Pennsylvania railroad, was announced today by the Pennsylvania securities commission. At the same time registration of 15 others to sell securities in Pennsylvania was announced.

The commission announced revocation of the registration which had been given Joseph L. Polan, Erie and refusal to register the Norman Investment Company, Philadelphia, and the Riverhill Industries, Inc., Wilkes-Barre.

Registrations announced were the Boulevard Recreation Company, Standard Oilstocks Corporation, Harold Woodcock and the Idea Plan, Inc., all of Philadelphia; Herald Corporation and the Pennsylvania Builders Supply Company, Inc., both of Pittsburgh.

burgh; American Basic Business Shares Corporation, W. C. Langley and Company and the Federal Water Service Corporation, all of New York; Dunn Brick and Tile Company and Andrews Land Company, both of Erie; George B. Hunter, Johnstown; Madison Fund and Gravel Corporation, Scranton; Penn. Realities, Inc., Warren; and the Potomac Telephone Company, Baltimore.

Some persons seem to be satisfied that they can prevent others from having a good time.

Cancer Causes Will Be Sought By Dr. Little

Will Spend Next Five Years
In Study Of Disease Which Takes Big Toll

EXPENSE BORNE BY WEALTHY DETROITERS

By BURL A. ELY
International News Service Staff

ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 17.—Five wealthy Detroiters, among them Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Ford will finance Dr. Clarence Cook Little, retiring president of the University of Michigan, in his researches into the causes of cancer.

The donors and trustees in addition to the Fords are Mrs. Roscoe B. Jackson, widow of the late president of the Hudson Motor Car Company, who has been a close friend of Dr. Little, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Webber. Webber is president of the J. L. Hudson Company. George B. Dorr of Bar Harbor, Me., where the laboratory will be located, is named a trustee.

The Jackson, Ford and Webber families in July, 1927, offered the sum of $50,000 annually for five years to the University of Michigan. At the time it was stipulated that the work was to be controlled by Dr. Little and that if Dr. Little left the university, the donors might have the right to designate another beneficiary.

To Leave Soon
At the time the offer was made it was not believed likely that Dr. Little would resign soon.

When Dr. Little leaves the university in June he will take active charge of the work in Bar Harbor.

Incorporation of the project was completed by Dr. Little, his brother, J. Lovell Little, of Boston; William S. Murray of Hampden, Me., instructor of anatomy at the University of Michigan; William MacGrillis Sawyer of Bangor, Me., and Judge L. B. Deasy, David O. Rodick and Mr. Dorr of Bar Harbor.

Dr. Little's activities for the next five years will center in the laboratory, which will be located on Mt. Desert, an island just off Bar Harbor.

Since 1907 Dr. Little has been interested in cancer research and his contributions on the biological aspects of the problem have won him international fame.

Studies Growth
Dr. Little has concentrated his efforts toward the study of the factors that govern normal body growth, particularly the glands of internal secretion.

In his work Dr. Little has crossed the domestic mouse with other strains from Asia and from the Faroe Islands to determine how certain physical characteristics were inherited. By exposure to X-rays of varying strength he has succeeded in transmitting cancerous characteristics in some strains of mice for more than 15 generations.

If the law of cancer transmission is definitely proved, it is held by high scientific authorities that it should be possible through marriage control to stamp out the disease.

Telephone Girl To Sing In Opera

(International News Service)

BOSTON, May 17.—It is not often that a telephone girl is chosen to sing an important role in grand opera. Such distinction, however, was won by Miss Marjorie Berry, eleven years old, at the central district telephone office of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company. Over a large number of competition Miss Berry was selected to sing the role of Susanna in Carmen when a grand opera company presented the opera here.

In addition to her musical education Miss Berry has devoted her spare time to the study of French and Italian.

"I could tell he was talking about me," she said.

"And didn't I hear him say I had a 'thick head of hair'?"

Pays 35 Years' Taxes On Land Not His Own

(International News Service)

FAIRMONT, W. Va., May 17.—W. E. Watson, coal operator, has just discovered that he has been paying taxes for 35 years on some land he didn't own, and is out about $7,000.

Through a recent survey of the land, Watson discovered that the plot on which he had been paying taxes contained only 562 acres instead of the 829 recorded in the plat books.

He petitioned the county board of audit to correct the books and give him a refund. He got an order for $233.72, for the law provides for refunds for only one year in such cases.

Japanese Births Drop In California

Number Is Cut In Half In Last Five Years, Records Show

(International News Service)
SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 17.—The Japanese population of California is on the wane.

Birth control and making whoopee appeal to the American born maiden of Nipponese parentage and a changing economic life softens her impulse to avoid the machine-like precision of child-bearing which was the instinct of her kind a decade ago, according to Dr. Walter N. Dickie, director of the state department of public health.

From a yearly output of 5,275 babies eight years ago, births to that race within the state have dwindled to less than half that number. Dr. Dickie pointed out today. Last year's "crop" numbered but 2,883, a percentage of but 3.4 as compared to the state's total in contrast with 13 per cent at the days when the alien invasion question was a sharp issue in California. Important factors, according to Dr. Dickie, are the adoption of birth control by the modern Japanese women and a drastic change in economic conditions they must face.

While California's birth rate remains about the same, and was 19.2 last year when 83,638 babies were born, the Japanese birth rate is falling off rapidly, Dr. Dickie declared.

French Canadians Will Become
U. S. Citizens Under
New Law

MONTREAL, Que., May 17.—Constituting the first northward mass movement across the frontier of Canadians seeking to regularize their status in the United States, a party of 450 French Canadians now resident in Biddeford, Me., and surrounding districts are returning to their native province early in June to go through the formalities here which will legalize their American residence under the new immigration regulations recently passed by congress.

United States government officials here have been advised that on June 4 the Maine party will come across the frontier by special train. One hundred and fifty of the French Canadians are coming to Montreal and parties of similar size will, it is understood, go to Sherbrooke and Quebec City.

The object is to take advantage of the United States law, effective March 4, that giving people of Canadian birth who are now residents below the line and who did not comply with entry regulations when they left the Dominion, a chance to legalize their American residence.

Finds Redhead Temper Due To Weight Of Hair

Finds Blond Tresses Least Weighty And Possessors
More Agreeable

CHICAGO, May 17.—George Neuman, a university scientist, before the American Anthropological Society in convention at the University of Chicago, argued that red-haired persons were temperamental because of the weight of the red hair.

"Blond hair is lightest of all," he said. During the last four months Mr. Neuman has conducted his research with 240 students as his subjects. He is convinced that he has accomplished his purpose in proving relationship between hair weight and race. Mr. Neuman studied 100 Caucasoid men, as many white women, twenty Mongoloid men and twenty Negro men.

"Hair is heavier," he concluded, "among the Mediterranean races, somewhat lighter among the Alpines, and still lighter among the Nordics. The Negro has the least weighty hair." The research also showed that man's hair is heavier than woman's.

Goldfish Hunter Is Taken Into Custody

CHICAGO, May 14.—The Julius Golden was spending a quiet evening at home. Golden is a sociable, announced he could shoot a moving goldfish in the left eye.

He took his trusty revolver, aimed carefully and blazed away at the fish bowl. In no time at all he shot six gold fish dead than a door nail. The bullets, a post mortem revealed, entered the left eyes, right eyes, ears, noses and throats.

But one has very little privacy these days. Someone complained and police arrived. They decided to arrest Golden, despite their unconvincing admiration for his marksmanship. There was little doubt but they could find some law covering.

Vitamin Triplets Found By Chemist

NEW YORK, May 14.—Vitamin B is not just one vitamin alone, but three vitamins, each with different properties, says Dr. Walter H. Eddy of Teachers College, New York, in a report to the American Academy.

He is attempting to isolate what he calls B3.

Vitamin B is a preventative for some forms of nerve irritation. Its deficiency in diet also is the ascribed cause of pellagra. It was while experimenting upon nerve effects and pellagra that Dr. Eddy came upon evidence of this existence of the third complex in this vitamin.

Someone has figured out that inventors receive from their inventions an average income of $37.25 per year. And then they have to invent a way of living on it.—The Ottawa Journal.

COMMON COLDS ARE DANGEROUS

Many Serious Ailments Get Their Start From Little Colds

Some day people will learn to appreciate the serious dangers of ordinary colds and how they weaken general health. Every day some one reports a long period of illness following a cold. Colds weaken people so that one is hardly over until another one starts. They set up an inflammation of the membranes that line the nose and throat, and these in turn extend the inflammation to the stomach and bowels. After a few weeks of this the entire mucous membrane is likely to be quite catarrhal.

When it is remembered that practically everything we need to sustain life—the air we breathe, the food we eat and the water we drink—must be absorbed through these membranes, the importance of keeping them free from catarrh will be understood. Many a person suffers agonies from a catarrhal stomach and many can trace their decline in health back to this condition in stomach, bowels or nose and throat.

That why prompt treatment of a catarrhal condition, however slight, is very important, is of real importance. World's Tonic should be taken whenever the system fails to function properly, whenever the slightest stomach or bowel trouble manifests itself, for the leading doctors of the world have agreed that everyone's bowels should move freely three times every day. In that way the ravages of catarrh may be checked and much suffering avoided.

A great host of people have used World's Tonic for catarrh. In many cases it has been used to relieve stomach trouble of long standing that was evidently catarrhal in its origin. Wherever there is stagnation of blood in the membranes, the result is catarrh. Prevent it from developing by this valuable new World's Tonic, which can be obtained of McKee's Nut-Rite Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., Paisley's, Smith's or any other first class drug store. Monkey Business Will Add Laughs To Coming Circus

Many New And Costly Features With Hagenbeck And Wallace Show This Year

Monkey business will be very much in the spotlight in the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus coming to New Castle for afternoon and night performances May 25. Miss Rae Bailey, one of the prettiest artists, had Mrs. Congo and her baby out for an airing when the circus photographer happened along, but as Mrs. Congo was not so keen about having Junior's picture taken, the little fellow is just visible.

Hagenbeck-Wallace circus comes with many new and costly features and thrilling and marvelous displays. One of the outstanding arena offerings will be Clyde Beatty, the youthful subjugator and his group of over 30 African lions and Bengal tigers. Such a display has never been offered American circus goers.

Other noted acts include the Breier Troupe of acrobats from Europe, the Ward Flyers, the Hobson Family of Riders, the Houdini Troupe of Equestrians and a host of clowns and noted artists. One of the most gorgeous spectacles ever produced will open the exhibitions.

Boys Passing Swimming Tests

Reports from George Washington Junior high school show that 33 boys have so far this month passed swimming tests in the school's swimming pool, and 11 have passed the beginner's test, which requires a boy to swim 60 yards.

Those passing the beginner's test follow: Armstrong, Sadler, McPurston, Halgren, Hoag, Williams, Nelson, McKissick, Anderson, Gulinski, DeLillo and McCallan.

HEIDELBERG FESTIVAL HAS SPECIAL DRAMAS

(International News Service)
HEIDELBERG, May 17.—The Heidelberg Festival Plays, which have heretofore been confined to the works of classic dramatists, will in future present dramas written especially for these festivals by young dramatists.

The performances this year will begin with a presentation on July 20 of Hebbel's "Agnes Bernauer."

The program for the season, which will continue until August 15, includes also Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream" with a new cast and new scenery. The direction is again in the hands of Gustav Hartung.

Taxes May Close Theatres In Paris

Protest Is Planned Against High Tariff On French Amusements

PARIS, May 17.—One hundred thousand will be rendered jobless and more than four million deprived of amusement if all theatres and moving-picture houses close down as a protest against excessive taxation.

The "Congress du Spectacle" by unanimous vote during a session held at Nice, resolved that all theatres, music-halls and moving-picture houses will close their doors unless the three government taxes now levied on such places of amusement are abolished.

It is doubtful if the government will accede to such a demand in view of the fact that a fourth tax is about to be proposed.

The three taxes that already cripple box-office receipts according to theatre owners, are a war-tax, municipal tax and a charity tax. The proceeds of the latter being turned over to governmental charitable institutions to carry out the theory that he who takes pleasure should contribute to charity.

If the quarrel between the government and playhouse owners is not settled and the theatres are closed, over 100,000 persons will be thrown out of employment and the whole population of Paris deprived of amusement.

"Doll Up" Is Motto For Males In Paris

(International News Service)
PARIS, May 17.—"Doll Up" seems to be the motto of many Frenchmen in the capital these days. Their complexions as well as the cut of their clothes are coming in for a great deal of attention and the masseurs declare that as many men as women are now coming to them for facial treatments.

They are very shy about coming up to the secret of their good looks, says Madame Aline, one of the best French masseuses, and generally arrange to have their skins treated at their own homes when Madame has hers done. I find them in nearly every case, just as coquettish as their wives but they do not like to admit it.

A Full Dollar's Worth At Higgins

That is the important thing to remember about this store. Volume buying and low expense mean only one thing — a hundred cents for your dollar. And that is what the thrifty shopper looks for. Sales mean nothing — comparative prices mean less than nothing but honest-to-goodness value does mean something. That is why we direct all of our efforts toward just one goal — giving customers a full dollar's worth.

New Castle Nurse Escapes Injury

Word has been received here that Miss Della Ueh, New Castle nurse who is on the staff of the Cleveland Clinic, is safe. For a time it was thought that she might have been a victim of the horrible disaster there, but has reassured her friends here. She has just returned from her vacation on the morning of the explosion and through some intervention of a kindly fate was working in the other end of the hospital from where the explosion occurred.

Instinct Is Keenest Among Jungle Folk

parent times that they steer themselves by the feel of the sun on their backs; by breaking off twigs as they pass, and by recognizing different objects along the route. I once blundered a boy and had him led by a circuitous route half a day's journey from my camp. At sunset I removed the bandages and asked him where the camp lay. "There!" said he instantly. And taking a compass bearing along the line of his outstretched arm, I found that he was within half a degree of accuracy. The African native has the further power of being able to visualize ground over which he has never traveled. He will instinctively avoid swampy or rough, stony ground long before he actually arrives anywhere near it, and he has an uncanny sense of the course of a river. A remarkable instance occurred one day in Portuguese East Africa. I was following the banks of the Rovuma river when my gun-bearer, a Napasa boy and, like myself, a stranger to the country, suddenly branched off from the river and struck inland. "Where are you going?" I asked. "This water bonds just here, Dwanna," he said. "It is better to cut across that way." Although my map showed no such loop in the river, events proved the boy's instinct to have been correct, for whereas the distance round the bend was 12 weary miles, across the top of the loop it was less than two. African children are just as sure as the grown-ups. A boy of six will lead a safari through the virgin bush with the same certainty of direction as will an experienced old hunter of 60. Nor are the women less infallible. Another way that outlaws are different from inlaws is that they don't say mean things about you after they have taken your money.—The Little Rock Arkansas Democrat.

Vacation School To Open June 10

Classes Will Be Conducted In Senior High And Ben
Franklin Schools

Vacation school for New Castle school pupils will open on Monday morning June 10 in accordance with the plan adopted by the New Castle school board last night.

Unlike in other years the sessions will be held at the senior high school as well as at the Benjamin Franklin junior high school. It is planned to conduct the classes of senior high grade at the Lincoln avenue building while the elementary and junior high grades would be conducted at Franklin.

Numerous reasons were presented by Superintendent C. C. Green for recommending that the school be held in two centers. Chief among these was the fact that necessary repair work must be done at Franklin building during the summer and that if part of the enrollment was removed to the senior high much of this could be accomplished without difficulty.

The senior high students' records to which it is necessary to make frequent reference are on file in the senior high building, another reason for the move.

The board also approved the recommendation to employ two principals at the salary of $7 per day. Teachers in the elementary grades will be paid $3 per day and $5 per day for high school instruction.

The superintendent was further authorized to procure the service of two swimming instructors for the two junior high swimming pools during the summer. It is planned to continue the pool activity throughout the vacation period.

Britain Teaches Sailors Hygiene

"Bo'sun's" Pipes Must Be Sterilized Before Transfer To Another

LONDON, May 17.—Britain is teaching the men of her navy to be hygienic.

A fleet order lays it down that hereafter "whenever boatswains' pipes are transferred from one man to another aboard ship they are to be disinfected by boiling for five minutes in water."

Formerly it had recently that boatswains' pipes were to be disinfected in the British Navy. The order is taken to mean that this ancient institution has still a few years of life.

The order adds: "Sufficient quantities (presumably of pipes) are to be demanded from His Majesty's Dockyards to enable this to be done without inconvenience."

In naval circles the order already has given rise to a new addition to the slang—"Boiling the bo'sun." The boatswain's pipe is a type of whistle used for blowing calls which, in the army, would be blown on a bugle.

Appeals Decision Of Justice Of Peace

Farrell Man Claims His Rights
Were Ignored In Hearing Held Before Squire

MERCER, Pa., May 17.—A petition, has been filed here by Louis Schlesinger of Farrell asking that the decision of Squire W. A. Broderick be reviewed by the court.

In his petition he claims that he was arrested for a motor code violation and notified to appear at the office of the justice on April 6 at 7 p. m. The actual hearing took place, he says, on March 31.

On his appearance at the office at this time there was no plaintiff present and he left.

He claims that the plaintiff, a policeman, later appeared and that his testimony was taken and he was fined $10 with costs, making it $15.

This is in violation of his rights as a citizen, he alleges, and asks that the matter be reviewed by the court.

COMPLETES WORK

K. W. Richards of Sharon, the mercantile appraiser for 1929 in Mercer county, has about completed his assessment of the 2200 merchants in the county.

He was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of his father, who died recently.

COMMENCEMENT DATES

The following commencement dates of county high schools are recorded here at the office of the superintendent of schools: Mercer, June 12; Transfer, June 8; Grove City, June 4; Jamestown, May 31; Fredonia, June 5. All but one school, Hadley, of the 18 in Mercer county have now a full four-year high school course.

PLAN ANNUAL FAIR

Officers of the Mercer Fair association are now planning the holding of their 47th annual fair.

The grounds are being made ready for this event.

The housing of a score of race horses at the grounds for training on the track insures that speedway being in excellent condition.

DELIVER POTATOES

The five carloads of seed potatoes from Michigan bought by county growers have all been delivered. They totaled 3200 bushels to which should be added 1,000 bushels bought last fall.

It is estimated that with this seed and that owned by the growers that 8,000 bushels of disease-free seed spuds will be planted this season.

TO CONTINUE ROUTE

The state has assured the county officials that they will proceed with the building of the 30 miles of the Perry highway to the north of here this year.

It will cost, it is estimated, on an average of $50,000 a mile.

Girl Bank Clerk Dying Of Poison

WELLSBURG, W. Va., May 17.—Louise Letzkoff, individual ledger clerk of the Wellsburg Bank and Trust Company, who, representatives of a bonding company said, was short in her accounts, was critically ill Thursday from the effects of poison.

Physicians said she would not recover. Bank officials Wednesday called in representatives of the bonding company and the latter said, after checking the accounts, that she had manipulated a number of accounts, including that of her father.

New Plan Adopted By School Board

Continuing Contract System Is Made Part Of School Program Here

Members of the New Castle school board last night formally adopted the continuing contract for teachers, which policy has been in use for one year already in New Castle. It was not until the recent legislature that the continuing contract was made upon all school districts of the second, third and fourth class. Governor Fisher attached his signature, making it a law last week.

The new law does not prevent school board from dismissing teachers, but it does abolish the necessity of electing a teacher annually. If her work meets with the satisfaction of school authorities she will merely continue to serve from year to year without formality of a reelection.

If her work is not satisfactory to the school authorities they must notify her before the close of the school term that her services are not desired for next year. If she does not wish to continue her contract she must notify the school board of that fact before the close of the school term. If this notice is not given, as provided by law, the contract remains in force.

A Greater "ROBINS" Now Ready for You

THE NEW ROBINS FURNITURE CO. STORE, MEADVILLE, PA.

Celebrating our progress with a value-giving event that will crowd every store in the Robins chain, tomorrow. For tomorrow a new Robin's Furniture Store" will be presented to Meadville. A store that will bring savings in a way that Meadville never knew possible, savings which have caused this company to grow from a single store to the largest chain of its kind in this section of the United States. Too, with the addition of this volume which the new Meadville store will bring, the Robin's chain will now be able to further serve the people of New Castle in a better and bigger way. To commemorate this growth and to extend to all patrons the full measure of our progress we offer the same values to New Castle as are being featured for the opening of our new Meadville store, tomorrow.

Frame Says State Has Plans Ready For Through Roads

District Highway Engineer Informs Council Of Plans Made For Connecting Links

T. C. Frame, district engineer of the Pennsylvania Highway Department, today conferred with Sol-licitor White and incidentally told curious men that the state has already prepared plans for the connecting route through the city.

Frame came here to investigate the condition which arises in the Wilmington avenue district following every storm.

It is alleged that the water from Neshamock township is carried into the Wilmington avenue section.

Frame and Solicitor White visited the New Wilmington highway today.

Various Plants Turn In Sums To Aid Fund For Stricken Family

The William Stevens family fund was swelled by $294.06 since the last report making a total turned in to Robert M. Strickler, Jr., Lawrence
Savings & Trust building, of $1,785.54.
The largest collections were from the employees of the Blair Strip Steel company, $81.75 and the Second U. P. church, $72.31.

The employees of the Shenango
Works of the American Sheet and Tin Plate company turned in $42.25. They had previously turned over $40.00 to a brother of William Stevens to be given him and consequently this amount is not included in this fund.

The employees of the Grasselli Chemical company turned in $40.75; the principal, teachers and janitor of the W. N. Aiken school, turned in $25.00; the Daughters of the King of the Trinity church turned in $10.00;

Councilmen To Visit Carl Street

May Leave Present Storm Sewer
In To Help Carry Off Water

Members of council will view Carl street for the purpose of deciding if the present storm sewer is to be left as it is to help assist in carrying off water. The city also plans to put in a new storm sewer. Carl street, according to councilmen is a gully, the result of the last storm. Plans and specifications for the new sewer have been made. Bids will be asked in a few days, it is understood.

Buy Crawler And Cutter For Sewers

Council met at city building today and authorized the purchase of a crawler to clean out clogged lines.

Should the implement work satisfactorily several will be bought as the cost of such is only about $60. For some time complainants to council have clamored for the cleaning of sewers.

The new machine to be bought will be a rod with blades. The water will force the implement through the pipes. It will cut off roots as it plunges forward, according to city officials.

Trinity Men's Club Holds Dinner Event

Rev. L. W. S. Stryker Of Young-town Is The Speaker At Affair

Annual dinner meeting of the Men's club of Trinity Episcopal church was held last evening at 6:30 o'clock in the guild room of the church with 50 members in attendance.

The occasion was featured by the address of Rev. L. W. S. Stryker, rector of St. John's church, Youngstown, O., and the election of officers for the ensuing year.

After an excellent dinner served by the Woman's Guild, William B. Howe assumed his duties as toastmaster and called upon the Rev. L. W. S.
Stryker, who gave a most interesting and instructive address on the topic of "The Power of a Single Motive and the Peril of a Single Trick Mind."

Following his address, Rev. G. L.
Grambs, pastor of St. Andrews church,
Rev. P. C. Pearson, rector of Trinity church, and W. T. Butz, senior warden of Trinity church for 41 years, were called on and made fitting remarks.

The election of officers was then held and resulted in the unanimous selection of the following: President, Lewis J. Lewis; vice president, William B. Howe; secretary, H. S. Shuttleworth; treasurer, E. G. Peiffer; member of the executive committee,
Lloyd W. Strayer.

This was followed by a brief address of thanks by the new president and a report by W. J. Erbe, Jr., the retiring treasurer.

Sweepstake To Be Played Saturday

Golfers belonging to the New Castle Field club are all ready for Saturday afternoon, when the weekly sweepstake play on the course of the club will get under way in full blast.
The course is said to be in the best condition in years and all the followers of the game and course are anticipating to try out and see what they can do this season. A sweepstake event with full handicap is scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

Sheridan-Euclid Sewer Bids Read

City Plans To Alleviate Water Nuisance With New Storm Sewer

When council convened in city hall today bids were opened and read relative to the city's plan to construct a Sheridan-Euclid avenue storm sewer. For some time residents in the section have complained bitterly of flooded cellars and damaged property. The city engineer estimated the sewer will cost $5,630.00.

The bids: Woods & Golder, $5,630; Mulcahy Bros., $4,563.16; W. E. Ferry, $3,950.80; E. F. Scanlon, $5,046.10 and P. R. Woods, $3,084.76.

The city engineer was directed to check the figures in the bids.

Joyce Wethered Wins Golf Title

English Woman Golfer Defeats Collett, American Star In Open Tourney

By F. A. WRAY.
International News Service Staff Correspondent.
ST. ANDREWS, Fife, Scotland, May 17.—Joyce Wethered, England's greatest woman golfer, won the British women's championship for the fourth time today when she eliminated Glenna Collett, the American champion, by three and one in the final round.

Miss Collett, the first American woman to reach the finals of the event in the thirty-six years of competition, succumbed to her great rival on the thirty-fifth green after one of the hardest-fought matches ever played for the title. She played good golf, but no woman golfer in the world could have beaten Joyce Wethered today.

Making her third attempt to annex the crown which no American girl ever had won, Glenna reeled off the first nine holes of the morning round in 34, two strokes under par, to become five up. But from then on Miss Wethered came to the fore to overcome an apparently impossible disadvantage. She was only two down at the end of the eighteen hole and took the lead at the twenty-second, never to be headed.

American May Buy Famous "Red Boy"

Famous English Painting Brings Offer Of Huge Sum In London.

International News Service.
LONDON, May 17.—Reports are in circulation in London art circles that an offer of approximately $375,000 has been made by an unnamed American art counsellor for the famous "Red Boy" painting by Sir Thomas Lawrence, which is now in the possession of the Earl of Durham.

The earl has refused to confirm or deny the report, but indications are that it is well-founded, and that this masterpiece will shortly leave England for the United States.

The "Red Boy" is a painting of Master Lambton, a youthful member of the Durham family in Lawrence's time. He is dressed in a red velvet costume, seated on a rock, and gazing across the landscape.

"Many people would regard it as a tragedy if this world-wide known picture were to leave England," a well known art expert told International News Service.

At the same time, I should regard $375,000 as an excessive figure to pay for the picture. Lawrence at his best was a long way behind Gainsborough, and no Gainsborough has ever brought such a price."

Judge Dismisses Suit In Court To Make Pirates Pay Sharp Advances In Stock Market

Judge McVickar Dismisses Suit Brought Against Barney Dreyfuss

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, May 17.—The suit against the Pittsburgh Pirates by William Humphreys, who charged Barney Dreyfuss, Pirate owner, violated a verbal contract by which Humphreys was to become trainer of the club, was dismissed in Federal court here this afternoon.

Judge Nelson McVickar directed a verdict in favor of the ball club. In ordering the suit dismissed, Judge McVickar said that the verbal contract Humphreys testified he had made with Dreyfuss could not be recognized in court.

Three members of the team—Capt. Harold (Pie) Traynor, third baseman; Carmen Hill, pitcher, and Ralston Hensley, catcher, were called to the witness stand this afternoon but their testimony was brief and perfunctory, dealing with their connection with the club and their relations with Dreyfuss and Humphreys.

The three players came into court after attorneys for Humphreys had threatened to have bench warrants issued to insure their appearance. Yesterday, the three were served with subpoenas before the Pirates-Cardinals game, but disregarded them and did not show up in court.

"They came in today, though, and early, at that, when the warrant threat was made."

CIRCUS HORSE INJURES EIGHT IN AUDIENCE

(International News Service)

Industrial And Specialty Stocks Show Advance This Afternoon

By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor
NEW YORK, May 17.—Sharp advances in the high priced industrial and specialty stocks today followed directly the week-end easing up of the money market and the increasing activity of the pools and professionals in all markets.

The uniformly favorable reports from representative American industries, with steadily increasing earnings of the steel, copper, oil and manufacturing companies; stimulated a wider demand for stocks and the market exhibited a strong tone from the start. General Motors on the big board and Fokker Aircraft on the curb responded with higher prices to the announcement of the wedding of the interests of these important concerns in a giant airplane constructing enterprise and Auburn Motor again celebrated its elevation to the big board by jumping nearly 20 points to 254.

None of these movements could compare with the strong and steady advance of General Electric, the kingpin of the bull market, this week. Starting the day nearly two points higher, this stock rose steadily, reaching a new high at 292 1/2 in the early afternoon, a new gain of 11 points for the day and 20 points since Saturday.

All reports of stock split-up and distribution of stock holdings of radio and other corporations lacked official confirmation, but the persistent buying of this stock was the best evidence of some unusually favorable development from the stockholders' standpoint.

Convention Will Stress Christian Education Theme

"Study to show thyself approved unto God" is the theme for the 91st annual convention of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association which is to be held at the New Wilmington United Presbyterian church, morning, afternoon and evening sessions, Thursday, June 6th, and one of the chief phases that will be stressed at the afternoon session will be Christian education. Rev. Ross M. Havertield and Rev. J. W. St. Clair have been doing some pioneer work in Lawrence county in this division and at the present time the Bible is being taught in the high schools in a number of sections of the county and the field is growing.

The county president, Robert M. Strickler Jr., states that indications point to one of the best conventions ever held and that a program has been prepared that will provide instruction and inspiration for the delegates throughout the entire day.

DETROIT ZOO OPENS ON DECORATION DAY

(International News Service)
DETROIT, May 17.—The Detroit zoological gardens will open Decoration Day, May 30, according to John T. Miller, director.

New additions to the zoo include nine baby lions, one tiny camel, an infant dromedary, a baby zebra and two small Barbary sheep.

Miller claims that baby ostriches will be on exhibit before the middle of next summer, as will more than 150 monkeys.

Will Present Religious Play

Westminster Guild To Give Program At Central Church Sunday

The Westminster Guild of the Central Presbyterian church are presenting a religious play Sabbath evening at 7:45 o'clock. It is entitled "Cheer, Moe's Choice" by Anna C. Swain.

Those participating are Geraldine Frye, Anna Jean Jackson, Lillian Campbell, Elizabeth Maxwell, Eleanor Lowery and Mary Spence.

A violin solo will be rendered by Maxine Jackson and a piano solo by Kathryn Lewis.

The play has its setting among the juniors of Wells college and is very bright and colorful, presenting the impulsive, thoughtless, kindhearted attitude of college girls, finally changed with the Christian religion. It will be portrayed in three acts.

The Way OF THE World

By GROVE PATTERSON

ORDER.

On May 9 there was observed on the other side of the world the longest eclipse of the sun in years. It lasted five minutes. It began at sunrise in the southwestern corner of the Indian ocean, almost on the African shore. It swept eastward, moving against the oncoming daylight.

The most interesting part of this process is the fact that this eclipse was predicted, as to the place and the day and the hour. The wondrous processes of nature—its eclipses and the tides—can all be measured and predicted. The paths of the planets are known. At last science knows that we live in an ordered universe. Man is a part of the scheme. He is not an accident. Creative force is not a happenstance.

JUST A DABBLE.

It was less than 100 years ago that men began to try and find out what the world was like and what went on in it before the writing of history began. It was in 1830 that C. J. Thomson, of Copenhagen, made some announcements about prehistoric ages based on his study of the development of human industry in stone, iron and bronze. Primitive bones, apparently human, were discovered in Germany in 1857.

Considering the short time man has been at it, he has learned considerable about his ancestors. Still he knows little.

SIZE OF THE UNIVERSE.

As science goes further in its study of the universe, full of other worlds and stars, there is less guess-work, more measured certainty. According to Silberstein, eminent physicist, we can now know how big the universe is. Write down the number 176. Put after it a row of 18 eights. There you have the distance in miles you will have to go to encircle the universe, coming back to the place where you started. Not long ago many scientists believed the universe was 20 times this big.

At the present rate of learning and progress man may, in another two thousand years, know what the universe is all about and why we are here. Don't ever doubt there is a reason.

LIFE AND LITERATURE.

"The Relations Between Life and Literature"—that is a big subject. It is important. It was discussed in a lecture recently by a man who ought to know what he is talking about. Thornton Wilder wrote a great study of life in "The Bridge of San Luis Rey." He describes literature as the orchestration of experiences. That is good. An orchestra out of sounds of all sorts, makes harmony, makes music. The man who produces literature produces it out of the varied experiences of life—some sad, some very happy, some quite commonplace. To produce literature he must know life. He must not make it all sad and all terrible, as some so-called realists do. He must not make it all pretty and sweet. He must paint an honest picture.

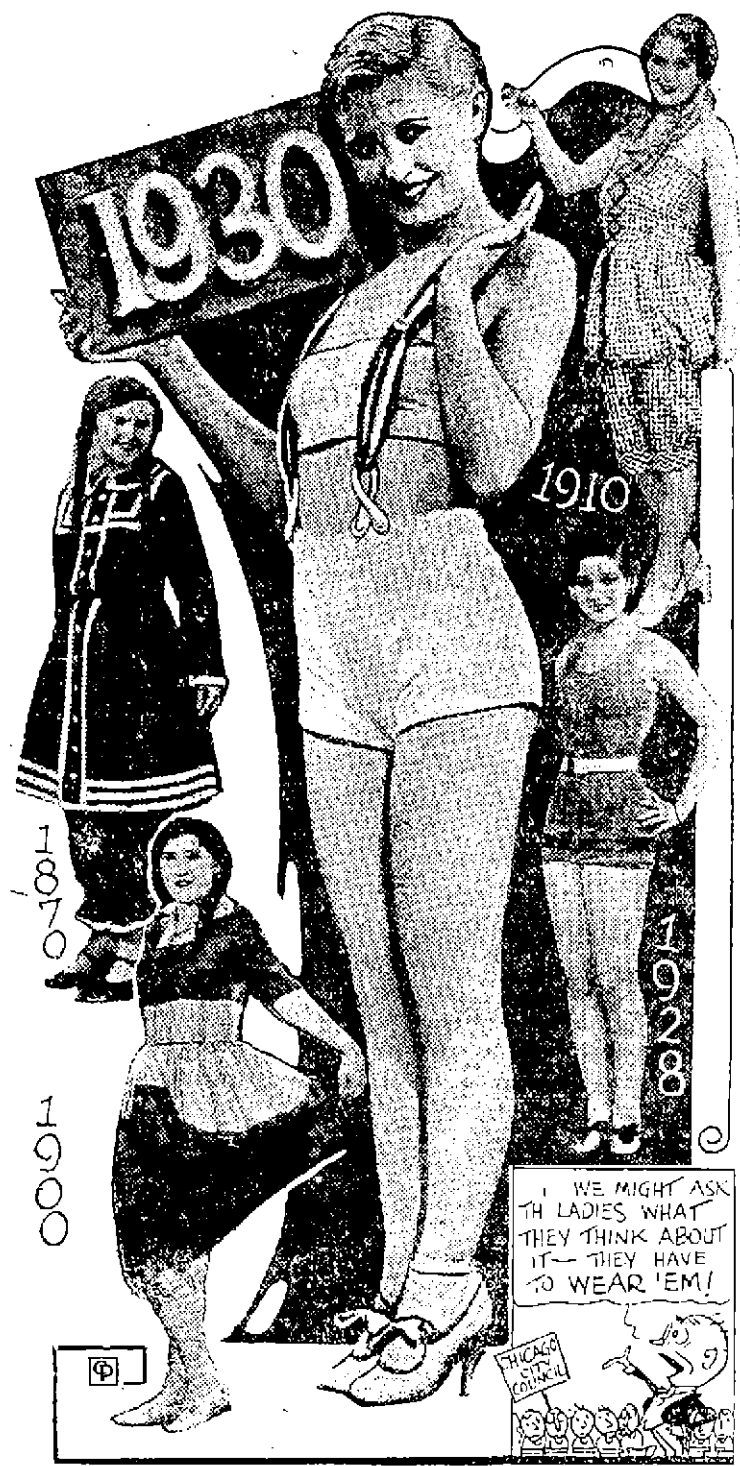

A book which is an honest picture of life, or of any phase of it, is worth your time and study—whether it is in the form of fiction or fact.

BUMPER VANILLA BEAN CROP SEEN IN MEXICO

(International News Service.) VERA CRUZ, May 17.—A bumper vanilla bean crop, estimated at 250,000 tons, is predicted for Mexico this year.

Revolutionists are rapidly dropping their guns and returning to work in the bean field, where they carry on an artificial pollination of the plants, spreading the pollen with toothpicks rather than depend upon insect distribution.

Chicago City Fathers Attempt To Determine When Is A Bathing Suit

—Courtesy Universal Films

By ROY J. GIBBONS
Central Press Staff Writer
CHICAGO, May 17.—When is a bathing suit?

Fifty solemn aldermen of Chicago's city council solicited of the public morals in the matter of feminine apparel on the bathing beaches, have pledged themselves to get to the bottom of this delicate question. If it takes all summer, they have announced, the answer must and will be found.

And, really, the matter has its complexities. It must be arrived at by careful, round about and up and down research. The straight line of reasoning, naturally gives way, in the case of bathing suits on beach beauties, to the curved approach, geometrically speaking.

Chicago Behind Time
The truth is that Chicago, which leads the world as a railroad center, union source and murder capital, is somewhat behind time from the standpoint of art in bathing suits. Alderman Dorsey R. Crowe, of the near-north side, an advanced thinker in the matter of beach apparel brought this to the attention of the aldermen in a stirring address, in which he pointed out that public sentiment was against the antiquated ordinance governing the proportions of bathing suits.

"Something should be done," Mr. Crowe opined, "to remove the Victorian onus from the fair name of Chicago. Nearly every person who goes to swimming at our beaches is violating the law as things stand."

"Clothes may make the man, but they don't make the swimmer," Crowe called attention to article 2027 of the city ordinances, passed by the council in the remote year of 1917.

"Just listen to this," said he. "I quote verbatim from the ordinance: 'Blouse and bloomer suits must be worn by women, either with or without stockings, the blouse to be provided with one-quarter arm sleeves or close-fitting armholes. Bloomers must not be worn higher than two inches above the knees and the skirt not higher than four inches above the knees.'"

"You wouldn't see that kind of relic in a day's walk along the shore of Lake Michigan. What Chicago needs is a new law decreeing shorter and better-looking bathing suits. It's impossible to enforce the present regulations."

The council pondered. Then it ated. There were those aldermen whose wives were in the gallery of the council chambers who stood firm for the good old-fashioned bathing dress of the naughty teens. There were those who saw eye to eye with certain of the younger generation as to the propriety of appearing on the sands in a coat of tan, guarded only by suspenders and a string of beads. This was a new thought, so the council pondered once again.

In the hush which followed the pressure of 50 aldermanic mental accelerators, Alderman Crowe was recognized again.

He talked earnestly and long on the old Greek idea of a perfect mind in a perfect body and the advisability of keeping both the brain and the physique both fit, if not exactly fitted.

"And, so," he concluded, "my suggestion is that the subject of the morality of these new stream-line bathing suits be gone into thoroughly and investigated by the council. Obviously nothing can be done without investigation and research."

Suggests Using Eyes and Ears
Here there was a throaty murmur of approval.

"Therefore, I suggest," said Alderman Crowe, "that the committee on parks and playgrounds, with the aid of the committee on public health, be appointed to give this matter their particular attention and that the council as a body also use their eyes and ears in an effort to determine the public sentiment."

The "eyes" won the day, the council so ordered the committees named and a sweet anticipatory peace descended on the city fathers of Chicago.

Just An Old-Fashioned Girl

That's What Marion Talley Aspires To Be, She Says, Now That She Has Left The Operatic Stage—Forever

Left, Marion Talley helping with the housework; right, as she received flowers and applause on the stage; sketch as she "takes the meadows," a la Maud Muller.

By LILIAN CAMPBELL,
Central Press Staff Writer
CLEVELAND, O., May 16.—Marion Talley has left the operatic stage—forever. Pretty Marion, who at 19, captured fame and the plaudits of the multitude of which all young singers dream. The youngest star of the dignified old Metropolitan Opera company of New York ever sponsored. At 22 she is giving it all up to be a farmer. She sang her last role, that of Lucia in "Lucia de Lemmermoor" here, and will spend the summer months looking for the ideal farm on which to settle with her family. The family—father, mother and sister—all agree on this—a most suited family.

Parents Raised on Farm
Maybe the lure of the soil is inherited, suggested Father Talley, adding, "Mother and I were both raised on the farm."
There seem to be plenty of farms for sale, according to the Talley family. From all over the country have come huge piles of mail offering small farms, large farms—farms of every description. "We can't read them all," said Mother Talley, wryly. "Marion feels quite discouraged with so many people wanting to sell. She feels there must be something wrong with farming."
"The idea first came to me over a year ago, at Hartford, Conn.," said Marion. "We haven't decided on the location."

"We'd like it to be in Kansas, our old home," added Mr. Talley.
"Aren't you afraid of losing your money with all the talk of farm relief, etc?" I asked. "Or do you expect to make money?"
"I expect to about come out even," answered Marion.
Singer's Career
So far she hasn't had time to study agriculture, however.
Marion has been singing since she was five years old. At 14 she was a paid church singer, and at 15 was offered a position with the Civic Grand Opera of Kansas City. It is said she has accumulated a fortune of several hundred thousand dollars by her voice.
"Will you choose a place near a city, she was asked, so that you can enjoy city privileges?"
"I don't care about cities," she answered. "I have never gone into society, so I don't miss that, either," she added.
She is so pretty—a charming pink and white Dresden china figure, all dressed in soft browns and beiges, with a matching hat that shades her eyes, that it is hard to dissociate her from romance, but she asserts that she "has never thought about" marriage, husband and children.
"Singing has never been hard for me," she says. "Many singers find the study hard but I didn't. I studied a year in Europe before my debut three years ago. I like Europe, but not to live there."
She is not much interested in clothes, either, except her stage costumes. There she is very particular. "The days Marion is to sing it is almost like preparing for a wedding," says Mrs. Talley. "Everything must be just right; no detail overlooked."
The applause, the glamor of the stage failed to thrill this quiet girl, according to her. She couldn't think of anything in that line that would give her a big thrill.
She has no hobbies, aside from the farm idea, and she won't wear overalls while doing the "chores" about the farm, she laughingly says. She'll just wear practical clothes.
"She will be just an old-fashioned girl—a Maud Muller," declared Father Talley, and laughed at the implication of the "judge riding by" while the demure Maud was about her work.

Smoking Barred Before Marriage

Tobacco Taboo Among Indian Maids Until Hubby Passes Pipe

GLACIER PARK, Mont., May 17.—The Indian girl on the Glacier National park reservation may follow her white sister in bobbing her hair and shortening her skirts but she may not smoke until she is married.

The Indian girl speedily adopts the customs of pale faces in all respects except smoking. Her mother does the smoking for the feminine side of the family until the daughter is married and her husband passes the pipe around the circle. Officially the girl then and only then gets her first whiff of tobacco fust hand.

It still seems to be a regular war that is going on in China, but as it is all in the family that aftermath of reparations can't be very complicated.—The Indianapolis News.

HANDY SERVICE STORES BOOST NEW CASTLE

Start United Palestine Fund Appeal Campaign

Jewish Residents Of Community Will Open Drive
With Meeting Sunday

FIFTY MILLIONS
GIVEN IN DECADE

Jewish residents of the New Castle community will commence their annual United Palestine Appeal campaign this coming week.

The following public spirited members comprise the New Castle committee: Bernard Kline, chairman; Dr. J. B. Menkes, Hon. Chairman; Dr. E. Kaplan, vice chairman; Louis Kohn, vice chairman; Harry Kivans, vice chairman; L. Ruzewich, treasurer; N. Love, secretary, executive committee; L. Sandler, Dr. H. Frank, H. Cukerbaum, Harry Cohen, D. Silverman, L. Miller, Dr. George Alpern, Rev. L. Rosen, Wm. Blau and Dr. Meyer Frank. The Women's Division from the local Hadassah, assisting in this campaign are Mrs. Mark Levine, Mrs. E. Kline and Mrs. Adolph Goldmann.

A public meeting in the interest of the campaign will be held on Sunday afternoon, May 19th, at 3 o'clock, at the Tenth Street Synagogue. The speakers of the day will be Rabbi J. B. Menkes, of Temple Israel, and Rabbi M. A. Levine of Adath Jeshurun, Pittsburgh, Pa.

This year's campaign for Palestine marks the end of a decade since the Jews of America have given their active assistance to the rebuilding of the Jewish Homeland. About twelve years ago, through the Balfour Declaration, the British government pledged itself to aid in the establishment of Palestine as the national Jewish homeland. From then on the Jewish people, who had been trying sporadically to rebuild Palestine since the latter part of the nineteenth century, could begin work in the Holy Land on a solid foundation. Knowing that whatever they achieved had the guarantee of stability and permanence. Since 1917 an important chapter in Jewish history has been written, in which are inscribed the heroic exploits of Jewish pioneers who transformed a desolate land within ten years.

Within the last ten years more than $50,000,000 has been expended in Palestine from Jewish sources. This money was devoted to the founding and maintaining of agricultural settlements; the provision of credits for the purchase of agricultural implements; the establishment of experimental stations, and—in general—integrating the pioneers into the life of the country.

Part of the great sum contributed to Palestine was also used for the purchase of the soil of Palestine as the inalienable property of the Jewish people, which is based on hereditary leasehold to settlers. In addition, the swamps on these lands were drained, the barren hills afforested and water facilities supplied.

Another important aspect of the Jewish effort to reconstruct Palestine is the sanitation and medical work. Nathan Straus, the venerable philanthropist, himself gave more than $1,500,000 for this type of service. There is now in Palestine, a scientific system of medical, hygienic and sanitary care which includes many hospitals and dispensaries, medical clinics, infant welfare stations, prenatal and post-natal clinics, a nurses' training school, government medical inspection of school children, and a system of penny hospitals in the schools under the auspices of Hadassah.

The United Palestine appeal drive is for the purpose of assisting the following organizations: K. O. R. N., Hayesod, Jewish National Fund, Hadassah Medical Organization, Junior Hadassah, Hebrew University Fund, and Mizrachi in their various phases of work.

Any person wishing to make contributions can do so by mailing a check to chairman of drive, Bernard Kline, 406 E. Wallace avenue, and a temporary receipt will be mailed immediately. Later this receipt will be followed by one from the National office.

Church Boasts Of Aged Quartet

Ohio Congregation Boasts Unique Quartet; All Over
76 Years In Age

MARION, O., May 17.—A quartet composed of three great grandmothers and one grandmother and believed to be the only musical group of its kind in the state if not in the country is the distinction of the Methodist Episcopal church here.

The three great grandmothers in the quartet are Mrs. Salina Reidenbaugh 79; Mrs. Madesto Meister, 78; and Mrs. Louise Wanner, Mrs. Caroline Wolfinger, 76 is the fourth member of the aged "song birds."

The quartet was organized ten years ago in the Ladies Aid society of the church then known as the German M. E. church. At that time all the songs were sung in German. Three years later Mrs. Reidenbaugh, coming from Lancaster, Pa., joined the three original members as soprano and being unable to read German, although speaking it fluently the songs were sung in English.

Thiel May Day Saturday

Miss Eleanor McKay of Greenville, queen of the May for 1929, will be crowned by her maid of honor, Miss Marion Smith of Ligonier, at the annual May Day festival, to be held on Saturday, May 18, on the outdoor theater at Thiel College, Greenville, Pa. "Robin Hood," an old English pageant, featuring the May pole dance, dance of the fairies and elves, and an archery contest, will be staged. The climax of the program is the crowning of the queen. She is here presented in her traditional satin gown, trimmed with cloth of gold.

Book Club Members Luncheon Guests

Mahoning Book Club Has Final Regular Meeting Until Fall

Mrs. Emma Smith and Mrs. F. W. Guy entertained the members of the Mahoning Book club at a 1 o'clock luncheon in the latter's home on Liberty street, Thursday. A delicious menu was enjoyed.

This was the last regular meeting of the club until next September. In June there will be a dinner for the club members and husbands. Plans were discussed for this event on Thursday but no date was set.

The annual election of club officers took place during the business meeting. New officers are: President, Mrs. J. Cunningham; vice president, Mrs. David Mackey; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. G. H. Cook; assistant, Mrs. H. E. Rhodes.

Following the business meeting the afternoon hours were spent in chat and the exchange of books.

W. A. G. Club Members Are Entertained

Mrs. H. S. Sherman was pleasing hostess to the members of the W. A. G. Club members in her home on Leasure avenue Thursday evening. Nine members and three special guests were present. Guests were Mrs. George Nickerson, Mrs. Charles Booher, Mrs. E. A. Hennon.

The Sherman home was attractively decorated with bouquets of red tulips and sprays. Three tables of 600 were in play during the evening. Music was also a pleasing diversion. Piano duets were rendered by Mrs. George Nickerson and Mrs. Charles Booher. Mrs. William Maerbaum sang several numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Nickerson on the piano.

At a seasonable hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Sherman, assisted by her daughters, Margaret and Ruth Sprout. There were dainty favors in pastel shades for each guest.

The next meeting of the club will be in one month at the home of Mrs. W. R. Bollinger of West Madison avenue.

"HEARKEN UNTO MY VOICE AND I WILL BE YOUR GOD AND YE SHALL BE MY PEOPLE" • • • Jeremiah 7:23

By ALVIN K. BELL

We are all familiar with the sign in the steps of our railway coaches with its friendly warning, "Watch your step." It might not be amiss to have something of the sort on our church steps or in our church vestibules to remind us of the need to "watch our step" spiritually as we enter our places of worship.

This was the object of Jeremiah when God stationed him at the temple gate to warn those who entered the temple so that they might worship God in the proper spirit. "Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the Lord, The temple of the Lord, are these." Such "vain repetitions" may have none of the elements of worship in them and so become an abomination to the Lord. Dr. Moffett's translation renders this part of our lesson thus, "Do not rely on false phrases like 'This is the Eternal's own Temple. His very own Temple.' Such a ritual, however rendered, cannot please God if it comes from lying lips and unclean lives and insincere hearts. Not that ritual or forms of worship are of themselves offensive to God. They are only so when they are offered as a substitute for sincere praise and genuine spiritual worship.

Lips and Lives Must Agree
Israel's trouble was that their lives were not in accord with their lips in matters of religion. Therefore, Jeremiah demanded, "If ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbor; if ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt; then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever." But these were big "ifs" for those who were omitting all of these most essential fruits and evidences of true religion and trying to cover up the omission by substituting only the outward forms of religion.

Obedience Rather Than Oblations
Prophet after prophet had reiterated the Old Testament teaching that the simple requirement of their God was that they "do justly, and love mercy, and walk humbly with their God," and that his delight was "not in burnt offering, but in the sacrifice of a broken spirit. God despises sacrifices and offerings when they are offered in lieu of a broken and a contrite heart." Writing checks for large benefactions to charitable institutions and religious causes does not blind God's eyes to the sinful way in which one's money has been gotten or to the absence of that love for God and man which is the essence of true religion. Unless sacrifice and burnt offerings are the expressions of true love to

Judge, 85, Married For The Fourth Time

SYRACUSE, May 17.—Judge Luther Emerson Barnes, the eighty-five-year-old farmer-lawyer of Worcester county, Mass., and his fourth bride, Mrs. Christie Arville White Barnes, formerly of No. 118 Linden street, have begun wedded life at the judge's home in North Brookfield.

The white-haired judge came to Syracuse with the marriage license and boarded a train for North Brookfield. Judge Barnes is well known in the section of Massachusetts where he lives. He has practiced law more than half a century but is a farmer by avocation. He has been associate judge for East Brookfield district 20 years.

The old conflicts supposed to be irreconcilable between religions, creeds and sects have largely disappeared and the world talks of church union and the brotherhood of man.

Boy And His Dog Die Saving Brother

Boy Hunting Violets When He Came In Contact With Live Wire

NEW YORK, May 17.—While playing with their police dog in the woods near their home in Sterlington N. Y. yesterday, Joseph McClintock Jr., 9, his brother, Billy, 3 and sister Gene, 5, spied a choice patch of violets growing in shrubbery, twined about a fallen oak tree. Joseph crawled into the shrubbery, reached for the violets and then screamed. He had grasped a live electric light wire.

Billy went to the rescue became entangled in the writing wire and was shocked to death. Lady Beaudet, the police dog, met the same fate when she caught Billy's clothing in her teeth and tried to drag him out. Gene ran screaming for help to her home, the gate lodge of Thomas Pierson's estate where her father is employed as gatekeeper. She quickly told her mother and another brother, Arthur, 11, of the accident and with them ran up the road calling for help. Their cries brought Bert B. Walden and his brother Carlton who were working nearby.

The Waldens broke Joseph's grasp on the wire but were too late to save little Billy. Joseph was rushed to the Good Samaritan hospital in Sufferin so badly burned that surgeons believe he will not recover. Residents of Sterlington asked state police to fix the blame for failure to repair the broken wire which came down when the tree fell during the storm last Sunday evening.

There are many ways of making tomato sauce.

But the sauce that goes over Heinz Baked Beans and through and through every one, is made in just one way.

The best tomatoes that can be grown—red and ripe and garden-fresh—simmered to a rich sauce, spiced and seasoned to perfection.

You can buy Heinz quality at practically no additional cost. Continuation School Moved

Will Be Located In George Washington Junior High Building Next Year

The New Castle school board last night approved the recommendation of Superintendent C. C. Green that the continuation school now located at the Franklin junior high, be transferred to the George Washington junior high school beginning September 1, 1929.

Dr. Green, in recommending the change said that the facilities for home economics and shopwork in the Benjamin Franklin school are not adequate to accommodate the present enrollment in the continuation school. Dr. Green stated that it appears expedient to transfer the continuation school to the Washington building thereby relieving the congestion in the Franklin school and giving the continuation school pupils the facilities to which they are entitled.

Approximately 80 pupils now attend the continuation school.

ACRES, PAYING WELL

MUSKOGEE, Okla., May 17.—A radish king in the Arkansas river valley, which has produced several so-called "potato kings", expects to make a gross income of $50,000 from this year's crop.

Dayne Mayes planted 75 acres to radishes this spring and used 200 workers to harvest the crop.

Salo Again Leads Derby Runners

Gavuzzi In Lead However For Entire Race Up To Date

SWEETWATER, Tex., May 17.—John Salo, Passaic, N. J., continued his assault on the first place position held by Pete Gavuzzi of England in C. C. Pyle's bunion derby by cutting 11 minutes and 30 seconds from Gavuzzi's lead in winning Thursday's 502-mile lap from Sweetwater in 7:35:40. It was Salo's second consecutive victory.

Gavuzzi was second for the day in 7:47:10 and was tied with Sam Richman, New York. Richman approached within 25 minutes and 52 seconds of Paul Simpson, Burlington, N. C., who is in fourth place in total time by his work Thursday.

In winning the lap, Salo overtook Gavuzzi and Richman 37 miles from the finish line and soon left them behind.

The first eight in total elapsed time:

1—Pete Gavuzzi, England, 314:06:57.

2—John Salo, Passaic, N. J., 315:06:12.

3—Gusto Umek, Italy, 329:28:15.

4—Paul Simpson, Burlington, N. C., 344:15:13.

5—Sam Richman, New York, 344:44:05.

6—Phillip Granville, Hamilton, Ont., 353:59:20.

7—M. B. McNamara, Australia, 377:16:32.

8—Harry Abramowitz, New York, 390:45:42.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

If you see a lot of strange girls in the city today, don't get worried. They are delegates to the state convention of the Business and Professional Women and New Castle is delighted to welcome them.

They have nothing to sell except good will and they sell this year around. The Business and Professional Women are women who stand on their own feet, are doing their share in the world's work and confer an honor upon the city they choose for their convention.

"Give these little girls a hand."

Unfortunately everybody couldn't get to the Festival Chorus concert last night, and the loss was nobody's but the chap who missed it. Count me in on this list. Couldn't get to it, and if you were there you know that the rest of us missed an evening of music that was worth while.

The chorus has several seasons of success back of it and should go forward to even better things. Such an organization is a benign influence in any city and deserves the support of all the citizenry.

They promote the appreciation of music, add to the enjoyment of life, and aid in developing the aesthetic side of community life.

Some of us were at the Field Club last night for the carnival and Johnny Jones and his shows never were much better. Doc Parlett and his playmates had the club house converted into what appeared to be the interior of a circus and carnival combined and some weird phenomena were seen perambulating around the house.

If you think time doesn't fly, remember that school closes just three weeks today. It seems but a few weeks since the classes opened, and the Christmas holiday but a few days back. And yet in three weeks the youngsters will be turned out to graze all summer, the teachers will be hieing to summer school, or to Europe or to the mountains and for three months the school bells will recipitate.

Up at New Wilmington this is "Silent Period" and until tomorrow at noon the Freshmen are not allowed to speak to the upper classmen upon pain of something or other. Tomorrow at noon the fraternities will know how many pledges they have received, and the "trosh" can wear the pledge pin of their frat. For two months there has been considerable sweetheating done towards the freshmen, on the part of all the fraternities and many a free meal has been handed out.

All that sort of thing is out now. Until noon tomorrow the Freshman class will be left strictly alone until the results of the bids are announced and then stand clear for shenanigan. The "U. S. S. C. Towels" and the "U. S. Crabbe Lunch" lads will be pledging their new men, and even the girls have the fever.

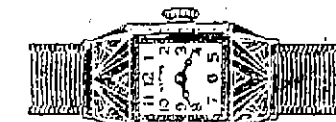

Signs, pass words and grips will be getting a good old college work out and some of the boys will be writing home for money to buy a pin or a key or whatnot. It's a great season of the year.

Johnny Daugherty, who has the keys to the treasure chest of The New Castle News hung the flag out this morning, but he hasn't yet found out whose birthday it is. Some day when John starts reading The News he will discover that occasionally the flag is put out in honor of some visiting delegation. The flags today are for the Business and Professional Women.

Volunteers Are Given Exoneration

The New Castle school board last night approved the recommendation that the list of volunteer firemen as submitted to the board by the city clerk, be exonerated from personal school tax during the ensuing year. Fire Chief Charles H. Lynn made the recommendation.

Plans Are Made For Bible Conference

Annual Grove City School Will Be Held During Early Part Of August

GROVE CITY, May 17.—The 33rd annual conference of the Grove City Bible school, which will open in Grove City on August 8th and continue until August 18th, promises to be a most interesting session this year.

A number of new speakers will appear on the program this year and those making up the program are men that are leaders in the religious life of the country.

Dr. John M. Vander Meulen, president of the Theological Seminary of Louisville, Ky., has been secured as one of the speakers for the program. He has appeared in Grove City at previous sessions of the Bible school. Prof. J. C. Macher is another instructor who will return this year. He is a favorite with the Bible school visitors.

Andrew W. Blackwood of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary will also appear again.

Dr. Leander S. Keyser of Springfield, O., and Dr. John M. Naugher of the Allegheny Seminary of Pittsburgh are newcomers on the Bible school faculty, who will bring messages. In addition a number of missionaries and outstanding speakers will complete the list of instructors.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Montgomery of Greeley, Colo., will conduct the music for the school. They are well known here, and for a number of years have been successful in their work in the Bible school.

ANNUAL FROM PLANNED

Saturday, May 18th, has been selected as the date for the annual junior prom in the Grove City College gymnasium. Music will be furnished by the Ted Rosenberg orchestra.

The guests of honor for the evening will be President and Mrs. W. C. Ketter and W. C. Ketter, Dean Cory Thompson, Prof. and Mrs. A. O. White and Prof. and Mrs. Gerald Bridges.

in Chicago, Ill., this week attending a meeting of the board of education of the United Presbyterian church.

Services To Close At Wesleyan Church

Rev. Waid Patrick of Alliance, O., outstanding evangelist who has been assisting Rev. W. H. Armstrong in a series of special evangelistic services in the Wesleyan church, Lyndal street will conclude his services Sunday evening.

Rev. Patrick will preach his last sermon on the theme "The Wages of Sin." This evening his subject will be "The Coming of the Lord."

The meetings have been very successful and a number of additions have been made to the church.

Correct this sentence: "I don't know what causes your rheumatism," said the specialist, "and I wouldn't sacrifice my teeth if I were you."

New Castle Has 22 Students In Westminster College May Pageant

Twenty-two New Castle young people will take part in the annual pageant at Westminster college Saturday, May 25. The maritime festival, "Under the Sea" will have a cast of nearly 300 students and will be one of the largest outdoor presentations in the state.

In addition to Miss Ruth Lewis, May queen, the following New Castle students will be in the production: Miss Lillian Griffith, as a goldfish messenger; Miss Martha Gilliland, Miss Mary Eva Craig, Miss Margaret Paterson, as sea nymphs; Miss Frances Lechner as the bearer of the enchanted jewel; Miss Margaret Young, as seaweed; Harold Guy, as a pirate; Miss Mary Hamill and Miss Elizabeth Randels as sea umbrellas; Miss Mildred Lusk and Miss Catherine Elder, as sea spiders; Miss Margaret Sankley and Miss Margaret Guy as coral maidens; Miss Frances Bleakley as sea fan; Miss Margaret McVate, as sea fan; Miss Hazel Teepfer, Miss Harriet Martin, Miss Edith Round, and Miss Hazel Berglund, as pearls and Miss Dorothy Stunkard, as a lobster.

Legion Post Will Meet This Evening

Perry S. Gaston, Post No. 343, American Legion, will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting in the post rooms in the Legion Home Association Building this evening.

The meeting will be an important one, the big four county roundup of Legion posts of the districts having been held at Ellwood City on the night of the first meeting of the month, and but a brief session was held.

How many screaming headlines and fiery speeches are required to start Round, an inevitable war!

HUNDREDS VISIT NEW ADDITION TO ELLWOOD CITY HOSPITAL

Ellwood City School Teachers Violence Threatened Numbering 100 Visit In Body Yesterday Afternoon

Rotarians Plan To Visit Modern New Institution In A Body This Evening

ELLWOOD CITY, May 17.—Thursday was the first of the opening visiting days for inspection of the new wing of the Ellwood City hospital and hundreds took advantage of the transportation furnished by local members to visit the institution.

Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock 100 teachers of the local schools inspected the addition and this evening the members of the Rotary club will visit in a body.

All people connected with donations of furnishing for the hospital acted as reception committee in the afternoon and evening as follows: Yesterday afternoon: Mrs. E. B. Yahr and Mrs. Dr. Shields, representing the Women's club; Mrs. Bartley and Mrs. George Fordyce, representing the Margaret Pugh class and the Laura M. Smith Missionary society, who furnished a nursery in memory of the late Mrs. H. W. Smith; Mrs. Dean Fleeger and Mrs. Allen Gable of the U. P. Sunday school class and the Mrs. Bolger and Mrs. Brown of the Hebrew Ladies Social club. Thursday evening: Mrs. Thomas Bates and Mrs. George Conway of the Women's club; Mrs. Charles Hanks and Mrs. Norman Steele of the U. P. Sunday school class; Mrs. Shenson of the Hebrew Ladies and Mrs. W. R. Johnston and Mrs. Charles Adams.

This afternoon the reception committee comprised: Mrs. C. M. Bowman and Mrs. Ed. Mackintosh of the Women's club; Mrs. Ed. Schweiger and Mrs. Shapiro and Mrs. A. Caplan of the Hebrew Ladies club; Mrs. E. H. Miller and Mrs. Ray VanGorder of the U. P. Sunday school class and Miss Gertrude Hill of the Margaret Pugh class and Mrs. Dave Evans.

This evening the committee will comprise: Mrs. B. Moyer and Mrs. Robert Curry of the Women's club; Mrs. Harry Caplan and Mrs. Nathan Feldman of the Hebrew Ladies club; Mrs. Jacob Paluter and Mrs. John Van Gorder of the U. P. Sunday school class; and Mrs. Frank Newman and Mrs. McMillen of the Margaret Pugh class and Mrs. H. R. Smith.

Mrs. John Biordi Narrowly Escapes Death In Clinic

Mrs. John Biordi Of This City Leaves Cleveland Hospital 29 Minutes Before Blast

ELLWOOD CITY, May 17.—Mrs. Biordi of Crescent avenue arrived in the city yesterday very much shaken by the fact that she narrowly escaped being one of the panic stricken maelstrom of victims of the gas disaster Wednesday in the Cleveland clinic. She had been going to the clinic daily for treatments, and owing to the fact that Wednesday morning was her last treatment and she wished to do some shopping, she left early and escaped the disaster by 20 minutes. She had been accustomed to remaining in the building until noon. With her was Mrs. Lucia Macdonald, a relative with whom she had been staying while in Cleveland.

Bride-To-Be Is Showered Gifts

ELLWOOD CITY, May 17.—Members of the Margaret Pugh Sunday school class and the Laura M. Smith Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held a surprise dinner-shower in honor of Miss Marguerite Dambach, a member of the class whose marriage to Charles W. Beecham of Mt. Pleasant is an event of June 15.

The shower took place at the home of the honor guest on Fourth street, and covers were laid for 30. The decorations were daintily carried out in yellow, and Miss Marguerite received a number of lovely gifts. The balance of the evening was spent socially with games and contests and the winners were Mrs. J. Reed Carpenter and Mrs. Robert Forbes.

Mrs. McCandless Entertains Club

ELLWOOD CITY, May 17.—Mrs. Earl McCandless of this city entertained the members of the Thursday Bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home for a bridge-luncheon. Covers were laid for eight and spring flowers made a pretty center decoration for the spring color scheme used. The afternoon hours were devoted to bridge with Mrs. Ralph Little and Mrs. Charles Carlsen winning some honors. Mrs. Milliken, as a special guest, also received a gift. Mrs. Joseph Smith assisted the hostess. In two weeks Mrs. Charles Carlsen will entertain.

Members of the club present were Mrs. Norman Pack, Mrs. Wayne Baird, Mrs. Paul Moon, Mrs. Charles Carlsen, Mrs. Ralph Little, Mrs. Earl McCandless and Mrs. Clarence McDonald.

BINGO PARTY

ELLWOOD CITY, May 17.—All arrangements are complete for the Bingo party which will be given this evening in the main lounge for the Ellwood City Country club. A large crowd is expected, revealing the success of the last party of this nature.

Roll Those Bones

Girls Must Toss Dice For Diamond Ring

Iris MacPherson and Hazel Stirling

By ROY J. GIBBONS
Staff Writer for Central Press
CHICAGO, May 17.—It all depends on the galloping dominoes who gets Uncle Tom Kelly's $2,400 diamond ring—Hazel Stirling or Iris MacPherson.
With rare avuncular foresight, Kelly, who lived in Pescadero, Cal., remembered his two nieces in his will, recently probated, and being an eccentric old gentleman, stipulated that the two should cast dice for the ring. "Come on you seven," Hazel Stirling.
"Turn up eleven," Iris MacPherson.
But it will be several weeks, or maybe months, before the bones tell who's the lucky lady, for Miss Stirling is confined to her bed, suffering from internal injuries received in an automobile accident a year ago.

Local Society Is Banner Winner

ELLWOOD CITY, May 17.—Thirty-eight local members of the Beaver Baptist Missionary association visited New Castle Thursday afternoon and evening for the meeting in the First Baptist church. The local contingent captured the banner for attendance in the association and put on a clever playlet in the afternoon, directed by Mrs. P. L. Schweitzer.
An election of officers took place and Mrs. John Houghery this city was re-elected president of the association. A brief report of the recent convention was given by Mrs. J. R. Routledge of this city. The main address was given by Mrs. Frank Newcomb of Philadelphia, state president of the association.

S. A. B. CLUB

ELLWOOD CITY, May 17.—Members of the S. A. B. Club are scheduled to be the guests of Mrs. Jay McDonald of Riverview on Friday evening.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

ELLWOOD CITY, May 17.—Mrs. Nettie Brampton of Orchard avenue underwent a serious operation in the New Castle hospital on Thursday. Her condition is said to be critical.

One of the needs of the times is to impress upon many persons the importance of slowing up at curves.

The reformer usually wants to prevent some one else from doing what he doesn't want to do himself.

Mrs. Gomer Owens Entertains Class

ELLWOOD CITY, May 17.—Members of the Hannah P. McDonald class of the United Presbyterian church conducted a monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Gomer Owens on Thursday evening. There were 29 members in attendance and routine business was transacted. The members plan to have a tea during the first part of June in the church. A special guest present was Mrs. W. E. Munter.
The committee assisting Mrs. Owens was Mrs. Arthur McKissack, Mrs. Ethel Short and Mrs. Tom Carruthers.

Mrs. T. J. Caine Club Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, May 17.—Mrs. T. J. Caine of Crescent avenue entertained the members of the Twilight Club Thursday evening at her home. Sewing and cards were the diversions and score honors for cards went to Mrs. R. J. Wilson and Mrs. Fred Nicklas.
Later the hostess served dainty refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Laban. In two weeks the club will meet again as the guests of Mrs. Frank Lemery of this city.

Postmaster-General Brown In Pittsburgh, Guest Of Commerce

International News Service
PITTSBURGH, May 17.—Postmaster General Walter F. Brown was to witness the installation of new officers of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce here today as the guest of honor at the chamber's annual membership meeting.

The postmaster general planned to visit the Pittsburgh postoffice and this afternoon attend a series of conferences on an mail development in the Pittsburgh area. The afternoon he was to confer with business and take in a ball game before attending a banquet in his honor at the University club tonight.

Have Anniversary At Bethel Church

Twenty-eight years ago today in the home of one Mrs. Miller on Franklin street 14 people organized what is known as Bethel A. M. E. church. Rev. Dr. D. F. Callman deceased was the presiding elder and Rev. Herington also deceased was the first pastor appointed by conference.
Mrs. Kreba Tilghman, Mrs. Ruth Barber and Mrs. Agness Jones are the only charter members now residing or living in New Castle.
This evening at 8 o'clock Rev. N. H. Hardrick of the North Ohio conference will preach the anniversary sermon. Rev. Hardrick is a preacher of great force. We are therefore desirous of having the fullest cooperation of the members of our church and the community in this anniversary night. Mrs. Kreba will read a paper giving the history of the church.

Junior High School Orchestra Claims Membership Of 32

Group Has Grown Under Leadership Of Miss Elizabeth Owens, Music Director

Thirty-two pupils now hold membership in the orchestra which was instituted some time ago at the George Washington Junior High School by Miss Elizabeth Owens, present director of the organization.

Included in the orchestra are 12 first violins, eight second violins, four clarinets, two trumpets, two trombones, one alto horn, one saxophone, one cello and the piano.

Music for the opera which will be side school pupils presented in the Washington auditorium recently was furnished by this orchestra, and practices are now under way for the faculty play on May 31 at which time the orchestra will perform.

1929 Girl Approved By Anthropologist

Says Modern Girl Is Doing Right In Bobbing Hair And Baring Knees

(International News Service) SEATTLE, May 17.—The model "Miss America of 1929" is all right with her exposed knees, bobbed hair and independent attitude, according to Dr. George A. Dorsey, world-famous anthropologist and author.

The master of human complexes and urges declared his belief before a large audience of University of Washington students while visiting in Seattle.

"I think she is great," Dr. Dorsey exclaimed. "She is doing the things that healthy, happy girls should do, and doing them splendidly. Women are beginning to shake off the shackles which have held them for hundreds of years and it's going to be a remarkably healthy thing for the future of the race.

The question of shorn locks was easily disposed of.

"Girls have as much right to bob their locks as we men have to shave."

For nearly 2,000 years, he continued, the world has been deprived of half the intelligence of the race because women, probably in obedience to a tradition credited to St. Paul, that a woman's place is in the home and her duty silence.

Urge All States To Unify Motor Laws

Eynon Would Have Same Laws Apply All Over Union

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, May 17.—Because of numerous protests resulting from suspension of automobile drivers' licenses in Pennsylvania following conviction on charges of driving while intoxicated in other states, Benjamin G. Eynon, Registrar of Motor Vehicles in the Department of Highways here, would have uniform laws enacted in all states.

Eynon offered a resolution to that effect at the recent conference of Motor Vehicle Administrators in New York City. The resolution urged that Pennsylvania's motor vehicle enforcement provisions be adopted by all states, thus eliminating protests that result when Pennsylvania drivers' licenses are revoked or suspended following conviction on charges of driving while intoxicated in other states when brought before justices of the peace and magistrates.

The resolution, if adopted, would have other states pass statutes providing for jury trial in all such cases. At present conviction of a driver forces him to hire a chauffeur to drive over the boundaries of adjoining states since the reciprocal privileges extended by the states are revoked when the driver is convicted.

British Air Tours Thrill For Tourists

Airplanes To Carry Visitors From Docks To Famous Shrines

(International News Service) LONDON, May 17.—An air tour of Great Britain is the latest sight-seeing thrill for the American visitor.

With the opening of an air park at Southampton, arrangements have been made for airplanes to meet tourists from the Atlantic liners at the landing stage, and take them to spots associated with Shakespeare, Abraham Lincoln, George Washington, Burns, and the Pilgrim Fathers, rounding off the tour with a flight to Croydon Aerodrome to catch the airplane for the Continent.

In an interview with L. A. Meredith, secretary of the Travel Association of Great Britain, he declared: "It will be possible for American visitors, who have little time to spare, to be met at the landing stage and to be shown more of Great Britain within three days than has hitherto been possible in fourteen days."

"Trips will also be extended to Scotland, where very few American tourists have previously been able to travel, owing to time. But now a trip to the Trossachs and Burns country can be reached between breakfast and lunch."

CHAMOIS IN SWISS ALPS NUMBER OVER 11,000

BERNE, May 17.—According to a recent census, the chamois in the Swiss Alps now number more than 11,000, compared with about 8,500 ten years ago. The increase is due to the measures taken for their preservation. There has also been a considerable increase in the number of ibex, deer, roe, eagles and foxes in all the reservations.

S. A. R. Convention To Honor Lincoln

Fortieth Annual Convention To Open In Springfield,
May 19

(International News Service) SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 17.—Plans are complete today for the fortieth congress of the Sons of the American Revolution which will be held in this city May 19-23. Approximately 500 delegates and officers from all parts of the United States are expected to attend the sessions.

On the second day, May 20, a luncheon will be given by the Daughters of the American Revolution at which D. A. R. and S. A. R. ladies will be guests.

At the chief program, May 21, Vachel Lindsay, famous poet, will recite his poem "Abraham Lincoln Walks at Midnight."

A tour will be made through the Centennial building, May 22. On the concluding day of the convention, May 23, a pilgrimage will be made to Petersburg and Old Salem, where Lincoln grew into manhood. The delegates will visit the tomb of Ann Rutledge. The visitors will then continue to Old Salem State Park where dinner will be served. Thomas Reep, Petersburg attorney and well known student of Lincoln, will give a historical address in the afternoon.

Sunday Movie Row In Michigan Town

(International News Service) BAD AXE, Mich., May 17.—There isn't anything to do in Bad Axe on Sundays except to go to church or go out of town, so the Community Club requested that the only theatre hereabouts be allowed to operate on the Sabbath.

Talking pictures have been promised if the showhouse is allowed to run on the Sabbath. Talks or no talks, however, the operators of the theatre will be arrested and fined if they break the Blue Laws, Mayor W. E. Allen declared.

Mayor Allen points out that the electors of Bad Axe voted for closed Sundays five years ago, and that if they don't like what they voted for they can hold another election and vote the other way. Until then, he asserts, Bad Axe is going to take its medicine.

Crile Overwhelmed By Great Disaster

Dr. George Crile, Famous Surgeon Works Fervently Amid Ruins Of Fine Institution

(International News Service) CLEVELAND, May 17.—We will carry on. We all sorrow together in an overwhelming grief.

Dr. George W. Crile, head of the ill-fated Cleveland clinic, sent that message Thursday to his friends while investigators probed the frightful disaster that befell the institution.

Tabulation of the dead has reached the stage where further figures on the toll can represent nothing more than estimates until records of the several agencies aiding in compiling the general list can be checked against each other. It was generally agreed the final toll will fall between 115 and 125.

Over 2,000 Read At Public Library

Exactly 2,567 people used the reading room of the New Castle public library on North Jefferson street during the month of April. Of this number 1,490 were adults and 728 were children.

Quite a number of students use the reading rooms for quiet study and a large number peruse the current periodicals.

ENON VALLEY

Clarence Coblentz of Cleveland is visiting relatives in this district. A number of persons from here attended the funeral of the late Robert B. Patterson, formerly of East Palestine, on Sunday afternoon at the White church, New Galilee. Interment was made in the church cemetery.

Miss Evelyn Coblentz pleasantly entertained the members and teacher of her Sunday school class at her home last week. Games and music were the diversions of the evening of the Enon Presbyterian church. Lunch was served at noon. Besides the regular business routine social chat was enjoyed.

A joint meeting of the council was held Saturday evening to discuss plans for extending the electric line from Enon out through old Enon. It is expected to go through soon.

A large crowd attended the minstrel show held by the baseball team in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday evening. Everyone enjoyed the show.

Mrs. N. E. Avery recently entertained an all day meeting of the Ladies Aid and Missionary societies of the Enon Presbyterian church. Lunch was served at noon. Besides the regular business routine social chat was enjoyed.

Miss Ella Craig has returned to her home at Charlot after having undergone an operation for the removal of her tonsils one day last week. Miss Craig will teach the coming term near her home.

Frank McGeorge is seriously ill at this writing at the Presbyterian hospital, Pittsburgh. Mr. McGeorge underwent an operation last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Coblentz pleasantly entertained the members of the Cleaner lodge at their home Tuesday evening. Games and music were diversions of the evening. A delicious lunch was served by the committee. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Franz.

Burton Will Also Supervise Trade School

Recommendation Is Approved At Meeting Of School Board Last Night

ASSISTANT TO BE NAMED TO AID HIM

Principal F. L. Burton of the Benjamin Franklin junior high school will have the New Castle Trade School under his supervision next year as well as his own building in accordance with the recommendation approved at a meeting of the New Castle school board last night.

It was proposed that the shops and related subject classes now designated as the New Castle Trade School be operated during the 1929-30 term as an adjunct of the Benjamin Franklin junior high school under the Ben Franklin principal's direction, provided that children from other districts of the city shall be given equal opportunities in the shop as those children who reside in the district that is served by Ben Franklin.

By operating the continuation school at the Washington building and the trade classes in the Ben Franklin building, approximately equal facilities for industrial arts and home economics will remain for the junior high school organizations.

Under the recommendation approved by the board, Principal Burton is authorized to appoint an assistant who will be in general supervision of the work in the shops and related trade classes.

operators from Maine to California will have their sets ready to augment or replace land lines.

This was assured today by announcement of General John L. Hines commanding the Ninth Corps Area that development of the army radio system has already provided a national network of communications should disaster break any link in the wire circuits of the country.

Between 2,000 and 3,000 amateur radio operators on the Pacific coast are linked in this vast network.

Baby Girls Have Superior Health

Have 30 Per Cent More Chance Of Living, Statistics Show

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Despite the general belief that the male constitution is inherently stronger than the female, girl babies have a 30 per cent better chance of living than have boys, the Labor Department's children's bureau has found.

More boys than girls are born each year in the United States registration area, but for every 100 female infant deaths there are 130 male mortalities among children one year old, it was found.

The boy's greater need of sunlight accounts for this difference in death rates, it was said. Males, deprived of the sun's beneficial rays, soon develop such diseases as rickets and tetanus. Girls are said to have a higher resistance to these maladies.

Artificial sunlight, it is believed by the bureau, "is strongly indicated as a method of reducing the present mortality sex ratio."

The main objection to these courses for developing will power and acquiring a masterful presence is that people keep taking you for an ex-second lieutenant.

Green Speaks To Vets And Mothers

Superintendent Of Schools Gives Principal Address At Annual Banquet

AFFAIR TAKES PLACE AT LEGION HOME

Superintendent of Schools Dr. C. C. Green was the principal speaker at the fifth annual Mothers' banquet at the Harry L. McBride Post, Veterans Association building last evening.

More than 100 veterans and their mothers, wives and sweethearts were in attendance, the banquet being one of the best yet held.

Gold Star Mothers Present.

One of the features was the presence of eight Gold Star mothers, each of whom was presented with a rose. The Gold Star mothers present were Mesdames Cartwright, Smith, Pitzer, Phillips, Wehr, Campbell, Thomas and Anderson.

Ivor V. Davis past commander of the post presided as toastmaster, being presented by John Stoner chairman of the entertainment committee.

The address of welcome was given by Commander Orville Potter, Mrs. W. H. Clapie giving the response, A. W. H. solo was rendered by Mrs. O'Neill accompanied by Mrs. Francis Eakin. Duet numbers were rendered by Emrys Davis and A. H. Hobart, accompanied by Mrs. Hobart.

Dr. Green Speaks.

Dr. Green spoke on "Safeguarding American Ideals" in which he urged those present to continue to uphold those ideals expressed in the Declaration of Independence, guaranteeing life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Mrs. George Greer president of the Federation of Women's clubs, told the Gold Star mothers of the beauty of the American cemeteries in France. She also spoke of the work being done by the federated clubs in promoting correct usage of the flag, particularly by those organizations of the patriotic group and urged those present to include the foreign born mothers who gave their sons in service in their organization.

Impromptu remarks were made by Ray S. B. Copeland, pastor of the Third U. P. church who also pronounced the invocation.

In conclusion John Stoner chairman of the Poppy day committee spoke on the purpose of the day and of the efforts being put forth by members of the organization to make it a success this year as in the past. James Fletcher of the Seventh ward, a disabled member of the post was a special guest.

New Propellor Blade Lets Plane Back Up

(International News Service) ANDERSON, Ind., May 17.—A new propeller blade that will allow an airplane to go backwards on the ground and to change the pitch while the plane is in the air, allowing a greater regulation of speed in takeoffs and landing, has been invented by A. R. Riffle, of Anderson.

Following two years of experiments, Riffle saw the propeller pass through a test successfully at Wetsen Field here. Riffle has obtained patents covering all phases of construction and operation of the propeller.

And now we approach the season when the man who takes a cold bath every morning doesn't add any hot water.

Refuses To Buy Hubby Wedding Suit

(International News Service) DETROIT, May 17.—It's the woman who pays, and pays, and—

Ralph Hayward apparently thought the old adage still held true and consequently wanted his bride to pay for his wedding finery.

But his wife, Mrs. Marquette Hayward, was modern and when her husband's tailor attempted to collect from her the money due for her husband's natty wedding outfit, she objected and sued for a divorce.

Judge Joseph A. Moynihan agreed with Mrs. Hayward and granted the divorce.

Of Women's Clubs

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The purpose of a woman in joining a club as at first a selfish one. She is seeking attainments for self. She is seeking culture; seeking to further her education; seeking the pleasure to be found in fellowship with friends.

But when a few gather for a common purpose even though it be a selfish one there will be divergent views expressed. One mind awakens another; one thought challenges another; one ideal stimulates another. Gradually one is taken away from self and other needs that her own begin to come forward for attention. Gradually there is a forming of plans to meet suggested needs of others; of community; of state; of the nation; of the world.

When women first began to organize in clubs it was purely for self. Today there is hardly a club, even though it be a literary club, but what reaches out in a very definite way into civic affairs.

Woman, in her club life, has been taken away from self and turned into the fields of education, of science, of common welfare and made to think in practical terms of the needs of others and of possibilities that lie dormant, unused in the way of progress. She has felt the responsibility of meeting those needs and of finding new and better ways in which to walk.

She, in turn, is today directing the minds of the community and even of the nation to needed activities for the welfare of our citizens and to ways of achievement that may be followed.

She has felt the impulse to stir the mind of the people and in heading that impulse has rendered an invaluable service to her community in creating public opinion that will demand an organized effort to make life more worth while and to fill it with possibilities for growth.

The ways of club women are rather quiet. There is little stir in the community over what they are doing for they are only producers of minds; heralds of community needs.

It is interesting in our own community to realize the growth of many of our worth while activities that were swung into the open by efforts of organized women and then taken over by a specially organized group and brought to their present fruition.

It was the women who swung the Red Cross into action in New Castle during the war and now it has a well deserved niche of its own in our community life. We would not like to be without it.

It was the women who placed the first milk bottles in our schools for undernourished children. The milk bottles have a regular place there now because the need is recognized.

It was the women who sponsored the first Baby Clinic and also the Mental Clinic. These are well cared for and well organized affairs now with big results.

It was the women who formed the first "Parent - Teacher" association. These associations grew; they have waxed and died and come to life again. The idea is too big and too far-reaching in its effect to be lost. The women put University prints on the walls of our schools. Many and better pictures have followed. We may have an art gallery someday. The germ is there.

It was the women who agitated the library movement. It has been almost a mushroom growth—a new growth every morning. A library building that looks like New Castle must surely follow soon.

It was the Recreational committee from the Federation that plotted the first play-grounds. By leaps and bounds describes the growth but the good accomplished is a bigger story than that.

The women have organized and are still caring for the Americanization Home on Sciota street. It is filling a very real want. It should be big enough to meet the needs, which are very real, of all our foreign born population. A worthy people.

This indicates something of the inspiring that has come through the club life of New Castle into its heart life and set to work the energies that have built these worth while activities into our community life.

New Castle is better for such work

Days' Prayer In Congress

The chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, our Father, who didst create and give life to all earth's children, we pray that the tides of our lives may ever be true to that divine love which flows from beneath the heavenly shadows. Let our minds just now resign to the solemn prayer of gratitude; answer it according to Thy wisdom. May there fall upon our voice the silence of the voice which is sovereign. O Thou, who givest expression to life's mysteries, we breathe our thanksgiving and homage to Thee; make our offering meet for Thy acceptance. Cleanse our hearts, purify our lips, and take compassion upon us. Give us clear, wise insight into all seemingly just and generous questions. In all the circumstances of this day Thy quickening grace supply. May we live to uplift, help and bless our fellow men and glorify our Father in Heaven. Amen.

PULASKI

Mr. and Mrs. Muryl Boyd entertained the members of the Protected Home Circle Lodge at their home on Monday evening in a very pleasing manner. A business meeting was held over which the president Mr. Boyd presided, after which the evening was spent in a social gathering. James Black presided. Fewer Battleships Urged By Bishop (International News Service) ST. LOUIS, May 17.—In order to further World Peace, the United States needs fewer battleships, on which to send President-Elects, and Marines.

This is the opinion of Bishop Paul Jones, secretary of the Fellowship of Reconciliation of New York.

Bishop Jones, who was formerly Episcopalian Bishop of Utah, delivered an address here recently at a dinner tendered him by the St. Louis members of the Fellowship.

MURATORE BUYS ESTATE FOR NEW WIFE

(International News Service) NICE, May 17.—Lucien Muratore, famous operatic singer, who recently divorced the celebrated Lina Cavalieri, Italian song-bird, has purchased "Les Clausonnes," a beautiful rustic estate near here.

It was designed by Charles Depergny and the grounds surround a splendid view of Nice and Cannes. There is a natural forest of oak and olive trees, besides carefully-laid out gardens of rare beauty. Monsieur Muratore will live here with his young French wife whom he married a few months ago.

Plan Commencement At Plaingrove High

Activities Will Open With Annual Senior Play On May 23 In Auditorium

The Plaingrove Senior class will stage their annual play "In Cherry Time," Friday, May 17, at Princeton.

This play will be staged at the Plaingrove auditorium, May 23 and 24, opening the annual commencement activities.

The Baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. Stevenson of Farwell, Sunday June 2nd, at the Plaingrove auditorium.

The class night will be held on June 4th in the auditorium.

The following program has been arranged:

President's Address—Merle Stone. Class History—Elizabeth McNulty. Class Prophecy—Paul Graham. Class Orator—Herman Donley. The Optimist—Enrico Guarneri. Pessimist—Agnes Moore. Reading—Claribel Sankey. Class Donors—Albert Foster and Charles Oakes.

The commencement exercises will be held June fifth.

The speakers for that night are: Class valedictorian—Mabel Singham.

Class Salutator—Gertrude Eppinger. The speaker of the night will give the commencement address. Presentation of the diplomas.

BASE BALL

The Plaingrove base ball team met their first defeat at the hands of East Brook. The score being 3 to 2. Two extra innings were needed to accomplish the feat.

The feature of the game was the stealing of home by Midge of East Brook.

The Plaingrove nine made a grand comeback after their defeat by the East Brook crew, by defeating the Princeton nine by a score of 4-3 in a seven inning duel.

The main feature of the game was a home run by Albert Foster which sewed the ball game up for the Plaingrove crew.

One more game is scheduled for this week. It will be played between Plaingrove and New Wilmington on the latter's field.

MISSOURI COAL MINES INCREASE PRODUCTION

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. May 17.—The production of Missouri coal mines increased 1-2 million tons in 1928, according to the annual report of the Missouri bureau of Mines.

The total production of coal during 1928 for the entire state was 2,510,151 tons, representing a value of $9,373,151.62, according to the report.

WOMAN, 81, GUILTY OF LIQUOR VIOLATION

KANSAS CITY, May 17.—A jury here failed to agree with Bridget McCarthy, 81, that a "woman, eight-one, has a right to a nip in the morning," was found guilty of possessing liquor and maintaining a nuisance.

WOMAN RETURNS BOX OF TACKS—THREE BAD

WARREN O., May 13.—Speaking of Scotch stories—A Warren woman, fairly well known, swept haughtily into a nickle and dime store, asked for the manager and announced she had been "gypped."

She exhibited a box of tacks, not quite full and when told tacks were sold by weight she triumphantly poured them out on the counter and pointed out three with the points bent.

The manager is a churchgoer with a good reputation and he'll take affidavit the incident happened.

American Artists Popular in Vienna

Meet Instant Success In Invasion Of European Capital

(International News Service) VIENNA, May 17.—Anglo-American art invasion has during the past theatrical and concert season eclipsed the Italian-French influence which was one dominating the Vienna stage.

The army of American and British artists invading the Vienna theaters and concert halls during the last few months exceeded all expectations and it surprised the Austrian critics not only by its quantity but also by the quality of many of its representatives.

Especially the American singers were successful. Richard Crooks and John Parragasse were certainly the most noted tenors among the guests of the Vienna operatic stage. Victor Prali's baritone was found to be second only to that of the other American singer Paul Robeson. And among visiting female voices the contralto of Miss Frida Klink had an exceptionally warm reception.

From the long list of instrumental musicians only the two most successful ones should be named. The son-in-law of Mark Twain, Ossip Gabrilowitch was acknowledged by the critics as one of the greatest living pianists and at the same time as a very able orchestra conductor. His only rival among the guest-conductors was the Englishman Paul Kertby.

The invading American army includes also the 60 singers, male and female of the Dayton Westminster choir which is now on a three months tour of Europe.

Planes Scare Cows; Farmers Complain

Discontented Bossies Give Less Milk So Clarkstown Owners Protest

NEW YORK, May 17.—Asserting their milk supply has been decreased more than 25 per cent because their cows are frightened by many airplanes swooping over the pastures, farmers of Clarkstown, near Nyack, N. Y., yesterday demanded abandonment of the town's airport, established a year ago by Dr. Pierre A. Bernard, best known as "Oom the Omnipotent".

The demand was made at a special meeting of the town board and many protests were made. The airport is controlled by the Clarkstown Country Club, of which "Oom" is president. Charles Lockland, one of the complainants, said between 400 and 500 persons visited the airport every week, trampled vegetables, tore across freshly ploughed farms and "snooped" in barns and other places.

Other farmers said their cows were becoming so discontented that they were lucky if they got milk fit to drink. The town board appointed Justice of the Peace George Link Jr. to investigate conditions and report at the next meeting. Clarkstown has 600 residents and it was said more than half are against the airport.

Girl Lives Alone On Old Homestead

(International News Service) DENVER, May 17.—A crippled 23-year-old girl prepared to leave her home here recently for her homestead on the wide plains of Wyoming. She must stay there seven months alone to prove up on her claim to the land. Already she has spent 14 months on the ranch within the past two years.

In fulfilling the legal requirements of her homestead project Miss Dorothy Whitehead, daughter of a Denver attorney has spent her time six miles from her mail box 30 miles from a store and four miles from her nearest neighbor—and she likes it.

New Instrument Aid In Diseases Of Eyes

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, May 17.—Instruments enabling the optometrist to detect the existence of latent disease in the eyes were demonstrated here by Dr. A. M. Skeffington, at a graduate clinic of the Pittsburgh Optometric association.

The instruments are known as stereocompometer and the perimeter. By means of perimetric readings of the patient's ability to place colors and by the nerve force flowing into the eye the patient's state of health can be read, according to Dr. Skeffington.

CALIFORNIA TO RESTORE GEN. SUTTER'S OLD FORT

(International News Service) MARYSVILLE, Cal., May 17.—California is to have another monument of its romantic days of early history. The original General John A. Sutter fort, erected in the 40s at Hock farm, on the Feather river, seven miles south of Yuba City, is to be restored under the direction of Native Sons and Daughters.

John Bidwell, founder of the city of Chico, and Marshall, discoverer of gold at Colono, at one time were employed by Sutter at Hock farm. A portion of the old fort has already been restored, and when completed it will be converted into a museum containing many historical reminders of early California history.

INDIANA CRAB TREE HAS ROSE IN BLOOM

(International News Service) COLUMBUS, Ind., May 17.—A large white rose in full bloom and with perfect formation has grown out of a crabapple tree at the home of Enoch Magaw here.

The rose had no vine or plant; and apparently obtained sustenance from the tree. Its fragrance was much stronger than that of the ordinary white rose. The flower was as large as a baseball.

5 REASONS Why ALLSTATE Tires Are Better

In the laboratory as well as on the road the ALLSTATE tire has shown its supremacy. Below are the results of actual tests in which it was compared with three other nationally known tires. The result indisputably shows ALLSTATE quality and superiority. No ordinary tire could carry the ALLSTATE guarantee successfully—no ordinary tire could win such national prominence in three years—no ordinary tire could boast of such performance, endurance and appearance. The standard set by the ALLSTATE tire is reflected throughout our entire line of Auto Accessories.

BREST, France, May 17.—The French navy now claims to possess the fastest war vessel in the world. She is the new destroyer Guépard, which in her steaming trials attained a speed of 34 1/2 knots. She is the first of a new series of destroyers, is of 2,600 tons displacement, and her engines develop 70,000 horsepower.

Betting Fever High On British Derby

(International News Service) LONDON, May 17.—Although more than two months will elapse before the Derby England's greatest horse race is run betting and lottery fever is already at a high pitch.

The Stock Exchange Mutual Subscription Fund, otherwise known as the Stock Exchange Sweep has already opened and there is an unprecedented rush for tickets. No one knows what the total of the fund will reach this year, but it will certainly be as large as last, when the figure was $2,500,000, enabling a first prize of $625,000, a second of $300,000, a third of $150,000 and a fourth of $100,000 to be paid.

GETTING COTTAGE AT LAKE IN CONDITION

STONEBORO, Pa., May 17.—Workmen at the cottages at Lakeside Park here are making ready for the summer opening which takes place in June. Several new "cottages" have been built and the grounds improved.

Scarface Al Capone And Bodyguard Held In Philadelphia Jail

Famous Beer Baron Of Chicago, And Notorious

Capone Jailed In Default Of $35,000 Bail; Arrest
Made By Detectives

By E. L. RAWLEY
International News Service Staff
PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—"Scarface" Al Capone, Chicago beer baron, was in the Philadelphia jail today in default of $35,000 bail on charges of carrying concealed deadly weapons. Arrested with his bodyguard, Frank Cline, as they were leaving a motion picture theater at 19th and Market streets last night, the men were hurried to city hall. Cline also was held in default of $35,000 bail when they were arraigned before Magistrate Carney. Carney gave Capone and Cline a verbal raking when they were brought before him.

Capone Assaulted.

"You are undoubtedly responsible for many murders in the United States," the magistrate told Capone. "Afterwards in many cities are afraid of you, but Philadelphia is not afraid of you. Mr. Al Capone, Mr. only rumor is that you are not before me on charges which would justify me in adding the United States of you forever."

Capone and Cline were arrested by Detectives James "Shokey" Malone and John Credon.

"Hello, Shokey," Capone greeted the detective when he was accosted. "Well, Shokey, I've got a gun on me," the Chicago gangster added when he saw Malone's fellow detective.

"Then I'll have to take you in," Malone explained as the pair were taken into custody. Cline also was carrying a pistol, the detectives told the magistrate.

Held For Chicago.

The two men were searched, photographed and their finger prints taken. Capone had a diamond ring said to be worth $25,000. Money running into four figures was found on each man.

Capone confided to Malone, whom he knew, having met him at the Sharkey-Stribling fight in Florida, that he was headed for Chicago.

"I've been at Atlantic City for a few days," he explained. "Went to the shore as soon as I came up from Miami. I'm on my way to Chicago."

The pair arrived here about 7 o'clock last evening from the seashore resort. They went to the theater to kill time, Capone said.

"I was going to flag the midnight train for 'Chi,'" Capone explained to Safety Director L. B. Schofield. "However, I just went to the movie to kill time."

The arrests were made shortly before midnight. At 12:10 a. m. the men were arraigned. Scarcely had the hearing been concluded when two attorneys came rushing to the magistrate's courtroom to represent Capone. They protested the heavy bail but were not allowed to see the prisoners.

Five Years of Jail.

With two 38 calibre blue steel pistols with sawed-off barrels as evidence, officials indicated the grand jury would be asked to return indictments today against Capone and Cline. It indicted the men will be brought to trial this afternoon.

Each faces a maximum sentence of 1 year in prison and a $500 fine or both.

Three other men who composed Capone's bodyguard while he was visiting Atlantic City are being sought today. It is believed they also attended the theatre and became separated in the crowd.

ATTACHMENT WRIT

TO COLLECT DEBT

C. H. Blank has filed a suit in attachment against Aron Blumides at prothonotary's office in which the sheriff is directed to attach any cash or dividends belonging to defendant that may be found in the possession of John Poppek and others, in satisfaction of a claim for $200.

Ruth Lewis To Be Crowned May Queen Next Saturday

Miss Ruth Lewis of this city will be crowned May queen at Westminster College next Saturday, May 25, in the annual May pageant. Westminster's pageant, always one of the largest in the country, will have a cast of nearly 300 in the production of the maritime theme, "Under the Sea." Miss Phyllis Coley, last year's queen, will be the queen of the sea.

while Miss Lewis will be crowned sea princess. A colorful pageant, replete with tableaux depicting all manner of sea denizens and sea flora will culminate the excellent work of Mrs. Mary C. McCaughey, director, of the year. Miss Claudia Zimmann, Pittsburg, has been assisting Mrs. McCaughey in plans for the outdoor spectacle.

Colello Is Found Guilty Of Second Degree Slaying

Father Who Killed New-Born Child Of Young Daughter Is Convicted

(International News Service)
DOYLESTOWN, Pa., May 17.—Nick Colello, 46, Newton Italian laborer, was found guilty of second degree murder in connection with the death of the new-born child of his daughter, Concetta, 18, by a jury before Judge Hiram H. Keller, in the Bucks County court today. The jury deliberated 17 hours.

Colello appeared very nervous as he waited for the jury to make its report. When he learned he had escaped the electric chair he heaved a sigh of relief.

"When do I receive my sentence?" he asked his guards, relief showing plainly on his face. Sentence was deferred pending a hearing on a motion for a new trial. The infant was strangled to death on February 18th last shortly after it was born. Miss Colello also charged her father with paternity of the child.

Florida Visitors At P. H. C. Meeting

Supreme Auditor Is Also In Attendance; Good Program Presented

Featuring the session held by New Castle Circle, No. 5, Protected Home Circle, Wednesday evening was the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Pickett of Lakewood, Florida. Supreme Auditor Dr. R. G. Baird and wife of Sharon were other guests of the Circle.

Following the business session, which included many items of interest to the members, calling for a special meeting to be held Wednesday evening, May 22, at eight o'clock, D. S. T.

Following the business of Wednesday day night a brief but excellent program followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Pickett are universally known in the insurance world and their addresses along insurance lines gave evidence of the great work carried on in the Protected Home Circle. Dr. R. G. Baird, never at a loss for something interesting to say, added to the program, while remarks were heard from his wife, Miss Esther Powers, one of New Castle's rising vocalists, was enthusiastically received and her vocal numbers were rendered in a delightful manner. Miss Powers was accompanied by Mrs. Clarence E. Boston, a finished musician of ability. At the close of the program light refreshments were served, with Guardian Margaret Hammond in charge.

Former Co-Ed Given $2,150 Heart Balm

Former Otterbein College Students Figure In Breach Of Promise Suit

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, May 17.—Isabel Nolan of Westerville, O., today had $2,150 more than she did yesterday and a headache.

The $2,150 was awarded to her after four hours of deliberation by Judge P. P. Schoonmaker in federal court here in a breach of promise suit brought by Miss Nolan against Helen Brown of Madison, Pa. Miss Nolan had asked $50,000 as heart balm from Brown, who, she charged, promised to marry her when the two were students at Otterbein College, Westerville, and later changed his mind.

During the trial it was brought out that Brown, in addition to giving her an engagement ring, had permitted her to wear his fraternity pin. Opposing counsel argued at length over the significance of a fraternity pin as an indication of matrimonial intent until the court ruled the controversy had no bearing on the case.

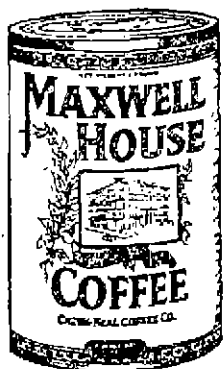

Boy Runs Into Auto But Escapes Injury

H. P. Marley of 355 East North street was driving south on East street and making a left-hand turn onto Neshannock avenue, Thursday, when Johnny Earl, aged seven, of Neshannock avenue ran across the Neshannock avenue and East street intersection from the Johnson building to the East Street Market. In doing so he ran into the side of the Marley car. The boy kept on going and went into the East Street Market. Mr. Marley went in after him and the boy stated that he was not injured.

Miss Helen Craig Is Again Elected

Miss Helen Craig of Leasure avenue, former teacher in the Shenango township consolidated school, who has been teaching during the past term in No. 4 school, East Lackawanna township, Mercer county, has returned home after a highly successful term. She has been elected by the board of the East Lackawanna district as teacher of the district during the coming term.

Believe Lenroot Will Be Approved By Senate Vote

Republican Independents And Democrats Oppose Lenroot's Confirmation

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 17.—Although bitterly opposed, it appeared today that ex-Senator Irvine L. Lenroot, (R) of Wisconsin, will squeeze through by a narrow margin in the Senate's fight over his confirmation as a judge on the U. S. court of appeals.

A move to force consideration of Lenroot's case in the open was defeated in the senate by a 34-34 vote, and administration leaders claimed ultimate victory by about this same ratio.

Lenroot is opposed by Republican Independents and Democrats, principally because soon after leaving the senate he accepted employment with the so-called power trust, and was influential in helping defeat the Walsh resolution to investigate the activities of the trust.

Plan To Grade Athletic Field

School Board To Have George Washington Field Improved This Summer

The secretary of the board of education will advertise for bids for the grading of the athletic field at the rear of the new George Washington junior high school in accordance with instructions given by the board at its meeting last night. Bids are to be in by the June meeting.

Plans and specifications for the work will be prepared and submitted at the meeting next month. It is planned to construct a tennis court as well as a baseball diamond for use here this summer.

Tennis Court And Ball Field Are Authorized

The New Castle board of education, meeting at the administration building last night, authorized the city recreation board to construct and operate a double tennis court and baseball diamond at the George Washington athletic field until such ground is placed in condition by the school board.

The board granted a like permission to the committee to use the Franklin stadium grounds, covering his Pontiac sedan, Pennsylvania licence B 33-540, 1927 model, which was stolen in Youngstown a short time ago.

CORBETT MADE DEAN AT MAINE UNIVERSITY

(International News Service)
ORONO, Me., May 17.—Lambert S. Corbett, professor of animal industry at the University of Maine since 1913, has been appointed dean of men, according to announcement by President Harold S. Bond.

Professor Corbett was graduated from the Massachusetts Agricultural college in 1909, and took his master's degree from the University of Kentucky in 1913, has been associated with a number of student activities since coming to the university here.

French Flyers Plan New York-Paris Hop

Decide Route From American End Is Safest Hopping Off Place

(International News Service)
PARIS, May 17.—With the belief that Roosevelt field is a better starting place than Le Bourget, Assolant and Lefevre, both under 25 years, who flew as far as Casablanca, Morocco, on a trans-Atlantic attempt, intend to try the New York-Paris hop.

Armand Loti, son of a Parisian hotel keeper, who was secreted in the fuselage of the plane when it took off from Bourget last September, is helping to finance the expedition.

The sloping runway at Roosevelt field is what attracts the young aviators. Last year they narrowly escaped death when they were forced to dump their fuel at the end of the flat field at Bourget.

The projected New York-Paris hop is partly to "make things right" with the French public, who suffered keen disappointment after having their imagination fired by the youth and daring of the three—the last hope for trans-Atlantic honors of the 1928 season.

Lefevre has been studying navigation and now believes he can pilot the plane straight across the North Atlantic.

The fliers are using a "Canary" monoplane. It has a cruising speed of 125 miles and a theoretical flying radius of 5,600 miles.

"Hen Relief" Is New Movement

Housing Conditions Bad, Master Minds Of Industry Learn

CHICAGO, May 17.—Master minds of the poultry industry have convened here to work out plans for hen relief.

Hen housing conditions are bad, they have found, with chickens living in crowded quarters. Ventilation is terrible and lighting and heating worse. Hens can't do their best work under these conditions and, besides, what will the little chicks grow up to be?

Attending the conference are representatives of the Poultry Research Council, the Federal Bureau of Animal Industry, the National Egg Society, the International Baby Chick Association, the Poultry Science Association and the Poultry, Butter and Egg Association.

Opossum Takes Rebecca's Place

White House Has New Pet In "Billy Possum", Recent Acquisition

WASHINGTON, May 17.—A spacious cage of the south ground of the white house which once housed Rebecca, President Coolidge's pet raccoon, now has a new occupant, an opossum.

The animal strayed into the white house grounds several nights ago and was captured by B. D. Snodgrass, of the white house police, who placed it in a cage. It has been named "Billy Possum," and for the present is to be retained in Rebecca's cage.

Correct this sentence: "He is a rich young bachelor," said the gossip, "but it never occurs to him that he is considered a good catch."

TEN HERBS TONED UP LOCAL MAN'S ENTIRE SYSTEM

New Medicine Banished Stomach Trouble, Nervousness And Other Ills.

A vast number of men and women of this section are expressing surprise and even amazement at the way Ten Herbs, the great natural medicine, benefits the whole system. How the ten wonderful herbal ingredients of this new compound goes to the source of stomach, liver, kidney and bowel disorders, rheumatism, neuritis, nervousness and a general weak, run-down condition, is fully explained by the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckard's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington street, this city, where he is daily demonstrating this successful preparation.

"Ten Herbs has greatly toned up my whole system," was the recent statement of Mr. George P. Stewart, 408 Neshannock Avenue, New Castle, to the Ten Herbs Man. "I had been in poor health for a long time and feared I would have to give up my work at the mill and seek lighter work. My stomach was in very bad condition. Everything I ate brought on gas, bloating and retching. Gas arising from undigested food caused pain around my heart. My tongue was badly coated. My liver was not working as Nature intended, and I became subject to headaches and dizzy spells. My nerves were always on edge, and the least thing would cause me to worry and become irritable. My kidneys were disordered. My back ached so badly that I would have to arise several times during the night to relieve it. I was bothered with constipation, and although I tried many things, nothing did me any good."

"A neighbor advised me to try Ten Herbs, it having done him a great deal of good. After taking Ten Herbs awhile, I am glad to testify to its worth. I can now eat a full meal without being troubled with gas, bloating or retching. My nerves are much better, and headaches have been relieved. I enjoy a good night's rest, without having to arise, and feel refreshed and ready for work when morning comes. My tongue is no longer coated, and my skin looks a great deal healthier."

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckard's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington street, this city, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

Find Old Dwellings In Lake Constance

Low Water Reveals Ancient Dwellings Neath Swiss Lake Surface

(International News Service)
CARLSRUHE, May 17.—The low water of the last winter disclosed extensive remains of ancient lake dwellings in the Ueberling lake, near Sippingen, and also further remains in Lake Constance.

These are now to be excavated by means of caissons through which some 600 square yards of the lake's bottom can be laid bare by pumping out the water. Heretofore no thorough investigations of this kind have been made.

The same plan will also be followed in the whole district of these lacustrine primitives in both the German and Swiss parts of Lake Constance. Scientists expect to be able to determine where the settling lay in the Bronze and Stone ages, and also the manner of construction of these pile dwellings.

Broadway Actress Reveals Marriage

ters, Advertising Agency Official

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, May 17.—Pauline Lord, Broadway actress, and O. S. Winters, a partner in the Erwin Wasey Company, advertising agency, are honeymooning on the steamship Paris after a secret marriage.

The news of the elopement did not leak out until Miss Lord sent a radiogram to the Theater Guild offices informing them of the event. The message did not say where the marriage took place.

Miss Lord recently was granted an extensive leave of absence by the Guild. She had been playing the leading role in "Strange Interlude" on the road. It is her first marriage.

The Paris sailed Wednesday at midnight.

Young People Convene Here On Saturday

Delegates From Valley Towns
To Gather At Highland
U. P. Church

EXCELLENT PROGRAM HAS BEEN ARRANGED

Rev. Glenn P. Reed, a furloughed United Presbyterian missionary from the Sudan, and Dr. Stanley B. Vandersall of Boston, superintendent of the International Society of Christian Endeavor, will be the principal speakers at the spring convention of the Young People's Christian Union of the Beaver valley, which occurs on Saturday afternoon and evening at the Highland U. P. church.

Representatives of 41 young people's societies in the district which comprises Beaver, Ambridge, Beaver Falls, Ellwood City and other valley towns are expected to attend.

Rev. Reed of the Sudan will bring the message of the afternoon while Dr. Vandersall will make the address of the evening. The afternoon session commences at 2:30 o'clock with the evening program scheduled to open at 7:30 o'clock.

Featuring the convention will be a banquet at 6 o'clock in the Highland church dining room. Dr. C. J. Williamson, pastor of the convention church, will preside as toastmaster and Dr. Charles Fulton, Beaver, and Rev. Robert French, Beaver Falls, will be the speakers.

A separate conference for intermediates conducted by Miss Ruth Hunter of Beaver Falls and another for officers and committee chairmen and members alone are also planned. During the afternoon other talks in regard to the national Y. P. C. U. convention at Mountain Lake Park, Md., and the New Wilmington summer missionary conference will be heard. Installation of new presbytery officers and the awarding of the trophy cup and attendance banner will also occupy a part of the evening program. Miss Lois Williamson of the Highland church is general chairman of arrangements for Saturday. Assisting her are the following members of the Highland young people's society: Miss Lucille Emery, Miss Claudia Boughter, Miss Alice Warner, Clifford Pollock and President Frank Brannenman.

WORLD WILL LAST 20 MILLION YEARS

(International News Service)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 17.—The end of the world is at least 20 million years away, according to Dr. Clyde Malott of the Indiana university department of geology.

"At the present rate of erosion our earth should last some 20 million years, even though 8,500,000,000 tons of material are being delivered each year to the sea," said Dr. Malott.

In 9,000 years any spot on the earth will be one foot lower according to past averages, according to Dr. Malott.

VILLAGE GROCER GETS MILLIONS

A great-uncle, whom he never saw, has left $67,000,000 to J. L. M. Hopkins, 61-year-old grocer of Waynesville, O. The great-uncle Mark Hopkins, 90, died recently, in San Francisco, leaving an estate of $350,000,000. The grocer plans to move with his family to San Francisco.

FOREIGN TRADE BALANCE TO BE NEAR BILLION

Foreign Trade For First Few Months Gives Promise Of Ten-Billion-Year

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 17.— Unless foreign trade slumps off severely the rest of the year the United States will have $10,000,000,000 foreign trade year, with at least a billion dollar favorable balance, breaking all records for normal times, commerce department experts estimated today.

A continuation of the trade of the first four months means exports of approximately $5,850,000,000 and imports of about $4,500,000,000, although a new tariff law with higher duties may influence foreign buying toward the end of the year.

The balance of "invisible trade," however, probably will remain unfavorable because of the tremendous payments made by the United States to foreign countries classed under this head. The chief items include tourist expenditures, immigrant remittances and payment for foreign shipping service.

The United States gained nearly $100,000,000 in gold the first four months of the year because of high money rates. As long as rates remain high it is anticipated gold will continue to flow into the country.

State President Gives Keynote

Erie Woman Is First Speaker At State B. P. W. Convention Here

DR. RODGERS MAY BE
STATE PRESIDENT

"Better Business Women for a Better Business World" is the keynote of the 11th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Business and Professional Women's Clubs, which convened this morning at 10 o'clock in The Castleton ballroom. The state president, Mrs. Helen M. Schluraff of Erie, Pa., presided and invocation was given by Mrs. Margaret Irvine of New Castle, former vice president for the state of New Mexico. This was followed by the reading of the Club Collect.

Mrs. Elizabeth White, executive secretary of Quota Club International, extended a most gracious welcome to the visiting club women and pointing out the advantages of our city, which will all be utilized for their comfort and convenience during their stay here.

As general chairman of the convention Miss Emilie Salomon greeted the convention group from the standing of the local Business and Professional Women's Club, to which Mrs. Beulah Manley, vice president, of Williamsport responded in a pleasing manner.

The following clubs were represented at roll call: Butler, Chester, Columbia, Easton, Erie, Harrisburg, Lancaster, Meadville, Milton, North East, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Reading, Sharon, Stroudsburg, Union City, Wellsboro, Williamsport, Albion, Parkers Landing, Greenville and New Castle.

An impressive feature of the morning session was the charter ceremony, when charters were presented by the president to Albion, Parkers Landing and Greenville clubs. Beautiful banners carried by representatives from New Castle, Erie, Reading and Pittsburgh acted as escorts.

Mrs. Helen M. Schluraff, president, gave a complete report of her work during the past year. Thirteen clubs have been added, making a total of 36 clubs in Pennsylvania, with a continued increase in membership in all. She recommended very strongly inter-city conferences, which prove beneficial to all concerned.

The report of the recording secretary, Miss Helen A. Blair, of Wellsboro, Pa., was accepted as read. The corresponding secretary, Miss Mary Lyte of Lancaster, presented her report and read a number of telegrams of greeting from various parts of the country, including one from Harry M. Byrd, governor of Virginia. The Virginia clubs are working hard for the national convention in 1931, the next one being at Mackinac.

Miss Lyte, aside from her secretary's report, pointed out the many fields now open for women in the business and professional world. In fact, without going out of their own organization most every business is represented, one thing lacking being a minister.

Citing a few of the numerous professions which are actually represented there are six lawyers, one moving picture director, one manager of a lumber company, two hotel managers, one owner of a drug store, one linotype operator, one in the department of legislation, one dean of public utilities, one dean of a women's medical college, one dean of women, one caretaker, one bacteriologist, one assistant chemist, three artists and one architect. In fact, women are proving to the world their capability to do most anything they set their minds to accomplish.

A report from the health committee was given by Miss Ruth Huber of Scranton, and after some general announcements by Miss Emilie Salomon, the session adjourned for luncheon, which will be put up for office and will in The Castleton dining room with Luncheon will be followed by round table discussions and the president will call the afternoon session to order at 2 o'clock. One of the two men scheduled to take part in the convention will be the Honorable Frederic A. Godcharles, director of the state library and museum of Harrisburg, who will speak at 2:30.

Miss Ruth Zerner, transportation chairman, will provide cars for the entire delegation to motor to New Williamsport at 3:30 where Dr. Elizabeth McLaughry will be hostess at a "tea" at the Overlook.

The old saying, "All work and no play makes Jane a dull girl," will be taken to heart this evening when business will be forgotten, and an evening of stunts and a general good time will be provided. Several of the clubs have made elaborate preparations for this occasion, which promises to be of unusual merit.

Vocational breakfasts at several tea rooms are planned for Saturday morning at 7:30, with the regular session opening at 9 o'clock at The Castleton.

Dr. Rodgers Prominent.

Many important business propositions will be discussed during the morning, and one of the high spots of the convention will be reached at noon with the annual election of officers. Dr. Mildred Rodgers of New Castle, a favorite in the state organization as well as our own local club, will be put up for office and will probably be elected as the president.

of the state B. P. W. club women. Dr. Rodgers was elected president of the New Castle club in 1927 and served two years.

A colorful and artistic display of posters and scrap books from each club represented will be judged possibly during the afternoon, and the winners will be sent to the national convention.

The convention room was decorated with baskets of lovely flowers this morning sent by the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs and Butz Bros.

Hold Memorial For Firemen Sunday

City officials and employees today were invited to attend the memorial services for departed firemen Sunday evening at the First M. E. church. The communication was delivered by Fire Chief Lynn. The services will commence at eight o'clock.

CAIRS IN COLLISION
Joe W. McNeil of 223 Smithfield street reported to the police Thursday that he was going west on East Washington street at Cochran way and collided with the machine of A. Green, which was double parked at that point.

It seems a contradiction in terms to speak of a "religious war," and yet Big Business has made a commonplace of honest stealing.

Ordinances Fixes Albert Street Grade

Several Measures Are Repealed
When Council Meets
Today

During a formal meeting of city fathers today in city hall Councilman Reeves introduced an ordinance providing for the changing and the fixing of a grade in Albert street between Fairfield and Englewood avenues. The measure was sent to committee.

Action on other ordinances follows: Mulberry street paving; repealed. Appointment of electrician, compensation, duties; repealed. (This ordinance was not necessary as the conduit system was not sold.)

Grading of Glenmore boulevard; repealed.

Condemnation of Hanna land; Eight ward; repealed.

MORE DONATIONS FOR STEVENS FAMILY

The police department reported a number of additional contributions to the William Stevens family fund today. Those reported today are: James Wynner $1, Friend $1, Lewis G. Kiser $5, Mrs. C. Hartman $1, a total of $8.

BUSINESS WOMEN THONGING CITY FOR CONVENTION

are present are Maude Madge, credential committee chairman from Sharon; Estelle Smith, education chairman, of Milton; Myrtle Applebaugh, legislative chairman, of Easton; Eliza S. Paine, program chairman, of Harrisburg; and Ada Fox, public relations chairman, from Laurelton. Badges are in charge of Elsie Faber of Williamsport.

Members of the state directory board who had registered early today were Lillian Myers of Reading; Lillian Straub, of Wellsboro; Adelle Hall of Albion; Elvira Bleedinghiser of Pittsburgh; Mable Hutchison of this city; and Blanche Messer of Philadelphia.

It is expected by Nancy Bechtol of this city who is in charge of registration for the convention that Butler, Meadville and Greenville visitors will lead in numbers.

Vic For Honors

Just which one of these neighboring cities will have the honor of the largest attendance of visitors is not known as yet until the registration figures have been compiled.

There are delegates present from some 36 cities. These cities which have clubs of the State Business and Professional Women Federation are New Castle, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Albion, Williamsport, Williamsburg, Wellsboro, Uniontown, Union City, Stroudsburg, Sharon, Scranton, Reading, Pottstown, Pittsburgh, Parkers Landing, North East, Norristown, New Kensington, Milton, Meadville, Lewisburg, Jersey Shore, Kittanning, Hazleton, Harrisburg, Greenville, Erie, Ashtabula, Elkhartown, Easton, Corry, Columbia, Chester, Boyertown and Butler.

Prominent Speakers

Prominent speakers for the convention include two women and two men. The ladies are Judge Florence Allen, member of the Ohio Supreme court, and Miss Helen Havener, editor of Independent Women.

The men speakers are Edward Martin, state treasurer, and Frederick Godcharles, state librarian. The sessions of the convention are occurring today, Saturday and Sunday. Luncheons and teas interpolate the three day program and the program proper will take place both morning and afternoon in each of these three days.

This afternoon, Frederic A. Godcharles, state librarian, is making his address and at 5:30 this evening, the entire group will go to the Overlook at New Wilmington for a tea. Tonight a reception and stunt program will occur.

Saturday morning at 10:15 o'clock, State Treasurer Edward Martin will make his address on "Thrift," and prior to the luncheon hour, Miss Helen Havener, editor of "Independent Women" will speak.

At seven o'clock, the convention will really be climaxed by a banquet dinner at The Cathedral. Dr. Mildred Rodgers, president of the local organization, will act as toastmistress.

Sunday morning, the emblem breakfast will take place and at this time both Judge Florence Allen of Cleveland and Editor Helen Havener will speak. This meeting will be in charge of the Pittsburgh club with Mrs. Beulah Manley presiding.

May Make Robinson Street Dumping Place

It will be necessary to purchase broken crockery for Robinson street or convert it into a city official dump, it was stated today in council. Five hundred loads of broken crockery already have been dumped there and it is now settling. Councilman Reeves told colleagues more is needed.

Talk of converting the dump into an official dump flared forth. Councilman Davies said the plan met with opposition.

Councilman Tyler said that during the next week persons who object to it being made an official dump should "tell it to council."

Thin cans, street cleanings and in fact any material, excepting garbage, that can be used would be dumped there.

Local Man Gets Belated Honors

Receives French Decoration
For Bravery Displayed
In Verdun Sector

Harry Hagen of 510 Garfield avenue received after a lapse of 11 years since the medal was finished a fine bronze medal awarded him by the French government for bravery displayed in the Verdun sector of the battlefront in World War days.

This medal, the second he has received is of bronze and is hung on a red ribbon with blue and white cross decorations. On one side it bears a coat of arms and on the other a helmeted warrior.

It was accompanied by a letter in French which on translation showed that it was awarded for having messages between the artillery and infantry in the Verdun sector under machine gun fire and keeping those units in liaison or communication with each other.

The letter states that but 21 of the medals have been issued and that the name with the other recipients of the same will be inscribed in a book of gold at Verdun.

It came as a surprise to Mr. Hagen especially after a lapse of 11 years. The other medal in the possession of Mr. Hagen is a Croix de Guerre.

News And Fisher Bros. Open Straw Hat Season

The picture shown above is not a photograph of a convention of visiting firemen nor is it the annual picture of the Bartenders' Union. What it is, if you really must know, is a family group, the family being the New Castle News. News as a group, here you have the group, at least the male portion of it. After seeing what appeared to be a class of a college lined up in front of the building, President Fred L. Bentz declared that he didn't know there were that many people working for the paper. At that, several men are absent from the picture. For the first time in many years straw hat season got off to a flying start in New Castle, and every straw hat season and for one season the men of The News will be spared the luxury of wearing a summer straw hat. The fact that it is a straw hat group, the picture will give some idea of the number of men who have the job of aiding in getting out the New Castle News. To this number should be added about 12 women and several men who missed the picture.

Local Judges To Get Increase Of $2000 In Salary

Will Get An Additional $2000 If County Shows Population Of Over 100,000

INCREASE FOR STATE JUDGES IS $676,000

Judge R. Lawrence Hildebrand and Judge James A. Chambers will benefit to the extent of $2000 each yearly salary by the bill increasing the salaries of judges throughout the state, which was signed by Governor Frazier yesterday. The present salary of the local judges is $8000 per year. Under the new act they will draw $10,000 per year. Should the next census show that Lawrence county's population is over 100,000 they will receive an additional $2000 each yearly.

Increases under the Witam act are effective immediately on the approval of the governor. Usually a bill increasing salaries does not apply to persons already in office, but it seems to be different with the judges salary bill. The bill increases the state payroll $676,000. The chief justice of the state supreme court will receive $20,000, or $2000 more than now paid to the governor, while the associate judges of the supreme court will draw $19,500.

The salary of the president judge of the superior court is boosted to $18,500 a year and the associate judges to $18,000, the same as the governor receives.

For the last decade or more salaries of judges have been boosted frequently and in addition those who serve 20 years or more are retired on a pension of half pay. Under the provisions of a bill approved by the governor last month new judges will have to become members of the State Employees' Retirement fund and contribute to this fund. This feature, however, is optional with present judges. Heretofore judges' pensions have been paid entirely by the state.

LAKE WAVES DO $1,000,000 DAMAGE

Close to $1,000,000 damage has been sustained along the lake front from Sandusky, O., to Monroe, Mich., by the continued battering of the waves, driven by strong northeast winds. Houses have been undermined and wrecked, and even concrete roads have been unable to withstand the water's pressure. Photo shows a section of the road near Toledo, O., which has suffered from Lake Erie's bombardment.

$11,300 Damages Asked In Suit By Mr. and Mrs. Adams

Claim Mrs. Adams Was Badly Injured When Cupboard Fell Over On Her

As the result of an unusual accident, Elizabeth Adams and Robert Adams, her husband, have filed a suit at the probate court's office against Louise McKibben, in which they ask for damages amounting to $11,300.50. It is claimed that in January 1929 Louise McKibben was the lessee of premises at 37 West Grant street. She leased Mr. and Mrs. Adams the first floor of the building. They moved in and proceeded to arrange their furniture.

While so doing it is alleged that Mrs. Adams was standing near the center of a room, when a large cupboard, which had become detached from a wall fell over and struck her. She was knocked against a table, sustaining injuries about her head, back and arms.

It is claimed that on account of her injuries she lost considerable time from her employment, and that her injuries are of a permanent nature. For loss of earning she claims $300, for permanent injuries $5,000, nurse and medicines $50; pain and suffering $1,000, while her husband claims $5,000 for loss of her services.

Board Prepares For Improvements

Bids To Be Asked For Work At Various Public School Buildings

The secretary of the New Castle school board was last night authorized by the board to advertise for bids for the painting of the auditorium of the senior high school. The bids to be opened at the regular June meeting of the board.

The board also instructed the superintendent of buildings, grounds and equipment to prepare plans and specifications for the work and to submit these for approval also at the June meeting.

At the same time the board instructed the secretary to advertise for bids for repairs to the wood and iron work on the outside of the Croton and Terrace avenue school buildings. These bids will also be opened in June.

Athletic Council Directed To Give Expense Budget

Salaries of Ralph H. Gardner, William L. Klee and George Thomas, members of the New Castle athletic council were increased from $250 to $300 per year by the New Castle school board last night. The board instructed the council to prepare a budget of its finances immediately and to present it to the school board as an extra source of information.

Board Officials Again Re-elected

Hugh M. Marquis and L. W. McClung present secretary and treasurer respectively of the New Castle school board were last night re-elected to their positions. Marquis was re-elected for a term of four years and McClung for a one year period.

Appeal For Return Of Clothing Young Boy Lost

Appeal is broadcast today that the person who found a suitcase containing a boy's new suit of clothes and other wearing apparel return the clothes to the owner. The clothes belong to Homer James who was enroute from Fairmont avenue to Milton street last Friday and left them on the Highland street car. The boy is the son of an invalid soldier and they were nearly all of his personal possessions, being very valuable to him.

There was a blue suit of clothes, a waist, some underwear and other articles. This appeal is made in the hope that the clothing will be returned to the boy. Information about the clothing should be sent to the home of Mrs. Homer Pence, Fairmont avenue, grandmother of the lad.

HOOVER PLANS TOUR OF SOUTH AND FOREIGN VISIT

A wide travel tour of the United States and a visit to foreign shores immediately after congress adjourns are being planned by President Hoover. Blackened states indicate those he contemplates visiting in the south and black line shows his probable itinerary from the Pacific coast to Mexico. The trip will comprise about eight weeks, after which the president may take a brief vacation at his old home in Palo Alto, Cal., above.

WOMAN BUYS PACIFIC ISLAND UNCHARTED BY U. S.

Ever since 1848, when Guadalupe Hidalgo became a part of the United States, White Rock Island in San Pedro channel has been a lonely orphan. Cartographers had failed to include it on their maps and Uncle Sam was unaware of its existence, snuggled close to its larger sister, Catalina. Then along came Mrs. Helen K. Morton, of San Francisco, to the United States land office seeking to buy it. Since it was unclaimed land it was necessary for Mrs. Morton to trace some script which was issued years ago to satisfy a land claim to gain title to the island. And now that she owns it she is wondering just what to do with it. The island is above and inset is of Mrs. Morton.

A small town used to go down to see the train come in. But the largest town of all—New York—goes down to see the train go out. The greatest single attraction is the Levischan (although other big ones draw almost equally large crowds). When the huge American liner sails, her 1000-foot long pier is jammed with 5,000 to 7,500 spectators. Prior to that, many of them have pushed their way through the luxurious public rooms of the giant vessel, pretending to see somebody off—or even seeing somebody off. Views show crowd and the sailing.

Harvard Student Mystery Defies Solution

The discovery of the body of Walter Treadwell Huntington, left, junior at Harvard College, in a lot near the main highway at Windsor, Conn., where he lived, has given the Connecticut police a baffling mystery. Apparently he had been slain and his body brought to the spot, shown above, where it was found by a laborer on his way to work. A note found nearby is being withheld by the police who, after an investigation, have declared the case homicide. The map inset shows Windsor, Conn., marked (A).

High Flyer Sets New World's Record

Lieutenant Apollo Soucek, premier flyer of the Naval Air Station at Anacostia, is believed to have set a new world's record by soaring 40,000 feet in the air in the same type of plane in which Lt. Champion set the previous record. Lieut. Soucek, center, is being congratulated by Asst. Sec'y of the Navy D. S. Ingalls, left, as Admiral Moffatt looks on admiringly. Soucek carried 60 gallons of gas and took 23 minutes to make the flight which may be declared a record after the instruments have been officially checked.

Festival Chorus Sings Thursday

Excellent Work Is Done In Concert At First M.
E. Church

NEW TRIUMPH FOR PROF. PATTERSON

Demonstrating again that New Castle can and does produce unusual choruses, the Festival Chorus presented its annual concert in the First M. E. church Thursday evening to an audience that filled the auditorium and expressed its pleasure in applause that seemed to roll up and out like the surge of the sea.

It was but a continuation of previous successes for the chorus and its conductor, Paul Brown Patterson, but it demonstrated that proper organization, continued rehearsal and intensive effort over a period of time will produce results.

This great choral organization, numbering 317 trained voices, represents something in the life of New Castle far beyond that of mere entertainment. It is a splendid example of what Arthur Brisbane, the world's highest priced editorial writer, referred to in a recent article in which he expressed the opinion that the Biblical admonition "But he who does of the word and not hears only" must be applied to music as well as good deeds.

To quote further, he says: "Merely to hear what is good or beautiful is not enough. We should also be doing, producers, contributing to the best of our ability." It is no necessary to emphasize the importance of music in human life. Every intelligent reader realizes it. Language is the voice of the thinking mind. Music is the voice of the soul itself. The Festival Chorus society is trying to bring home to the people of New Castle who have voices, yet who neglect them, the importance of united musical effort here in New Castle.

As set forth in last night's program the society purposes to increase its membership to 500 and give next season a great festival of music of several days' duration, using a symphony orchestra and famous soloists to assist the Festival Chorus.

If the 500 voices can be trained to the degree of perfection of the chorus which sang last evening—and it can—New Castle will become famous as a musical center.

Referring to the concert of last evening, mention should be made of the inspiring sight made by the singers, dressed in white and black, their deportment, their eager and ready to go.

At the signal from the conductor the great chorus rose as a unit and began the "Song of the Sycamore" from the opera Cavalleria Rusticana, a number, while rather neutral in character, yet well chosen to give the chorus opportunity to find itself and warm up to the more difficult tasks of the evening.

The old family clock which followed with its story and its tick, took accompaniment was a bit of humor much appreciated by the audience.

The Green Cathedral by Hahn, new to New Castle, was perhaps the most beautiful number of the first group, and to many the most beautiful of the program. Here the chorus gave an example of its ability to produce exquisite tone quality and shading, and the closing bars which were hummed with closed lips gave the impression of a full string orchestra.

"Jack Horner" was a revelation in vocal technique and it is doubtful if there are many professional organizations in the United States which could equal the alertness, the startling suddenness with which the chorus moved from mood to mood, from high speed to low, a cutury here, a whisper there, a sudden silence, then an outpour of power that made the rafters ring. The storm of applause which followed the number indicated its full appreciation by the people.

The chorus was fortunate in securing this season so fine an artist as the violinist, Mrs. Fred Emery. Mrs. Emery has been heard frequently but never to better advantage than last night. Her three numbers brought out the reasons for her many European and American successes, viz., lovely tone, graceful bowing and impeccable intonation.

The second group of the chorus began with a lovely old love song still as the night and was followed by another humorous number The Frog Singing School. What a lot of fun the chorus must have had learning it. Sylvia, sung by the men, was well done and made a fine contrast at this stage of the program.

Listen to the Lambs, the last number of the second choral group was the turning point in the program toward the spiritual and was most unusual and impressive. It also introduced a young and very promising soprano, Miss Mary E. Blocher of Ellwood City, who sang the obligato parts. Miss Blocher's voice is of clear refined quality with the God-given sympathy dominating it.

The next number, an organ number, overture to opera "Mignon", played by Mrs. Paul Browne Patterson, brought forth the greatest and most prolonged applause of the evening. It was an example of masterful playing. Her ability has long been recognized in New Castle, but until last night many of her admirers felt that they had not truly heard her. Her technique on manuals and pedals combined dazzling swiftness with accuracy. Her endless variety of tone color combinations was fascinating at all times. Mignon Overture with its lovely melodies, its gripping rhythms and chord masses bringing out the grandeur of the organ at the close, gave Mrs. Patterson the opportunity to prove what other concert organists, including T. Tertius Noble, Philip H. Arthur, Kraft and others have said that Mrs. Patterson deserves rank with the best American concert organists.

The final three numbers by the chorus, chosen from the Messiah, were sung with majesty and power. One felt transported to the high mountains with their sweet pure air and in the presence of God.

It would be a serious oversight not to mention the assistance rendered the society last evening by Virginia Patterson, Monroe, who came from Dayton, O. to play the piano parts. Her sympathetic playing was greatly appreciated.

The Festival Chorus society will close its season with a banquet Monday evening at Y. W. C. A. All members, including those who could not take part in the concert, are expected providing their names are reported to the secretary before Monday morning.

Claim Damages For Automobile Accident

Carl Romeo, Aged 11 Years, Struck By Car On Street
At Hillsville

Carl Romeo, aged 11 years, by his father, Rocco Romeo, and in his own right, have filed a suit at the probate court's office against Sam Verterano, to collect $7,551 damages as a result of an auto accident at Hillsville in which Carl Romeo was injured.

In the statement of claim it is alleged that Carl was crossing Fox avenue in Hillsville, and was about the middle of the street, when he was struck and carried about 40 feet by the Verterano machine, which at the time was being driven through a school zone at a speed of approximately 30 miles per hour.

It is further alleged that Calderon did not have a license to drive a car, and that Verterano permitted him to drive his car, knowing that Calderon did not have the necessary license.

It is alleged that the boy was seriously injured and that his injuries are of a permanent nature.

Club Display At Franklin

Work Done By Various Clubs At Junior High On Exhibition

ALSO DEMONSTRATE WORK IN CHAPEL

One of the most interesting exhibits seen in school work for some time is on display in the lobby of the Benjamin Franklin Junior high school today. It is a display of the work done by the various clubs of the school and among the exhibits are pieces of work that are surprisingly well done.

Pillows and fancy work, cakes and cookies made by boys, displays of native birds, novelties, examples of the proper way to set tables, all of them carefully prepared and all of them showing proper instruction and enthusiasm upon the part of the students.

Other Exhibits Shown.

Not all of the exhibits of work done could be shown in permanent form, and the work of these clubs consisted of presentations from the stage and in the swimming pool. These were given in the Club Chapel, program held in the auditorium on Thursday and opened with devotionals and music by the school. The program was announced by Virginia McKee.

The Music club sponsored by Miss Eva Coulter presented a string sextette. The Travel club was represented by Clarke Thompson who delivered a travel talk. This club is sponsored by Mr. Vance.

The Ukulele club sponsored by Miss Ruth Leyda was represented by 20 girls who played a number of string selections. The Swimming club sponsored by Miss Joyce Winger gave a demonstration of its ability, and the Girls' Sport club, sponsored by Miss Muriel Findlay presented "Basketball in the Nineties."

The Harmonica club sponsored by Miss Florence Shumaker presented an interesting harmonica program, while the U. Y. B. club sponsored by Miss Esther Gibbons had its work done by Charles Pitsch. Demonstrations of holds and tricks of wrestling were demonstrated by the Wrestling club, sponsored by Daniel Racioppa, followed by one minute of real wrestling.

Lobby Display.

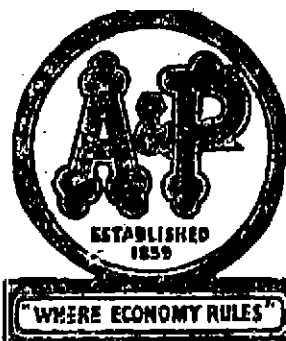

The lobby display is one that interests the attention of the parents and friends of Franklin school. The Handicraft club, sponsored by Miss Ann Rice has a display of fancy work that is well done. The History Scrap Book club has a collection of historical pictures that will be turned over to the children's ward of the Jameson Memorial Hospital. This club is sponsored by Miss Beeler. The Juneteenth club, sponsored by Miss Levine has a miniature jungle and shows a fine sense of detail. The Latin club sponsored by Miss Eakin has a Roman home with the furniture modeled out of soap. The Novelty club sponsored by Miss Weingartner has a display of novel trinkets made by the students.

The Boy Scout club has a table full of cakes and cookies made by the boys that make one hungry to see. This club is sponsored by Miss Gress. The Artcraft club sponsored by Miss Freshwater has a beautiful display of artwork, articles, and the Girls' Zephyr club, sponsored by Miss Wallace has a properly set table on display. The Boys' Valet club sponsored by Miss Drew has a display of clothes properly pressed and mended, the boys doing the work.

The Bird club sponsored by Mrs. Maldon has a display of native birds in colored pictures that is interesting.

The entire display was under the direction of Miss M. Eoythe Dunlap, chairman of the clubs in the school and in the display she was assisted by Miss Beeler.

Mayans Once Lived In Mississippi Valley

Savants Believe Years Of Wanderings Brought Tribes To Yucatan

Years of careful study and historical research in an effort to trace the origin of the Quiches Indians of Guatemala, one of the three tribes of the Mayan nation that inhabited the western section of the country, has revealed to Antonio Villacorta and Flavio Rodas, Guatemalan archeologists, that the Quiches were aborigines of the Mississippi Valley, says the New Orleans Times-Picayune.

Mr. Villacorta explains that the Quiches first lived in the Mississippi Valley and that years of wandering brought them to Yucatan, from where they later went to Guatemala and as far south as San Salvador.

A recent expedition of the Central American Geographical and Historical society, headed by Villacorta and Rodas, into jungles of Quiche, where excavations were made, reported that they had made important finds of early day architectural and other historical relics confirming the belief that the Quiches were the highest civilized type of Indians that ever lived in Guatemala. One of the findings was a buried gallery in the ruin of Quiche. It is believed to be part of one of the castles erected by the Quiches de Alvarado in 1524.

Returning from the expedition to years before the arrival of Pedro de Montal, revealed that the Quiches were the first Indians and the most powerful encountered by Alvarado on his arrival in Guatemalan territory.

Their capital was skillfully fortified. It also revealed their belief in the site of the modern Santa Cruz Quiche, that they had elaborate systems of government and religious mythological cosmogony, that their capital city was Uximal near modern Uxmal, Yucatan, and that Quiche was a section in which to build the temples and castles (found deserted at the Spanish invasion).

Second Sharon Woman Victim In Cleveland

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, May 17. — The blast and flames which Wednesday lashed through the Cleveland Clinic today had claimed two more victims—Mrs. W. L. Langdon, of Sharon, Pa., and Laura Lambert, of Cleveland.

Mrs. Langdon died in Clinic hospital last night after frantic attempts to save her life proved futile.

Miss Lambert, a Clinic employee, also succumbed last night.

The death of Mrs. Langdon was the second claimed from Sharon, Pa. Mrs. Grace Roberts also of Sharon, having died here Wednesday night from injuries received in the holocaust.

Compensation Is Sought For Prison Years

Wisconsin Citizens Seek To Replace Earnings Lost
By Innocent Man

ADMITTED CRIME TO ESCAPE MOB VIOLENCE

MADISON, Wis., May 17.—An effort is under way here to obtain legislative compensation for John A. Johnson, 65, who served for 10 years in prison for a crime it now generally is believed he did not commit.

Although Johnson confessed in 1911 to the murder of seven-year-old Annie Lemberger, he repudiated his confession just before he entered the state of Waupun prison.

In 1922 he was pardoned by Gov. E. I. Philipp, who had been convinced the man confessed because of a morbid fear of mob violence.

There are more than 3,000 Madison citizens who now are certain society "robbed" Johnson of 10 working years of his life and who have signed petitions asking the legislature to compensate him, as far as possible, for that which was taken.

Johnson, an employee of the city, has aged rapidly and is in none too good health. He still works, but his earning power is small and he and the wife who trusted him during his years of imprisonment are not enjoying the comforts they might have had.

Annie Lemberger, daughter of Martin Lemberger, was put to bed by her mother about nine o'clock the night of September 5, 1911. Several days later her body was found floating in Monona bay. She had been beaten to death.

Johnson was arrested three days later and was questioned by a detective. For hours he maintained that he was innocent—until the detective struck the vulnerable spot.

The officer, failing in all other efforts to make Johnson confess, told him that a mob was outside clamoring for his life.

Johnson once had seen a man lynched at Darlington and the moment he heard that he was in danger of meeting a similar fate he became a

4,506 Carloads Of Fruit Are Shipped Into Other States

HARRISBURG, May 17.—More than 25 states in addition to many foreign countries receive fruit each year from orchards and vineyards in Pennsylvania, according to the bureau of markets, State Department of Agriculture. Last year 4,506 carloads of apples, peaches, grapes, plums and pears were shipped to points both within and outside the commonwealth.

Marketing officials explain that rail shipments have decreased somewhat during the past two years due to the increased use of motor trucks and to lighter fruit crops.

Apples, which generally constitute the bulk of Pennsylvania fruit shipments, filled 2,621 cars last year, grapes, 1,058 cars; peaches, 806 cars; pears, 10 cars, and plums one car.

Adams county led in apple shipments with 1,025 cars and stood second in peaches with 143 cars. Franklin led in peach shipments with 358 cars and ranked second in apples, with 860 cars.

Erie county shipped 1,068 cars of grapes, all but eight of the entire number, those being sent from Franklin county.

Biglerville, in Adams county, was the heaviest shipping point in the state for both apples and peaches, having dispatched 403 cars of apples and 146 cars of peaches. Waynesboro stood second in apples shipped, with 351 cars, and Scotland was second in peach shipments, with 125 cars.

North East, in Erie county, shipped 762 cars of grapes, which placed that point well in the lead.

To Make Even Inexpensive Glass and China Sparkle

Simple New Way Does Wonders And Is Kind To Pretty Hands—Use Any Ordinary Soap

Even the most inexpensive table glass and glassware can be made to look far better than it is in a simple way. It can be given the brilliancy and sparkle of the most costly kinds, and glassware particularly is judged by its sparkle.

Simply add one teaspoonful of the cleansing preparation called CLIMALENE to your water. Use the same soap you ordinarily do, but use only CLIMALENE in the usual quantity. Wash as usual.

This preparation is a grease solvent, while soap is, strictly speaking, a grease. Thus it gives shine and sparkle while soap often leaves a greasy film that's hard to get rid of even with the most careful drying.

Most hotels use this method to make glass and china gleam. Housewives like it not only for this reason, but because it goes to soften and whiten skin fabric of the hands.

Results are surprising. Try it. Get at any grocery store in 10c or 25c package. Just ask your grocer for CLIMALENE.

Chain Store Romance? ---Ask Society Thelma

At noon today, a pertinent telegram reached The News. It read—"Get interview Thelma King registered at Castleton. Can get good chain store story."—Corry News Agency.

Bang and a reporter left the office as only a reporter can go to see the Miss King who had the big story concealed about her person.

"Miss King," began the reporter, blushing to the roots of his beard in the presence of the pretty miss, "do you have a chain grocery story concealed about your person?"

The young lady blushed, her companion had a twinkling of the eye.
Her denial was forth coming. "Come clean," said the news hawk. I want the truth." He got it.

Miss Thelma King is the society editor of the Corry paper (home town papers please copy) and it seems that there was a certain young man who manages a chain store—but never mind. It was all a big joke being played on a good member of the scribe world.

She too received a telegram this morning with references to chain stores and loss of heart, but the worst of it was "she said as she heaved a big sigh, "that it was sent—

Noted Welsh Army Chaplain Preaches In City On Sunday

Rev. B. Ceitho-Davies, who served as chaplain in the Welsh army during the World War will arrive in this city Saturday and will preach at the First Congregational church on Reynolds street Sunday. The noted Welsh minister will preach in the morning at 11 o'clock and the evening service will start at 7.

The chaplain was the first from Wales to volunteer for actual service at the outbreak of the war. He rendered valiant service and was soon promoted to the rank of major chaplain.

He is on a world tour at the present time and is including New Castle in his itinerary.

Major Ceitho-Davies is regarded as one of the strongest preachers of the Presbyterian church of Wales. He is a poet, a prominent member of the Bards of the Isle of Britain, and past literary secretary of the Royal National Eisteddfod of Wales.

He is planning to visit the United States, Canada, Egypt, Australia and many other countries of the Orient and Europe.

Of Baptist Association

Mrs. John Hough of Ellwood City, was re-elected president of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Beaver Baptist Association at the annual meeting held Thursday in the First Baptist church of this city.

Mrs. Carl Jones of Sharon was named secretary and Mrs. Charles Shaffer of Ellwood City, treasurer.

During the afternoon session the banner was awarded to the Ellwood Woman's Missionary Society as this society had thirty-eight members present. Section Eight of the Woman's Society of the First Baptist church of this city won the banner for the highest percent of attendance at the meeting.

In the children's work, the Sharon Crusaders were the winners and the Jewels and Herald bands of the Elwood church were also given a banner for their excellent work.

The afternoon session closed with an address by Mrs. Newcomb, state president. The entire meeting was very well attended, 195 delegates having been present.

Girl Reserves Have Boys' Night Banquet

Sixty-Two Present At Banquet
Thursday Evening
In Y. W.

Members of the Senior Girl Reserve club had their last social event of the season Thursday evening when they had their Boys' Night banquet in the Y. W. C. A.

"A Night In Dixie" was the thought carried out at the banquet. The third floor dining room was decorated to represent a southern garden. With lattice effect over the ceiling from which hung wisteria. Apple blossoms were also used effectively in decorating. The fireplace was hidden by improved stone wall effect.

Small tables were used. Centering each table was a tall green taper and their was a Colonial lady program in pastel shades for each guest. Covers were arranged for sixty-two. A delicious dinner was enjoyed. During the dinner there was pep singing led by Miss Louise Crandall and R.
E. Johns. Southern songs were sung.
A pleasing program carrying out the banquet theme followed the banquet.

L. E. Round was the speaker of the evening and gave a very interesting talk. The program was as follows:
Dixie Mistress, Miss Charlotte Bartlett, toastmistress.
Dixie Bell, Miss Eleanor Blanning, gave the toast to the boys.
Dixie Beau, Clifford Pollock, responded with a toast to the girls.
Minuet Dance, Misses Maxine Bol-lard and Peggy Griffith.
The Colonel, Louis E. Rounds, the speaker of the evening.
Plantation Hoe-Down, Miss Dorothy Usselman.
Dixie Warblers, Miss Louise Crandall and Miss Elsie Calvin, singing Southern Lullabys.

Council To Decide Damage To Property

Mrs. Dearborn Tells Council That Water Flows Over
Property

"Treat me as you would your own mother."

That was the plea of Mrs. Dearborn, Vine street, today to council meeting at city hall after she had summed up a complaint which alleged that her property had been damaged because water from a ditch overflows the sidewalk and ruined a cellar wall.

She asked that council lower the ditch or slope the sidewalk toward the ditch. The lot formerly was low, it developed.

One of the councilmen had suggested that ashes be placed and the sidewalk built up.
Councilman colleagues said this had not been agreed to by all councilmen.

Councilman Tyler presented a mo-

New Castle Firms Are Aiding Clerks

Richard A. Steen, chairman of the Federation of Post Office Clerks convention to be held in New Castle on Sunday and Monday, July 21 and 22, announced this morning that they were receiving some splendid voluntary cooperation and assistance from the firms of New Castle who are extensive users of the mails.

This cooperation is highly appreciated by the local members of the federation, and with the support of these New Castle institutions and the New Castle Chamber of Commerce the convention will be one of the best ever held by the state organization.

ST. MARY'S TROOPS.

On Thursday evening St. Mary's Boy Scout troops Nos. 50 and 51 met in the basement of St. Mary's church. The meeting was opened by the roll call and a color ceremony.
The troop then repeated the Lord's prayer and the oath led by Kenny McKay.
Visitors were Father Clifford, Committeeman Blatman, James Schetrom, Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Han-non and Acting Scoutmaster Hicks.

Business was conducted and the reports handed in. When one of the patrol leaders handed in his report to the scribe he found that it was written on a tattered leaf of a 1915 diary.

The troop continued work on second class tests, especially scout pace. John Babcock passed wig-wag signaling and the points of the compass.
Scoutmaster Hicks drilled the boys for about ten minutes. Father Clifford spoke on the attendance results.
Scoutmaster Hicks announced that if weather conditions were good the next meeting would be held in the open. The place however has not been selected. Next week an announcement will be made about the points acquired by patrols since inauguration.
Scribes John Babcock, Jim Travers.

covery of a "kickless" alcohol preser-

A Study in "Relativity"

DON'T let the new automobile sweep you all out of shape. It's a grand and glorious feeling to sit at the wheel of the new car and "believe it." You feel pretty big, and the rest of the world—and especially the rest of the care-luck pretty small, one is inclined, under such circumstances, to ignore such trivial matters as speed laws. There are occasions, however, when a cocky driver of a new car may feel pretty small, too. Such an embarrassing moment is eloquently pictured

Your Broadway AND Mine BY

WALTER WINCHELL

By Central Press

NEW YORK, May 17.—From William Anthony McGuire, the adapter of "Show Girl," comes the one about Fred Stone and "The Careless Spot." It happened during the out-of-town engagements of a new Dillingham show, which also featured an off-stage baseball team made up of members of the cast and mechanical crew. When the spotlight man neglected to cover the star with a spotlight during his specialty, the producer told Stone he was sorry and would scold the fellow. "Aw, never mind," said Stone, "that's all right; he didn't mean it."

However, when the lad failed to catch the cue at the next performance, the worried Dillingham hastened back stage to assure Stone that he was going back stage to fire the man. "Good heavens!" cried the star, "please don't do that. It's the best second baseman we ever had!"

SOMETHING SOUR

A precedent was set, it is believed, at the premiere of "Penny," an all-colored musical, when the impatient audience greeted the enterprise with hisses and boos shortly after the curtain lifted. It was a tardy rising of the curtain, anyway, going up at 9:05, and after a series of sour sketches and unbelievable poor dialogue and pitiful attempts to entertain on the part of rank amateurs, a group in the rear of the lower floor groaned audibly.

Maceo Pinkard, a writer of tunes, is listed as producer, although a young man describing himself as Jerry Riley, a night club exploiter, confessed to having staged "some act" in the alleged show. The first half of it dragged, revealing not one feature worth while to report here, but most of the reviewers, who appeared to be "enjoying" the incredibly bad material, returned to witness the second section.

The opening of this half brought on Bessie Smith, a buxom "pickaninny," whose song, "If the Blues Don't Get You," aroused sincere admiration. Miss Smith heretofore has been a recording favorite with her coon-shouting and would have stopped the show even if what preceded her had been good.

OF ALL CRACKS!

Our moon picture belt informant reports that a very pale and plump looking woman sits around a studio in Hollywood all day doing and saying nothing. She finally got on William Mizner's nerves, with her blank stares at him.

"Say!" thundered Mizner, "how are you gonna know when that dame's dead?"

HAW!

Which slip yip reminds us of this Broadway cruelty: "He was a good looking guy up to the time he got his face caught in his father's cash register."

IN FEWER WORDS

Broadway: The long lane of short careers.

PUN MY SOUL!

"Dear Winchell," devotedly writes Izzy Elinson, "those who are laid up because of too much whoopee are known as 'It and Rum' victims."

Old Paris Landmark Soon To Disappear

(International News Service) PARIS, May 17.—Another old Paris landmark will soon disappear. It is the celebrated Floury bookshop on the Boulevard des Italiens, next door to the just as famous Napoléon cafe. For 35 years it has been the rendezvous of men of arts, letters and politics, including such men as Clemenceau, Rodin, Willette, Daudet and Forain. They invariably dropped in to browse among the books after an evening spent at the cafe.

Whistler, the American artist, also always arrived last, about 10 o'clock, saying, "Ola, you are about to shut up shop, excuse me for coming in," and he remained until midnight!

Defends Yacht Club

Although situated in the Detroit river, more of liquor smugglers the Detroit Yacht club is the dryest in the world, according to the testimony of its commodore, A. A. Schantz, given at a federal inquiry into smuggling via Belle Isle, where the club is located. Policemen stationed on the island have been accused of assisting rum runners.

Graduates Are To Be Honored

Recognition Service At Reformed Presbyterian Church Sunday Evening

The annual recognition service of the Reformed Presbyterian church will take place Sabbath evening at 7:45. This service is held in honor of the students graduating from high school and college during the year. It is sponsored by the Sabbath school and the Christian Endeavor Society. The graduates are Mary Edna Jenkins, New Castle high school, mid-year commencement; Milton A. Patterson, Union high school; Margaret Agnes Jamison and Thelma Elizabeth Kennedy, East Brook high school; Dorothy Daugherty, New Castle high school; and Anna M. Dredas, Geneva College.

Gills in recognition of their achievements will be presented to the graduates on behalf of the church by Homer Allen, superintendent of schools. Dr. C. C. Green will bring greetings from the schools. "Knowing How to Abound" will be the subject of the sermon by the pastor, Dr. E. A. Crooks. The music for the occasion will be in charge of the choir.

France Gets First Radio Libel Suit

Music Hall Star To Seek Redress In Courts For Erroneous Report

(International News Service) PARIS, May 17.—Charges of libel will be filed against a radio broadcasting station for the first time on account of a "suicide" story, according to an announcement made by Saint Granier, music hall star.

He may introduce in his favor the evidence of newspaper reporters and news photographers.

Saint Granier avers he returned home badly shaken up after emerging from an automobile collision when he was greeted by reporters and photographers who asked him why he tried to take his life.

"The Government station has just broadcasted the news that you had committed suicide," they explained. "As a matter of fact we did not expect to find you here. But why did you do it?"

Alleging that he feels thousands of people who tuned in on the news still doubt the truth of his account, of the accident Saint Granier put his case in the hands of a lawyer.

Paris Has Most Of French Babies

(International News Service) PARIS, May 17.—Paris has more babies than any other part of France, according to vital statistics recently published as well as a lower mortality. Between the years of 1919 and 1928 the number of births in the ville Lumiere advanced from 38,624 to 43,210 and the number of deaths fell from 44,935 to 39,525. Infant mortality still remains high for children under two years of age in spite of great improvement made in hygiene and medical assistance offered to poor mothers.

On the other hand, Paris compares less favorably with the rest of France when it comes to marriage and divorce figures. During the same period marriages dropped from 46,031 to 32,000 and divorce increased from 2,558 to 3,396.

Kmetz Refuses Post As Labor President

(International News Service) WILKES-BARRE, Pa., May 17.—John Kmetz, board member of the United Mine Workers of America, Thursday announced that he had decided not to accept the presidency of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor, made vacant by the death of Congressman John J. Casey.

As first vice president Kmetz was in line for the post. He said he preferred to devote his time to the mine-scholar and statesman, declared that China is adopting the practice of "birth control."

Our Fourth Annual

Trade-in Sale

Tires at lowest prices ever

There's a Reason for Our Record-Breaking Business

Hundreds of car owners are taking advantage of this special opportunity to get started on Generals. The reasons are many.

Full allowance on your old tires regardless of make or length of service.

The added opportunity of buying now at prices figured before the recent 40% rise in crude rubber. Not only the big first cost saving, but the assurance of the longest, safest and most comfortable mileage you've ever known.

The assurance of permanent value through General's policy of never tampering with quality.

Protection now against any future rise in prices.

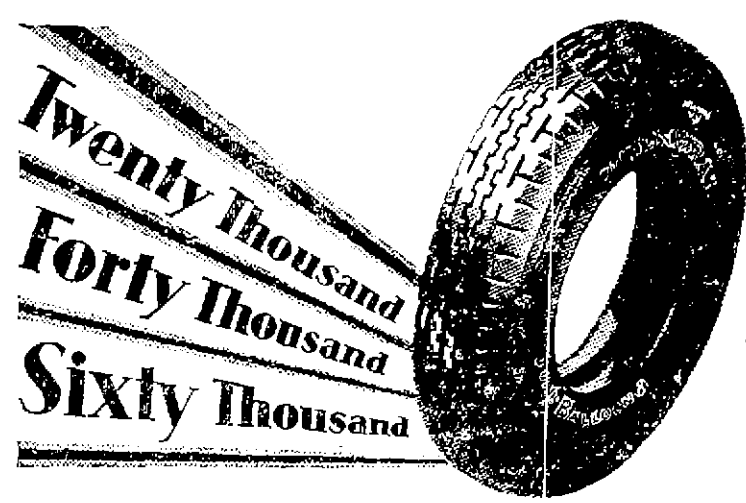

An Annual Event this year bigger than ever

This year's Trade-in Sale is the biggest in our history... Never before have so many factors combined to the advantage of tire buyers. With summer just ahead, now is the time to equip for the year—to get started on Generals and enjoy the finest mileage and the biggest mileage ever known.

The real purpose of our Trade-in Sale is to make new friends by making it cost so little to get Generals on your car... We know that once you roll away on Generals we have made a customer for life.

Bring your car around today. Let us take off your old tires—pay you liberally for them—and equip your car with brand-new Generals. The saving will amaze you and the satisfaction will keep you on Generals always.

The New GENERAL Dual-Balloon 8

Greater mileage at regular balloon low-pressure. It completely reverses the tendency of today toward high-pressure or moderate-pressure in tires.

It introduces a new permanency of non-skid... far beyond the point where you expect to run on smooth rubber. It does away with the necessity of running on tires that wear prematurely "bald."

In puncture freedom, too, it is far ahead. Even the re-more chance of a puncture is reduced to the vanishing point.

Our Trade-in Sale includes the new Dual-Balloon 8 and the regular super-lines of 4-ply, 6-ply and 8-ply Generals.

Trade-in now for General's Top-Quality that means season after season of trouble-free driving and the economy of the longest, safest and most comfortable mileage you have ever known.

Special Bargains in Used Tires

The used tires go on sale as fast as we take them in. Many are only slightly worn and many are brand-new tires of standard makes. All sizes, all makes, all kinds go on sale. Select yours early.

Next Sunday being the third and last of the three greatest days of the Christian year, Pentecost, commonly called Whitsunday, special services will be held in Trinity church, with hymns, Scripture, etc., appropriate to so great a Biblical feast day.

It is also the birthday of the Christian church.

The rector, the Rev. Philip C. Pearson, will take for his topic a much neglected, frequently passed over one, namely, "The Work of the Holy Spirit in the World Through the Centuries and Today." The sanctifying activities of the spirit of Christ are frequently overlooked, especially by all having the point of view, the Bible and the Bible only. The hour is 11 a. m., daylight saving time.

Because of the very great meaning of the day, it is one on which all Episcopalians are expected to receive the holy communion after careful preparation therefor.

CONSTITUTIONALIST.

"Are you a constitutional lawyer?" "I am," answered Senator Sorghum. "You thoroughly understand that noble document?"

Illinois Man Saw Lincoln Twice

(International News Service) SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 17.—The honor of being probably the only living person who viewed the face of Abraham Lincoln the last two times the body was viewed for identification rests today upon the shoulders of Leon P. Hopkins, 78, veteran Springfield plumber.

The casket was last reopened in 1901. Prior to that it had not been reopened since 1877. On both of those occasions Hopkins was employed to cut a hole in the casket over Lincoln's face and when the inspection was completed resolder the casket shut.

The history of Lincoln's body following his assassination follows: Arrived in Springfield, May 3, 1865; placed in temporary vault following day's repose; December 21 to a temporary vault; and remained there until Sept. 17, 1876 when the body was viewed and placed in crypt in partially completed monument. Reopened there until Nov. 7, 1878, when attempt was made to steal the body. Guard of honor formed kept constant watch over the body until placed in permanent vault at monument.

The worst hard luck connected with a two-dollar bill is that it isn't five.

The Story Of The World War
XII—The First French Offensive

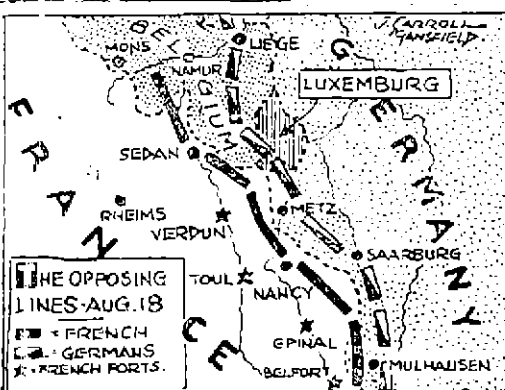

THE FRENCH ENTERED THE WAR WITH CALIC ENTHUSIASM. THE MOBILIZATION OF THE ARMY PROGRESSED SMOOTHLY, AND WITHIN A FEW DAYS THE FRENCH FORCES, DIVIDED INTO FIVE ARMIES, WERE MASSED ALONG THE BORDER FROM BELGIUM TO SWITZERLAND, FORMING A LINE SOME TWO HUNDRED MILES LONG.

THE FRENCH DID NOT INTEND TO WAIT FOR THE GERMANS TO INVADE FRANCE. GENERAL JOFFRE, THE FRENCH COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, PURPOSED, WHEN THE MOMENT FOR ACTION ARRIVED, TO HURL ALL HIS FORCES TO THE EAST, ON BOTH SIDES OF METZ, AND IMMEDIATELY CARRY THE FIGHTING INTO GERMAN TERRITORY.

AUGUST 6, FRENCH ADVANCE GUARDS BEGAN A DASH INTO ALSACE. TWO DAYS LATER THEY REACHED ALTKIRK, AND ON THE 9TH OCCUPIED MULHAUSEN. THEY ENCOUNTERED STIFF OPPOSITION, AND ON THE 11TH, WHEN GREAT MASSES OF GERMANS APPEARED IN THEIR FRONT, THE FRENCH, OUTNUMBERED, WERE FORCED TO ABANDON MULHAUSEN AND FALL BACK TOWARD THE FRONTIER.

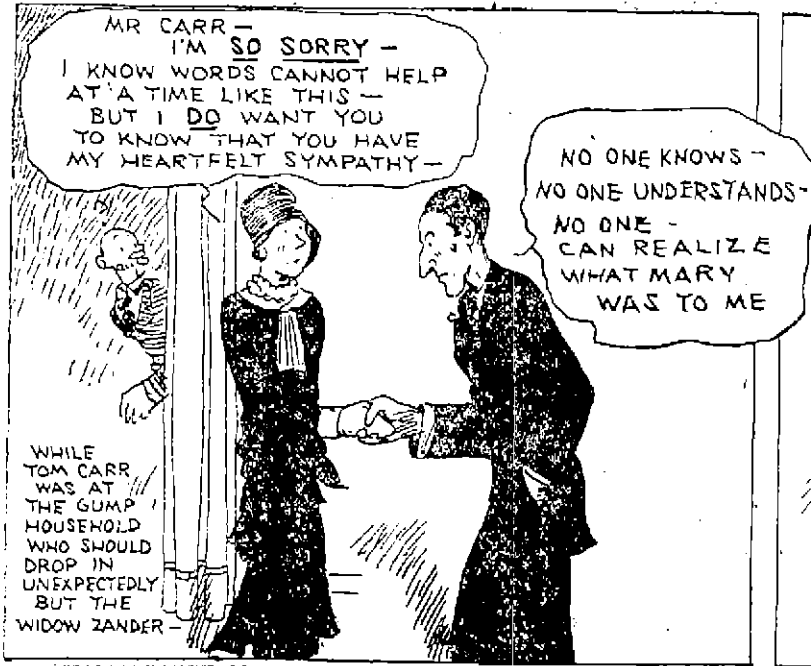

MEANWHILE, REPORTS OF THE GERMAN MOVEMENT THROUGH BELGIUM WERE COMING IN TO THE FRENCH HEADQUARTERS. BUT THE MAGNITUDE OF THE INVASION IN THE NORTH WAS NOT REALIZED. ON AUGUST 18, JOFFRE HURLED THE FIRST AND SECOND FRENCH ARMIES, LED BY GENERALS DUBAIL AND DE CASTELNAU, INTO ALSACE AND LORRAINE.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 17.—Louisville was a great, sprawling sugar cake this morning and its queer population were as flies, swarming over its bosom to dine upon the sweetest tidbit from the cuisine of all horse racing, the Kentucky Derby.

The feast wasn't due to begin for twenty-four hours, but the guests already were at the banquet board, knives in hand and with that anticipatory gleam of eye that only the discriminating turf lover can know. Their number was legion this morning. Tomorrow, there will be pandemonium.

From East, from South, from North, from West they were coming in hordes such as only flies, centering upon their sugar and hummingbeings heading toward a great horse race can produce, and by post, time tomorrow that part of America that isn't represented by proxy will have to consider itself most un-American indeed.

Greatest Race
For this is America's horse race, this heart-lifting rush of hoof beats over a mile and a quarter of the classic Downs, and all of America seemed to be here to see it. This was only as it should be.

For once, it was to be an all-American race, they have made some capital in former years of the intersectional angle, the effete East against the broadening West. Today, they have a horse race in prospect that will bring the East, the West, the South and the State of California crowding to the rail to voice the universal plan for the horse of their choice.

Off-hand, there are eight horses that have a definite chance to win this race, namely Blue Larkspur, Clyde Van Dusen, Nishapur, Voltair, Karl Bittel, Windy City, Minotaur and Vermajo. Their affiliation and environment know eight different and widely scattered locales. This three hot choices are Blue Larkspur, Clyde Van Dusen and Nishapur. The first of these is the Bradley horse and, of course, is Blue Grass bred. He is a cosmopolitan, at that, for he has raced only once in Kentucky and then to beat Van Dusen over a short distance.

TONY RICHARDS JOINS SLOVAKS

Veteran Baseball Player And Pilot Back In Harness

"I am still in the baseball racket. They can't keep me out."

This is the foreword of a communication from Tony Richards which arrived here today.

Tony says he has been named business manager and coach of the Slovak A. C. of the Lawrence county loop.

It will be the thirtieth year in baseball for Richards who was 25 years with the I. A. A., organized in 1894.

Here's some of his record:
With the I. A. A. from 1899 to 1928.
He acted as manager for 18 years and two as president and five as business manager.

Tony was with the Studebakers in 1925-26 and led the Independents in 1927.

He acted as business manager for the Italian A. C. in 1928.

Here is what Tony wants managers to do:

Solomon Bowlers Continue To Shine With Fine Scores

The Solomon recreational alleys in the seventh ward are producing some mighty bowling scores these days, in both tens and ducks.

The two-man duckpin team of Hockney and Patterson rolled 113 for a record for the week and captured the prize last night. In the main tenpin games the team of Bachofner and Thompson defeated Hawn and Eynon 1251 to 1179 in tens, with Bachofner rolling high score of 235.

All four of the men had very fine averages for the match.

Harris and Bachofner rolled a new high score for doubles in tens and defeated Hawn and Eynon last night. Both teams had over 1300, which is a fine record. The match was won by the slim margin of four pins. Bachofner rolled a 273 in the second game to be high scorer of the match.

On Wednesday night at the alleys, Clark and Domenick defeated Anderson and Solomon at ducks by nine pins, with totals of 257 and 248. Anderson rolled 211 in the first game for high man. "Rastus" Domenick and "Cheets" Domenick defeated Anderson and Solomon at Ducks in a special match by 15 pins with totals of 697 and 642. "Cheets" Domenick had high score of 200.

Methodists Win

The First Methodist team won a forfeit game in the New Castle Church League on Thursday night, at the Leigh field, when the Central Christian team failed to put in an appearance for their scheduled game. The umpire awarded the game to the Methodists.

Punch Attracts Fandom Action Galore Monday

Herrera Will Get Good Testing When He Meets Frankie Ferro

By ED. FRITZ
Ye old-timer, one "Silent" Smith, so-called because he has witnessed the comin' and goin' of athletes, track, field, baseball, grid, diamond and the ring, meandered in the main stem today. He appeared the picture of health and a smile radiated over his countenance. Knowing him to be a man of few words excepting on occasions when he was keyed up over some sport proposition we mentioned: "Herrera's coming back."

Those words seemed to electrify the old-timer, a chap of probably sixty summers, who traveled the national drama and fistic rials when we were in knce breeches. "Yes, so I read. Quite a boy, I'm told," replied ye old-timer. It didn't take us long to mention: "Frankie Ferro, the Philadelphia favorite is going to take him on. All the other boys paged refused to take a chance."

"Easy to understand that," said ye old-timer. "They tell me he is a second auro, a slayer when in action. Oh, Ferro ought to give him a testing."

The old-timer is correct. Ferro ought to test him. Frankie has been in the fistic war for sometime and recently spilled a couple of walnuts in Philadelphia when he toppled Spike Kenny. Tony Moccia and beat Mickey Diamond like a housewife treats a rug.

"Herrera can box. He can hit. He is polished and is smart. He's been through his test and his heart and he's found strong, so he ought to make the grade," said ye old-timer. "A kid, so constituted ought to get by but you never can tell. A fight is like a card game. It is never over until the last punch is flung." In this the "silent" one is correct as a W. U. clock.

Punch Appeals to Fans
And then we talked on punch. It is punch that the fans like to see Herrera hit the wallop. During the past three weeks he has knocked out Andy Gagon, Henry Perlick and Ray Newton. It was the first time these aforesaid gentlemen were caressed with a boxing glove in such a sudden and alarming manner as to put them down and out for the allotted 10 seconds. When Herrera stopped Newton here, he accomplished the feat rather expeditiously and in a fashion that left no doubt as to his ability.

When Ray swung, Herrera, either countered or drifted away. In close Tony beat a tattoo on chin and stomach. Compared as boxers Newton could not compete at all. All he had to offer was a knockout punch. It was not sufficient as Herrera apparently had everything. In the fourth round Herrera sloshed Newton with punches and the Mandel boy crumpled under the relentless attack in the fifth.

He may find Ferro different. Ferro has a reputation as a boxer, puncher and is said to be tough as Hickory. He is a much better fighter than Newton and we expect to see him force the fighting. If Herrera cannot hit out going away and doesn't take the play from Ferro he may suffer the first defeat of his career.

At any rate there'll be a big crowd at Jolly Bowl Monday night to see him win or lose.

Cavelli Takes On Dempsey
Carl Cavelli, bantamweight has not fought here since he trimmed Jackie Powers to a nicely. Previously Carl milled with the tough Andy Tomaskey and the clever Willie Davies.

Since those days he has taken on weight and will tackle Bobby Dempsey of Detroit. Dempsey is visiting at Ambridge and while here said he would like to take on one or more of the brighter semi-finalists of Jolly Bowl renown.

Leo Moody, Erie, will give Scotty Graham a chance to make good the assertion that he is the best flyweight, excepting Davies and Rodgers in Western Pennsylvania. If Graham can beat Moody he will be given recognition here, Erie, Buffalo and Ashabina. Mickey Donato, who claims to have been injured was offered the bout but maintains the injury to his shoulder still exists. Leo and Scotty will go six rounds.

Pete Mazoe, U. S. Olympic team bantam of 1928 with 10 wins and one draw will meet Pres Johnson of Akron in a four rounder and Vito Mazoe, brother of Pete, and winner of the Golden Glove tourney this year will take on Young Scotty of Akron or Joe Page of Pittsburgh in another four rounder.

Jennings Trails Jackie King
Johnny Jennings, South Side lightweight who dropped the city lightweight title to Jack King, alias Young Smick, last Monday night is said to be aching for another chance at his rival.

King came out of the fight worse than Jennings. He had two black eyes and a bruised nose. However, Jennings was knocked down twice during the encounter.

Joe Dinger says he wants another chance. Johnny Piat outpointed him. He claims he wasn't right when he fought Piat. Mickey Solomon is taking a rest as Johnny Carey rolled him for a count. Dinger and Mickey are about the same weight. They have hunches all to themselves. Joe would like to fight Mickey. Solomon believes the idea is mutual.

And then there is another fight brewing here. Roy Minter has been hogging the limelight and along comes Tony Leone. Tony was offered a bout not long ago but evidently changed his mind. An emissary was sent to him and he said he wanted to battle in Wheeling. Roy and Leone would make a hot fight for the city bantam title.

Schoell Ready For Anyone
While they are dreaming of the city crown Jack Henry of Wampum shouldn't be forgotten. Jackie King says he is as tough as hickory and as fast as quick silver. If this kid from Wampum years for action, the Jolly Bowl fans will welcome him. They like action.

Frankie Schoell has wired here that he will fight at the Bowl whenever the Bowl can find anyone to fight him. Herrera will battle anyone in the featherweight, junior lightweight or lightweight class. Chuck Wiggins and Al Friedman will battle any of the heavyweights.

Congregationals Defeat Baptists

The First Congregational baseball team of the New Castle Church League downed the First Baptists 13 to 6, in a league tilt played at the Croton field on Thursday night. Next Wednesday the Stars will travel to Clifton Platts field to meet the Clifton Platts team, in a benefit game. The game will start at 6:30 o'clock.

Glenna Collett On Way To Title In British Open

American Girl Golfer Takes Lead Over Joyce Wethered
In British Open

By F. A. WARAY

ST. ANDREW'S FIFE, Scotland, May 17.—Miss Glenna Collett, American national champion, got a strange hold on the British ladies' open golf championship here today by emerging two up on Joyce Wethered, England's premier woman golfer. At the end of the first eighteen holes of the thirty-six hole final of the tournament.

Miss Collett maintains her present form in the second round this afternoon, she should have little difficulty in walking off with the title—which carries with it the accepted championship of the world.

Field Meet At Ben Franklin

This afternoon at Franklin field, some 300 boys of the Ben Franklin junior high school are competing for honors in Franklin's annual inter-class track and field meet. Physical Director LeRoy N. Norton is in charge of the "athletic carnival."

Schoolboys Prepare For Meet Here Next Tuesday Afternoon

With but four days left, New Castle, Washington and Wilkinsburg are entered in the javelin throw high schools, who are to compete for test.

The high hurdles will find Smith, Cuba and Calderwood representing Pa. New's domain. Campbell, Hanon, Smith and Jones are entered in the low hurdles. The others who will make up the meet in the high jump, broad jump and mile relay events respectively follow: Wanio, Donegan, Cochran, Sandru, Yeweski, Harper, Burry, Clemens, Sandru and Barlett will make up New Castle's relay team.

New Castle's track team under Coaches Klee and Bridenbaugh, is rounding into shape and the men feel confident that the local tracksters will be on top when the meet ends.

The following boys will more than likely represent New Castle in the meet: Campbell, Sandru and Harper in the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash; Campbell and Barlett will participate in the 440-yard run, while "Babe" Clemens, star half miler for the locals, and Szamery will run in the half-mile grid.

Burry and Lockley will be entered in the mile run. Craft, who is reputed as one of the best field men in this section, along with DeCarbo, Alexander and Cuba, will represent the local and black warriors in the shot put engagement. Craft and Cuba will compete in the discus throw, while Four fast games are billed tonight in the New Castle Church League. The Congregationals will play the Mahoning M. E. team at Clifton Platts field, with Nicholson the umpire. The Croton team meets the First Christians at Croton field, with Black the official. The Wesley M. E. team tangles with the Central Christians at Sodand Lane with Rodgers handling the game. The first M. E. opposes the Central Presbyterians, at Leigh, with C. Reed the umpire. All games will start at 8:15 o'clock.

Two Track Meets For Westminster

Tech And Geneva To Be Met
During Coming Week
By Titans

Although handicapped by rainy weather, the Westminster College track team is practicing daily in preparation for the Carnegie Tech and Geneva dual meets next week. Tech will be met at Pittsburgh on Wednesday, May 22, and Geneva will be met at Beaver Falls Friday, May 24.

Westminster should be able to win out over Carnegie Tech if the men are in their best of shape, but Geneva is apt to prove the stumbling block to the Titans' dual meet record this season. The Covenanters are always strong in track, and this year is no exception.

Following the Tech and Geneva meets Westminster will have four days in which to get set for the tri-state conference championship at Beaver Falls on Memorial Day. The conference games will undoubtedly resolve into a three-cornered fight between Bethany, Geneva and Westminster this year, with Geneva the decided favorite to repeat last year's work.

Church League

Four fast games are billed tonight in the New Castle Church League. The Congregationals will play the Mahoning M. E. team at Clifton Platts field, with Nicholson the umpire. The Croton team meets the First Christians at Croton field, with Black the official. The Wesley M. E. team tangles with the Central Christians at Sodand Lane with Rodgers handling the game. The first M. E. opposes the Central Presbyterians, at Leigh, with C. Reed the umpire. All games will start at 8:15 o'clock.

Lawrence County League Doings

One game will be played in the Lawrence County League on Saturday afternoon. The Pennsy team clashes with the Slovak A. C. at the Clifton Platts field. The game will start at 3 o'clock. Daylight Savings Time.

The Pennsy team is now leading the league, and they will be out to defeat the Slovaks again, having turned the trick last night, at the E. & A. field.

Thirty One Hits Garnered From Frost-Ridden Digits Of Hurlers

ST. LOUIS WINS IN NINTH FRAME

PITTSBURGH, May 17.—Six pitchers were used in the Pittsburgh-St. Louis game, which was carried off by St. Louis, 10 to 9. Thirty-one hits were garnered off the frost-bitten digits and Bottomley got a brace of home runs, while L. Warner and Comorosky tripled. St. Louis scored victory in the ninth when they broke the 9-9 deadlock. The hitting honors went to L. Warner and Swetonic, who got three hits each.

Adams juggled Holm's jumper and Gelbert laid down a sacrifice in the tenth. Wilson nailed out a double and Holm crossed the plate with the winning run. The box score:

Cen. Presbyterians Defeat Methodists

The Central Presbyterians with Johnny Meider pitching at right ball handed the First Christians a 15 to 5 defeat, last evening in the New Castle Church League game, played at the Scotland Lane field. Meider limited the Christians to but five hits and fanned ten men. The Presbyterians found the offering of Horchler and Sheets to their liking, and socked out fourteen hits. Ten extra-base hits featured the game, with Sheets having three doubles to grab off the spotlight.

The Golfing Smiths

"Mac. SMITH"

Horton SMITH

By QUIN HALL

Possibly it's just good playing. The name of Smith has figured rather prominently in politics and who was just a fair amateur up to a good spread of years.

When Al lost to Hoover last fall he apparently faded out of the political picture and there seems to be no other Smith on deck just now to carry on the family banner in the political realm.

Macdonald Smith has done a good job of keeping the name alive in golf circles and should be there there is another Smith—Horton, the sensational young pro of Joplin Mo., who seems capable of making the sports headlines for some time to come.

Pate has been unkind to Mac. While he has long been considered one of the best shot makers in the game and while he has won much fame on the links he has never been able to finish on top in either the British or American Open. And those titles are the ones which really count in the golfing world. In some respects, it's like a snuffing snagger who some day hopes to hook a bass.

But fate or something—is making good while seasoned veterans were sunk. He's some golfer.

Not included in the Ryder cup foursomes by Captain Hazen the Joplin lad accounted for one of the two singles victories scored by the Americans. Leo Diegel rung up the other while Al Espinosa succeeded in halving his match.

With a flying start toward victory in the foursomes the other U. S. stars were victorious but the defeat of the Americans can, in no manner, be chalked up against young Smith.

Smith the baby of the team made a good while while seasoned veterans were sunk. He's some golfer.

Wampum Defeats Hillsville 11-6

The Wampum Crescents last evening hung an 11 to 6 defeat on the Hillsville team in a Lawrence county league game played at the Wampum field. The game was featured by extremely heavy hitting with four home runs being socked out of the lot.

Mundo had the hurling assignment for the Wampumites and held the Hillsville team to eight hits. D. Augustine was the heavier for the losers, and was touched for nine hits. The game was loose in spots with four errors being chalked up.

The Wampum team climbed on Augustine in the first inning for four runs and also scored runs in the next three innings and also the sixth. The Hillsville team scored three runs in the first inning and thereafter found Mundo hard to solve. Meyers, Grist, Grinnen and Buchelle had home runs to feature the game.

The box score turned into The News office was not complete and therefore was not published. The News office now has a big supply of score sheets on hand and these should be used.

GRASPING OPPORTUNITY.

"It's there how my memory is weakening. It's getting worse every day. Tomorrow morning I won't be able to remember what I've been doing today."

"Is that so? It's really too bad. Say listen can you let me have 50 bucks for about five days?"

He has polse pitching polse, and a twisting curve ball and a fast ball that whistles by helpless batsmen.

Hubbell says little. But he pitches a "100". His taciturn manner may have had a great deal to do with the Tigers failing to see his worth.

It's being said around the older circuit that had Hubbell joined the Giants earlier last year they might have won the pennant. As it was he proved a great help in the closing days of the season.

Jack Scott, Giant veteran, was quoted early this season and his words now ring as a true prophecy.

"Hubbell," said Jack Scott, "will win 25 games for us this season."

SLOVAKS PLAY P. R. R. AT CLIFTON FLATS

Slovak Athletic club and the Pennsylvania railroad team will clash at three o'clock fast time at Clifton Flats Saturday afternoon. It is a regular Lawrence County loop game. White or Gonda will catch for the Slovaks and either Cladella, Hiler, Mehalic, Lazar or Turco will pitch.

With such an auspicious start, Hubbell should enjoy a big year with the Giants. His classic against the Pirates was his third straight win of the season. The Oklahoma south-paw's chief assets are his screw ball, his fast one and his control. He won 10 games and lost six last fall, when he was used mainly as a relief pitcher.

Both Hubbell and Denver Bill Walker, another promising New York southpaw, were dug up by Dick Kinsella of Springfield, Ill., the eagle-eyed scout of the Giants. As a result of their success, any twirler unearthed by Kinsella in the future will be given a thorough tryout by the Giants, even if he has only one arm and a wooden leg to boot.

Jack Dempsey stated in New York yesterday he would consider a comeback attempt if offered a million dollars.

Tony Herrera and Frankie Ferro, rival pugilists, who battle Monday at Jolly bowl here, will arrive in the city Sunday.

Willie Davies will take on Frisco Gracie tonight in a ten round boxing bout at Pittsburgh.

John Van Ryn and John Hennessey defeated Canadian players in the first round of Davis tennis cup at Montreal.

Walter Hazen fell before George Duncan in the 1,000 guinea golf tournament but Leo Diegel won two matches at Moorstown, England.

Frank Smith, Y. Pittsburgh won the Allegheny A. C. basketball championship when he beat Nat Wrinkelman, Y. M. H. A. Pittsburgh, 21-10, 21-4, at Pittsburgh.

Glenna Collett meets Joyce Wehler in the 36 hole final match for the British women's golf championship today. Glenna defeated Mrs. J. B. Watson and Miss Doris Park yesterday.

Lewis Erin, Kittanning wrapshoot, carried off the Mountain Valley Gun club honors at Greensburg when she powdered 57 clay birds for high score.

Get Results Of Games In Early

The 1929 baseball season in New Castle is about to start.

The New Castle News will publish accounts of games played in the various leagues as far as possible, providing the score sheets are turned in to The News office the same night the game is played, or at the very latest by 8 o'clock the next morning. This ruling must be lived up to.

Also, The News will not, under any circumstances, this year compile a standing of any league. If the teams and leagues desire a standing result in The News, they must hand the same in at The News office. Too much time has been wasted in other years in trying to locate ball teams who fail to report games.

If the baseball populace of the city and county will lend their cooperation, the results can be published. Get your scores in early, make this a slogan for the year. It's up to the team managers.

PREPARATIONS.
Mrs. Jones—Mother writes that she will be here tomorrow for a long visit.

Mr. Jones (to young son)—Tommy, I didn't ask me the other day to buy you an air gun, a trumpet and a drum.

Tommy—Yes, dad.
Mr. Jones—Well, I shall bring them tonight.—Tit-Bits.

SORDS POINTS

Cinches Place In Hall Of Fame

By JACK SORDS
Central Press Sports Cartoonist

Having wrapped up and delivered for safekeeping by the New York Giants the 14th no-hit game pitched in big league circles, Mr. Carl Hubbell, young and ambitious pitcher, has clinched a place in baseball's hall of fame in his first full year in the majors.

Dropped by the Detroit Tigers as being unworthy of big league company, Hubbell hooked up with the Beaumont club of the Texas League, buried amazing ball and was snatched up by the Giants.

Carl proved last season the Giants had not erred in giving him a chance, and now he is one of New York's immortals, ranking with the other pitching no-hit greats who have also worn the Gotham National League colors: Christy Mathewson, Amos Rusie, Leon Ames, George Witse, Charles Tesreau, Rube Marquard and Jesse Barnes.

The rise of Hubbell is amazing. Lacking color usually attributed to left-handers, he does not appear aggressive, nor is he so cock-sure. But he has polse pitching polse, and a twisting curve ball and a fast ball that whistles by helpless batsmen.
